

Diplomacy of Judicial Facilitators

As part of the effort to institutionalize and give sustainability for the services rendered by the Judicial Facilitators, we have started an alliance with the National University of Nicaragua, in which the local OAS personnel will participate hoping to apply it in many other countries as well.

The UNAN- Managua starts the Diplomacy Promotion for the Services of the National Judicial Facilitators

The National University of Nicaragua's Principal, Mr. Francisco Guzman, Inaugurated the Diplomacy Promotion for the Services of the National Judicial Facilitators on July 18th, 2008. It was directed by Judges, the Police Department, Fiscal Defenders, and many other Justice Operators.

The diplomacy is part of the efforts that the judicial power puts into effect, which is sponsored by the UNAN, the judicial school, the Central American Court of justice, and the Program of Inter-American Judicial Facilitators of the OAS along with the support of the Swedish International Development Cooperation Agency (SIDA).
