INTER-AMERICAN FORCE

held on May 6, 1965)

This Tenth Meeting of Consultation at its session on May 1, 1965, established a Special Committee composed of five of its members to go to the Dominican Republic to seek the re-establishment of peace and normal conditions in the territory of that republic;

The abovementioned resolution requests the governments of the member states and the Secretary General of the Organization of American States to extend their full cooperation to facilitate the work of the Special Committee;

- 11 -

The formation of an inter-American force will signify ipso facto the transformation of the forces presently in Dominican territory into another force that would not be that of one state or of a group of states but that of the Organization of American States, an interstatal organization, which Organization is charged with the responsibility of interpreting the democratic will of its members;

The American states being under the obligation to provide reciprocal assistance to each other, the Organization is under even greater obligation to safeguard the principles of the Charter and to do everything possible so that in situations such as that prevailing in the Dominican Republic appropriate measures may be taken leading to the re-establishment of peace and normal democratic conditions;

The Organization of American States being competent to assist the member states in the preservation of peace and the re-establishment of normal democratic conditions, undoubtedly it is also competent to provide the means that reality and circumstances require and that prudence counsels as adequate for the accomplishment of such purposes; and

The Special Committee that went to the Dominican Republic, in its second message to this Meeting of Consultation, advises the formation of an inter-American force to achieve the objectives determined by the Meeting,

5. That the withdrawal of the Inter-American Force from the Dominican Republic shall be determined by this Meeting of Consultation.
