

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

During the preparation of this document, many institutions and individuals gave freely of their time, knowledge and experience in helping collecting and analyzing information and in elaborating on the national studies of the current state of the vulnerability of road segments to natural hazards of the Pan American Highway and its complementary corridors in Central America. While it is impossible to adequately acknowledge all those who contributed to the preparation of this document, it is possible to mention the contributions from the collaborators identified below.

The names of the persons that appear immediately following the names of the institutions are those of the focal points, which were identified for the Organization of American States-United States Department of Transportation (OAS-USDE) project with the assistance of the Secretariat for Economical Integration in Central America (SIECA). Following those names are the names of the technical personnel selected by the focal points to coordinate and prepare the respective national study.

Costa Rica

Dirección de Planificación, Ministerio de Obras Públicas y Transporte (MOPT)
Maria Lorena López and Ania Beleida Alfaro
Technical Team: Miguel Cubero, and Yamileth Alvarez Delgado

El Salvador

Unidad de Planificación Vial, Ministerio de Obras Públicas (MOP)
Oscar Alfredo Díaz Cruz
Technical Team: Benjamin Yanes

Guatemala

División de Planificación y Estudios, Dirección General de Caminos (DGC)
Edelberto Theos

Honduras

Unidad de Planeamiento y Evaluación de Gestión, Sistema de Obras Públicas, Transporte y Vivienda (SOPTRAVI)
Carlos de Jesus Valle
Technical Team: Marvin Adalberto Mira

Nicaragua

Dirección General de Planificación, Ministerio de Transporte e Infraestructura (MTI)
Mario Palacios
Technical Team: Lubina Cantarero, Anabel Ortega, and Ana Izaguirre

Panamá

Dirección Nacional, Instituto Geográfico Nacional “Tommy Guardia” (IGNTG),
Ministerio de Obras Públicas
Dennis Fuentes
Technical Team: Vianca Judith Cedeño

In addition, an acknowledgment is offered to SIECA and the Central America Center for Natural Disaster Prevention (CEPREDENAC) for their contribution in accessing information to prepare this document.

William Medigovich and Janet Benini of the Office of Emergency Transportation (OET) at the U.S. Department of Transportation (USDOT) provided unwavering support throughout the preparation of the document and were instrumental in assuring that this activity was included in the U.S. interagency program for post-Hurricane Mitch reconstruction. Also, Barbara Barajas and Tom Scott of OET provided needed administrative orientation and support.

Ray Lynch of the U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID) encouraged and facilitated a useful exchange of information with the other participants of the U.S. interagency program for post-Hurricane Mitch reconstruction.

Stephen Bender and Sylvana Ricciarini prepared this document with the assistance of Paula Tibabuzo, Melanie Dillon and Pedro Bastidas of the Organization of American States, Unit for Sustainable Development and Environment (OAS/USDE). Also, Betty Robinson, consultant, and Maria Eugenia Garcia and Mauricio Martinez, interns, assisted in translating and editing the document.