

*The Brazil – United States
Consumer Product Safety Conference*

Friday, June 10, 2011
8:00 – 13:00

Inmetro
Campus de Laboratórios Xerém
Av. Nossa Senhora das Graças, 50
Xerém Duque de Caxias – RJ

The National Institute of Metrology, Standardization, and Industrial Quality (INMETRO) and the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC) invite you to the Brazil – United States Consumer Product Safety Conference to be held on June 10, 2011 at the INMETRO Campus in Xerém.

During the event, INMETRO and CPSC will renew their Memorandum of Understanding, consolidating the two agencies' partnership and commitment towards enhancing consumer product safety in both countries.

Registration is free and INMETRO will provide transportation to the event. To RSVP and for further information, please contact Mr. Paulo Coscarelli at pcoscarelli@inmetro.gov.br

11:30am – 12:10pm
sector

Perspectives from the private

Brazilian Electrical and Electronics Industry
Association (ABINEE)
Mr. Humberto Barbato,
President

Brazilian Association of Supermarkets (ABRAS)
Mr. Sussumu Honda - President

12:10 – 12:30pm
representatives

Perspectives from consumer

IDEC (Brazilian Consumer Protection Institute)
Ms. Lisa Gunn, Executive
Coordinator

12:30 – 12:50pm
regulators

Perspectives from other Brazilian

GEPAC - working group on consumer injuries
Ms. Juliana Pereira, Coordinator

(GEPAC is coordinated by the Ministry of Justice's Consumer

Protection Department (DPDC) with representatives from state attorney generals, consumer groups and various health and safety agencies)

1:00pm

Event concludes

*(Possible conference topics to be addressed by guest speakers:
Global Supply Chain Security/ Traceability/ Counterfeiting/ Import Safety (enforcement at the borders))*