INVITATION TO CELEBRATE A SPECIAL MEETING OF THE CIP
EXECUTIVE BOARD 2006 IN SPAIN

Ports and Merchant Marine
General Coordination

Mexico D.F., October 21st of 2004

Mr. Mariano Navas Gutiérrez
President of Puertos del Estado

I am pleased to have received the offer of Puertos del Estado, of which you are President, to host a Special Meeting of the Executive Board of the Inter-American Committee on Ports of the Organization of American States in Spain in 2006.

As Chair of the Executive Board of the Inter-American Committee on Ports, I thank you for this cordial invitation. It further reaffirms the solid and extensive collaboration that unites us professionally and deepens the friendship between the Spanish port community and the countries of the Americas.

I will gladly transmit this kind invitation to the Subcommittee on Policy and Coordination, which will convene at the beginning of next December. I am certain that, with the collaboration of the other member states and the support of our Technical Secretary, we will be able to elaborate an agenda which is of common interest to our commendable hosts.

Sincerely,

Mr. César Patricio Reyes Roel
General Coordinator

C.C. Mr. Carlos M. Gallegos, Executive Secretary of the Inter-American Committee on Ports.
