

WEAR RED

Organización de los Estados Americanos

for women

Program

Friday May 2nd, 2014

9:30 -11:30 am

OAS Hall of the Americas

17th St. and Constitution Ave, NW, Washington, DC 20006

Remarks by the OAS Secretary General, José Miguel Insulza

Remarks by the Chair of the OAS Permanent Council, Ambassador Jacinth Lorna Henry Martin, Permanent Representative of Saint Kitts and Nevis to the OAS

Remarks by Ambassador Emilio Rabasa Gamboa, Permanent Representative of México to the OAS

Remarks by Ambassador Nilda Celia Garré, Permanent Representative of Argentina to the OAS

Remarks by Ambassador José María Argueta, Permanent Representative of Guatemala to the OAS

Remarks by Ambassador Jean-Claude Nolla, Permanent Observer of France to the OAS

Remarks by Ambassador Sebastiano Fulci, Permanent Observer of Italy to the OAS

Closing Remarks by Carmen Moreno, Executive Secretary of the Inter-American Commission of Women (CIM) OAS

Hundreds of red shoes were placed outside the City Council of Ciudad Juárez in December 2012

The idea of red shoes originated from the Mexican artist, Elina Chauvet, who inspired the use of red shoes to protest against the disappearance of women in Ciudad Juárez.