ABOUT THE PARTNER INSTITUTIONS

The General Secretariat of the OAS (GS/OAS) is the central and permanent organ of the Organization of American States (OAS). Through its Department of Human Development, Education and Employment (DHDEE), the GS/OAS supports Member States in creating policies and implementing programs that promote the development of human capabilities at all educational levels. By enabling educational opportunities for citizens, DHDEE strengthens democratic values and security within the framework of regional integration. DHDEE does this by: (i) supporting the efforts of OAS member states to improve quality and equity in education; and (ii) helping the citizens of the Americas to develop their full potential by providing them with access to knowledge and skills through training that improves the living standards of individuals, families and communities in the region.

Stillman College is a liberal arts college that was founded by the Presbyterian Church USA in Tuscaloosa, Alabama in 1876. The current enrollment is under 1,000 students, which provides a unique learning environment of small class sizes and a nurturing faculty who are personally committed to students' success. Extracurricular activities include Division I NAIA Athletics (Basketball, Baseball, Softball, & Track), a Marching Show Band, and the renowned Stillman College Choir. Located on a 105-acre gated campus, Stillman provides a safe and supportive environment with student housing and meals conveniently located and a Stillman operated Campus Police on duty 24 hours per day and 7-days per week. Located a short distance from the University of Alabama (UA), Stillman and UA students have access to classes at UA and Stillman at no additional tuition charge, providing the best of both worlds; exposure to a research intensive campus of 37,000 and a small close-knit liberal arts campus. Stillman was voted one of 15 Most Wired Campuses, by US News & World Report.
