THE SCHOLARSHIPS

A. THE OAS-MIIS ACADEMIC SCHOLARSHIP

The University shall offer for the OAS-MIIS Academic Scholarship 65% tuition discounts for all Scholarship Recipients for each year or partial year of the programs identified on the table above. MIIS will also waive the application fee for OAS-MIIS applicants.

The GS/OAS shall contribute up to $10,000 per Scholarship Recipient for no more than (10) Scholarship Recipients to cover part of the remaining costs of tuition and mandatory fees of the OAS-MIIS Scholarship Recipients enrolled in the University's programs indicated on the table above. This contribution is for no less than one year and no more than two academic years.

The tuition amounts and mandatory fees shall be determined by the University and shall be included in the Scholarship Contract between the GS/OAS and the student. The granting of the scholarship award by the GS/OAS will be subject to the availability of funds.

In order to be selected for an OAS-MIIS Academic Scholarship, applicants must:

- Apply through the GS/OAS DHDEE Scholarship website and present the application to their home country's National Liaison Office ("ONE"), which is an office usually located in one of their Government's Ministries. Once pre-selected, the ONE relays the candidate's information to GS/OAS for final selection.
- Satisfy the selection criteria set out by GS/OAS, as stated in the Manual of Procedures for The Scholarship and Training Programs of the OAS.

- Meet all of the University's requirements for admission to the programs identified in Article 2.1,
- Receive an offer of admission from the University in regard to any of the programs identified in Article 2.1,
- The Scholarship Candidates must apply separately to the ONE, SG/OAS, and the University.

B. THE OAS-MIIS PAEC SCHOLARSHIP

The University shall offer for the OAS-MIIS PAEC Scholarship 50% tuition discount for all Scholarship Recipients for each year or partial year of the programs identified in Article 2.1. MIIS will waive the application fee for PAEC applicants.

The GS/OAS shall offer in-kind services through dissemination of these scholarship opportunities by posting the University's information on the OAS Consortium of Universities website, provide recruitment of qualified candidates, review and evaluation of applications, selection, monitoring and evaluation of the Scholarship Recipients.

In order to be selected for an OAS-MIIS PAEC Scholarship, applicants must:

- Apply through the GS/OAS DHDEE Scholarship website and satisfy the selection criteria set out by GS/OAS.
- Meet all of the University's requirements for admission to the programs identified in Article 2.1,
- Receive an offer of admission from the University in regard to any of the programs identified in Article 2.1,
- Scholarship candidates must apply separately to the GS/OAS, and the University.
