ABOUT THE PARTNER INSTITUTIONS

The General Secretariat of the OAS (GS/OAS) is the central and permanent organ of the Organization of American States (OAS). Through its Department of Human Development, Education and Employment (DHDEE), the GS/OAS supports Member States in creating policies and implementing programs that promote the development of human capabilities at all educational levels. By enabling educational opportunities for citizens, DHDEE strengthens democratic values and security within the framework of regional integration. DHDEE does this by: (i) supporting the efforts of OAS member states to improve quality and equity in education; and (ii) helping the citizens of the Americas to develop their full potential by providing them with access to knowledge and skills through training that improves the living standards of individuals, families and communities in the region.

The University of Tennessee, Knoxville, is among the top-ranked public universities in the United States. Our 360+ undergraduate programs include top-ranked areas of study such as supply chain management and nuclear engineering. Outside the classroom, students have plenty of opportunities to make friends and memories through on-campus events and more than 400 student organizations. Upon graduation, students join a global network of more than 260,000 alumni ready to make connections and open doors for new graduates. What really makes UT unique is that our students are known as Volunteers. Being a Volunteer is not just a nickname; it is who we are, what we do, and how we do it. Volunteers - whether locally, nationally, or globally - serve and shape communities.
