Amendment no. 1
to the Research Support Grant Agreement
for the project entitled

"Supporting e-government development in Latin America and the Caribbean"

The International Development Research Centre (hereinafter called the Centre), on behalf of the Institute for the Connectivity in the Americas (ICA), agrees to amend the Agreement concluded with the General Secretariat of the Organization of American States (herein after referred to as the Recipient) on June 1st, 2005. The amended conditions follow in their order of appearance in the original Agreement.

1. Special conditions

Taxes

Section A7.3 of the attachment A, is hereby replaced by the following:

The Centre recognizes:

(i) that the Recipient is the central and permanent organ of the Organization of American States (OAS);

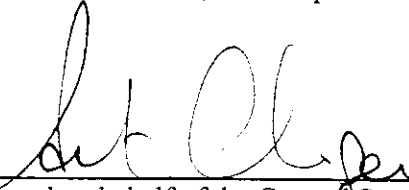

(ii) that the OAS and the Recipient have privileges and immunities under Article 133 of the OAS Charter under which they enjoy, in the territory of each member state, such legal capacity, privileges, and immunities as are necessary for the exercise of their functions and the accomplishment of their purposes; and

(iii) that under headquarters agreements with various member states, the OAS and the Recipient are exempt from all sales, use, and property taxes and are exempt from all custom duties and charges of a similar nature in respect of articles imported or exported for their official use.

All other terms and conditions of the original Agreement continue to apply.
