⁴ Only programs that have the red star (*) are in Higher Education Institutions admitting international students.

- B. The potential and commitment of the candidate to apply the knowledge and skills acquired to the development of the sponsoring country.

▼ SELECTION PROCESS AND NOTIFICATION OF AWARD

- A. CSC will assess all application documents and CSC reserves the right to make necessary adjustments to the proposed institutions, specialties and duration of study, as well as the benefits and requirements mentioned above. Qualified applications will be forwarded to the academic institutions and they will forward their nominations to CSC for agreement. Applications will be regarded as invalid and will not be accepted if they fail to meet the enrollment requirements or if the application documents are incomplete.
- B. If overseas applicants for degree programs with exemption of examinations are academically ineligible to the proposed programs, the institution reserves the right to decide the academic program they could attend or whether to give them conditional offers for their proposed programs. Students who attend Chinese language courses prior to their university study or those who attend the college preparatory program must pass the university entrance examinations or other examinations required before they start their major studies. Students attending the college preparatory program who fail to pass the required examinations within the allotted period will finish studying in the People’s Republic of China as a language student; hence they will not begin their undergraduate/graduate course of study in the People’s Republic of China.
- C. Applicants are required to enclose the relevant admission notice from Chinese Higher Education Institutions, if they have one, in the documents submitted to the OAS. Scholarship applicants academically accepted by Chinese HEIs will be officially awarded the Chinese Government Scholarship with approval from the CSC.
- D. Students are required to sign their Admission Notice, if they have no objection with the placement, and are not permitted, in principle, to change their specialties, institutions or the duration of study specified in the Admission Notice.
- E. The OAS will conduct a pre-selection process in April 2018.
- F. The OAS will officially announce the selected scholarship awardees in July 2018.
- G. The CSC will conduct a final selection from April to July 2018 and the OAS will forward Admission Letters and Visa Application Forms for Study in the People’s Republic of China (JW201) to the selected candidates starting in July 2018.
