

Organization of
American States

ICRC

Special Meeting on International Humanitarian Law

Sylvain Vité

Legal Adviser, International Committee of the Red Cross

Sylvain Vité has been Legal Adviser at the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) since April 2007. Before joining the ICRC, he worked as senior researcher and lecturer at the Geneva Academy of International Humanitarian Law and Human Rights. He was also deputy co-ordinator of the International Reference Centre for the Rights of Children deprived of their Family (Geneva, International Social Service). He was also ICRC Delegate in the past, mainly in Latin America.

Dr. Sylvain Vité holds a PhD degree from the University of Geneva, as well as a LL.M Degree from the Washington College of Law.

He has extensively published on international humanitarian law, human rights law and children rights law.