

OAS – PEOPLE’S REPUBLIC OF CHINA

2017 SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

OAS Partnerships Program for Education and Training (PAEC)

The purpose of the Scholarship and Training Programs of the Organization of American States (OAS) is to help the member states in their efforts to achieve their objectives of integral development while supporting the development of their human resources in priority areas of the Organization. With this purpose, the Government of the People’s Republic of China, through the Ministry of Education of the People’s Republic of China (MOE), in cooperation with the OAS Department of Human Development, Education and Employment (DHDEE), is offering Chinese Government Scholarship to citizens of OAS member states to pursue studies in People’s Republic of China, in any field of study available to international students, starting in September 2017. The China Scholarship Council (CSC) is responsible for the enrollment of international students and carries out the routine management of Chinese Government Scholarship Programs.

  - Master's degree students, general scholars: CNY 3,000 Yuan
  - Doctoral degree students, senior scholars: CNY 3,500 Yuan
- II. Scholarship recipients shall receive their monthly allowance after registration. New students who register before the 15th of the registration month will receive the full amount of the living allowance of that month. Those who register after 15th will receive half the amount of that month. Scholarship recipients will receive an additional living allowance equivalent to 15 days, after the graduation date set by the university. The allowance will be terminated the month after the student suspends, drops, or completes his/her studies.
- II. The monthly allowance covers school holidays and can be received during or after the holiday break. The allowance will be suspended for one month for those students who do not register on time without permission from the university, leave for non-medical reasons or are absent from the university for over a month.
- ✓. Students who have to suspend their studies because of serious medical reasons should return to the home country and cover their own airfare. The living allowance will be suspended at the time of departure. With the university's approval, the scholarship status can be reserved for a maximum of one year. The scholarship will be terminated for those who suspend their studies for other reasons.

- VI. If you have any questions about the OAS Scholarship application form, please contact: Jennifer Hoogdorp at Jhoogdorp@oas.org.

9. SELECTION CRITERIA

- A. The merits and overall credentials of the applicant, including academic and/or professional experience will be evaluated according to the following criteria:
  - I. The quality of the written essays including how well the candidate explains the impact they believe their studies will have on their institution/community/country.
  - II. For graduate student candidates:
    - a) The candidate's university grade point average (GPA) and class ranking which should be considered superior by his or her country/institution.
    - b) Academic papers, writing and art works published
    - c) The level of completeness of the required documentation and the detail put into the preparation of the application.
    - d) The quality of the recommendation letters which attest to the candidate's ability to perform and to succeed as a scholarship recipient.
    - e) The references should additionally describe what contribution and impact the recommender believes the candidate will have on the institution/community/country.
- B. The potential and commitment of the candidate to apply the knowledge and skills acquired to the development of the sponsoring country.

10. SELECTION PROCESS AND NOTIFICATION OF AWARD

- A. CSC will assess all application documents and CSC reserves the right to make necessary adjustments to the proposed institutions, specialties and duration of study, as well as the benefits and requirements mentioned above. Qualified applications will be forwarded to the academic institutions and they will forward their nominations to CSC for agreement. Applications will be regarded as invalid and will not be accepted if they fail to meet the enrollment requirements or if the application documents are incomplete.
- B. If overseas applicants for degree programs with exemption of examinations are academically ineligible to the proposed programs, the institution reserves the right to decide the academic program they could attend or whether to give them conditional offers for their proposed programs. Students who attend Chinese language courses prior to their university study or those who attend the college preparatory program must pass the university entrance examinations or other examinations required before they start their major studies. Students attending the college preparatory program who fail to pass the required examinations within the allotted period will finish studying in the People's Republic of China as a language student; hence they will not begin their undergraduate/graduate course of study in the People's Republic of China.

- C. Applicants are required to enclose the relevant admission notice from Chinese Higher Education Institutions, if they have one, in the documents submitted to the OAS. Scholarship applicants academically accepted by Chinese HEIs will be officially awarded the Chinese Government Scholarship with approval from the CSC.
- D. Students are required to sign their Admission Notice, if they have no objection with the placement, and are not permitted, in principle, to change their specialties, institutions or the duration of study specified in the Admission Notice.
- E. The OAS will conduct a pre-selection process in April 2017.
- F. The OAS will officially announce the pre-selected scholarship awardees in May 2017.
- G. The CSC will conduct a final selection from April to July 2017 and the OAS will forward Admission Letters and Visa Application Forms for Study in the People's Republic of China (JW201) to the selected candidates starting in July 2017.
