In-memoriam Andrei Bourrouet

The Department of Sustainable Development of the Executive Secretariat for Integral Development of the OAS conveys its profound sorrow on the passing in Washington DC of Mr. Andrei Bourrouet, former Vice-minister of Environment of Costa Rica and Official at the Costa Rican Institute of Electricity.

Mr. Bourrouet led the Costa Rican Delegation in the Second Inter-American Meeting of Ministers and High Level Authorities on Sustainable Development and had a key role in the negotiation process of the Santo Domingo Declaration for the Sustainable Development of the Americas. He was a strong supporter of sustainable development in his country and our hemisphere and a friend to the OAS.
