

RESULTS OF THE VIII EDITION

BRAZIL SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

PAEC OAS-GCUB

PARTNERSHIPS PROGRAM FOR EDUCATION AND TRAINING (PAEC) FOR MASTER'S AND DOCTORAL PROGRAMS IN BRAZIL

Published: November 20, 2018

The Organization of American States (OAS), the Coimbra Group of Brazilian Universities (GCUB) and the Pan American Health Organization (PAHO/WHO) are pleased to announce the selected candidates of the eighth consecutive edition of the Brazil Scholarship PAEC OAS-GCUB for master's and doctorate studies in Brazilian universities, starting the academic year in the first or second semester of 2019.

The candidates were selected by the Evaluation Advisory Commission of the PAEC OAS-GCUB Scholarship Program, according to the criteria established in the announcement. The Commission is integrated by PhD professors from prestigious Brazilian universities, as well as representatives of the Brazilian government, the OAS, GCUB and PAHO. Approximately, 4000 applications were reviewed in this process of selection and evaluation of candidates.

Due to the high volume of applications and the vast competition in each of the phases of the selection process, only selected candidates will be contacted by the OAS-GCUB team in the upcoming days, via email with instructions on next steps. Please wait to be contacted. The offering institutions will not provide information on the individual participation of each candidate that was not selected.

NOTE: Only selected candidates will be contacted by the OAS-GCUB team in the upcoming days via email, with instructions on next steps. We kindly request the candidates to wait to be contacted. In case of declined offers by selected awardees, the scholarships will be awarded to other candidates according to the ranking established by the Evaluation Advisory Committee.