DOCUMENT PRESENTED BY THE DELEGATION OF ARGENTINA
DURING THE THIRTIETH REGULAR SESSION
OF CICAD

EMBASSY OF THE ARGENTINE REPUBLIC
Caracas, Venezuela

The Delegation of Argentina, acting on express instructions from its Government, is pleased to address the Executive Secretariat of the thirtieth regular session of CICAD to propose the following amendment to Article 8 of the Regulations of the Commission:

“Territories regarding which there exists a sovereignty dispute with a member state of the OAS shall not be admitted or represented in any way at meetings or in the activities of the Commission.

Any reference, oral or in writing, to a territory which is the object of a sovereignty dispute with a member state of the OAS may only be recorded in documents and minutes of the Commission if the consent of the member state party to the dispute has been requested and granted in writing.”

The Executive Secretariat is hereby requested to circulate this proposal by the Delegation of the Argentine Republic as an official document of the thirtieth regular session of CICAD.

Caracas, November 14, 2001
