

---

TWENTY-THIRD MODEL OAS GENERAL ASSEMBLY
23rd MOAS
Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic
March 5-10, 2006

---

CODE OF CONDUCT

- Participants in the 23rd MOAS must at all times behave and respect the diplomatic protocols of the Model, including proper oral and corporal language.
- In order to keep the formality and seriousness of the Model all participants must wear business-like attire. Men must wear tie and Jacket.
- It is imperative to behave in a manner that is kind and respectful to all delegates, participants, elected authorities and MOAS staff and support personnel. Any interference to the smooth development of the 23rd MOAS will result on the suspension from the Model of the offending individual or individuals. The decisions of the organizing institutions and those of the National Organizing Committee (CONMOEA) will be final and irrevocable.
- Delegates must observe punctuality regarding all events and sessions during the Model. At the beginning of each session a roll call will be read, if a delegate is not present this will be considered a delay. The first and second delays will deserve a reprimand; the third delay will result in the suspension of the delegate from the Model.
- Registration of all participants is extremely important for security reasons and for the orderly operation of the 23rd MOAS, therefore, all participants must carry their ID tags in plain view and at all times.
- During the 23rd MOAS sessions it is strictly forbidden to eat, smoke, drink alcoholic beverages, consume drugs, and to use electronic devices that may interfere with the debate. Drug consumption and alcohol abuse during or after the sessions of the 23rd MOAS by any of the participants will result in expulsion from the Model.
- CONMOEA will only be responsible for the security of the participants during the 23rd MOAS sessions and official events. The educational institutions and their representatives will have to respond in the event that any student under their supervision, consume drugs or alcohol or damage any property, particularly the hotel facilities.
- Any sign of discrimination based on gender, sexual orientation, race, country of origin, age, religion or physical limitation, as well as favoritism will not be tolerated during the 23rd MOAS.

23rd MOAS, Santo Domingo 2006.