ABOUT THE PARTNER INSTITUTIONS

The OAS General Secretariat (GS/OAS) is the central and permanent organ of the Organization of American States \(OAS\).

- Through its Department of Human Development, Education and Employment (DHDEE), GS/OAS supports OAS member States in creating policies and executing programs that promote human capacity development at all educational levels.
- By enabling formative opportunities to citizens, DHDEE strengthens democratic values and security under the framework of regional integration.
- DHDEE does this: (i) by supporting the efforts of OAS member states to improve the quality of and equity in education; and (ii) by assisting the citizens of the Americas in realizing their full potential by giving them access to knowledge and skills through training that improves the standard of living for individuals, families and communities in the region.

Formato Educativo \(FE\) is a Spanish Business School that has been providing Postgraduate Education for over 15 years.

- Students of 30 different nationalities graduated in 2022.
- The programs offered at FE are aimed at providing a comprehensive view of business and teaching the skills necessary to work as part of an executive team.
- The important aims which form the base of the courses are:
 - Providing practical knowledge which can be applied to professional activity.

- Developing skills in order to work in an executive team.
 - Promoting professional exchange within companies.
 - Forging links between professionals and businesses.
 - Maintaining contact via the Educational Platform and the Alumni Network.
- The Master’s methodology bestows two forms of formal recognition from Formato Educativo, in collaboration with The University of Cadiz. And, a recognition from Harvard Business Publishing, for the course Harvard ManageMentor©, corresponding to the program of choice.

The General Secretariat of the Organization of American States (SG/OAS) and Formato Educativo Business School (FE) in Spain have decided to support outstanding individuals from the Americas by awarding the following academic scholarships in order for them to continue their postgraduate studies.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITY OF THE SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENT:

- This scholarship will be formally awarded only after the selected candidates have signed an OAS/FE Scholarship Acceptance Form, in which the awardees formally accept the scholarship and agree to its terms and conditions.
- The scholarship recipient will be responsible for covering the remaining fourteen percent (14%) of the total cost of the tuition, not covered by FE for the Virtual Modality and 67% of the total cost of the tuition, not covered by FE, for the Semi-Presential Modality.
Any additional expenses incurred by the applicant in order to be admitted to the program are non-refundable, nor do they imply any given right of access to the OAS-FE Scholarship. We recommend contacting FE directly prior to paying admission fees.
- The scholarship holder will be responsible for bearing all other costs required by the program (issuing of certificates/transcripts, legalization fees, overseas postage).
- Refrain from activities that are inconsistent with the status of an OAS Scholarship recipient, abiding by the regulations referred to in the Acceptance Form.
- The scholarship recipient must comply with all academic guidelines and admission requirements as stated by FE and follow any updates to these by the academic authorities.
- To retain the Scholarship, recipients must pass all subjects on the course within the study program's timeframe and obtain an average grade of 5 out of 10 (or higher) for each academic period. Should the student fail to meet said requirements, FE and/or the OAS reserve the right to demand reimbursement.
- The scholarship can be declined by the recipient before the start date of the program of study without financial penalties. However, if a student declines the scholarship after that date without proof of force majeure, the OAS and FE may require the scholarship recipient to reimburse all funding granted to her/him with the scholarship at the time in which the declination is processed.

- Commitment to return to work in their sponsoring country or permanent legal residence in one of the OAS member states, or at an international organization, for at least the length of the duration of the scholarship. Failure to comply with this commitment, the GS/OAS and/or FE could seek reimbursement for the total value of the scholarship awarded.
- The OAS will not provide individual feedback as to why an applicant was not selected for the scholarship.
- Neither the OAS nor FE accept any liability resulting from the acceptance, or otherwise, of the Certificates and/or Diplomas from educational institutions within the student's country of residency. If you wish to find out how to authenticate, standardise or validate FE certificates in your own country, we recommend you requesting information in this regard from your local Ministry of Education.

Note: The General Secretariat of the Organization of American States (GS/OAS) reserves the right to cancel this scholarship announcement at any time during the process. The GS/OAS and its staff will not be responsible for any action that derives from the information in this announcement.
