APPLICATION

The OAS-FNU Scholarship application process shall be two-fold:

- a. The OAS-FNU Scholarship candidate must separately apply and be accepted to a Program at the University before applying to the OAS-FNU Scholarship.
- b. Following their acceptance, the candidate must apply to and satisfy the selection criteria set out by their home country's National Liaison Office ("ONE"), which will make a pre-selection of candidates, before forwarding to the GS/OAS those pre-selected candidates' information. The GS/OAS in turn will make a final selection of candidates based on its Manual of Procedures for the Scholarship and Training Programs.

THE OAS-FNU SCHOLARSHIP

The University shall award each Scholarship Recipient a tuition and fee waiver in the amount of fifty percent (50%) of the published tuition and fee amounts for the applicable Program in effect at the time the Scholarship Recipient applies to the University. The University shall provide the tuition and fee waiver in accordance with its usual policy and procedures for awarding tuition and fee waivers, and shall have no obligation hereunder to make a financial contribution directly to any Scholarship Recipient.

The GS/OAS shall pay the University up to $10,000 to be applied towards the remaining costs of tuition and mandatory fees for each Scholarship Recipient enrolled in the Programs, for no less than one year and no more than two academic years. The GS/OAS award shall be subject to the GS/OAS' own availability of funds.
