ABOUT THE OAS AND THE VUB

The General Secretariat of the Organization of American States

The GS/OAS is the central and permanent organ of the Organization of American States (OAS). Through its Department of Human Development, Education and Employment (DHDEE), the GS/OAS supports OAS member states in creating policies and executing programs that promote human capacity development at all educational levels. By enabling formative opportunities to citizens, DHDEE strengthens democratic values and security under the framework of regional integration. DHDEE does this: (i) by supporting the efforts of OAS member states to improve the quality of and equity in education; and (ii) by assisting the citizens of the Americas in realizing their full potential by giving them access to knowledge and skills through training that improves the standard of living for individuals, families and communities in the region.

The Vrije Universiteit Brussel

The Vrije Universiteit Brussel is a dynamic and modern university with two parkland campuses in Brussels, the heart of Europe. The main Etterbeek-campus is home to seven faculties. At the Jette-campus one can find the medical campus and the University Hospital. Education and research are of very high quality. VUB's research teams are internationally recognized in many disciplines of fundamental and applied research. The Vrije Universiteit Brussel is an internationally renowned research institution with many opportunities for doctoral projects. The university offers PhD trajectories in no less than 36 disciplines.

The Doctoral Training Programme of the VUB is organized by three Doctoral Schools. These interdisciplinary and interfaculty Schools support PhD students, stimulate the quality of doctoral research at the VUB and help promote junior researchers. The Doctoral Schools aim to provide a distinctive framework for the Doctoral Training Program and, in so doing, increase the visibility of doctoral research and enhance its image, both within and outside the academic world. I. VUB PROGRAMS INFORMATION

1. Student/Applicant's profile:

- Holder of a Master's degree in a relevant field. Having a Master's degree does NOT automatically mean you will be admitted as a PhD student. The admission can be subjected to a preliminary examination and an investigation into the applicant's suitability. The ultimate decision about the eligibility for PhD research resides with the Faculty in which the research will be conducted.
- Good command in English language
- Excellent academic credentials

2. Study Location/Modality: Vrije Universiteit Brussel, Brussels, Belgium

3. Study program start date: By January 2015

4. Study program duration: 4 years

5. Approximate end date of the study program: July 2018

6. Language of instruction: English

7. Admission process¹:

- 7.1 Besides meeting the above mentioned diploma conditions, candidates must, in order to apply for admission as a PhD student, also have a supervisor and have indicated their choice of subject.
- 7.2 Applicants are required to submit an online application for an OAS/VUB scholarship through the OAS Scholarship Website.
- 7.3 Once the eligible candidates have been pre-selected by the OAS, the VUB will send eligible applicants' files to their faculty for evaluation and selection. The potential supervisor will conduct an interview to determine the applicant's knowledge of English and of the research domain. Academic background and motivation will also be evaluated.
- 7.4 VUB will announce the selection results to OAS.
- 7.5 OAS will announce the selection results to the PhD OAS-VUB scholarship holders.
- 7.6 Selected PhD-candidates will have to apply in the on-line system of VUB after sending the Scholarship Form of Acceptance to the OAS.
