ABOUT CSU AND THE OAS

The General Secretariat of the Organization of American States

GS/OAS is the central and permanent organ of the Organization of American States (OAS). Through its Department of Human Development, Education and Employment (DHDEE), GS/OAS supports OAS member states in creating policies and executing programs that promote human capacity development at all educational levels. By enabling formative opportunities to citizens, DHDEE strengthens democratic values and security under the framework of regional integration. DHDEE does this: (i) by supporting the efforts of OAS member states to improve the quality of and equity in education; and (ii) by assisting the citizens of the Americas in realizing their full potential by giving them access to knowledge and skills through training that improves the standard of living for individuals, families and communities in the region.

Colorado State University

Founded in 1870 as the Colorado Agricultural College, Colorado State University is now among the nation's leading research universities. With more than 150 programs of study in eight colleges, Colorado State University offers a world-class education. It is located in beautiful Fort Collins, Colorado, an award-winning city located on the Front Range of the Rocky Mountains. In the College of Business, the Global Social and Sustainable Enterprise (GSSE) MBA was founded in 2007.

CSU and GSSE Achievements and Initiatives:

- The GSSE MBA was ranked 7th in student exposure and 9th among small programs in the Aspen Institute's Beyond Grey Pinstripes "Global 100" ranking of full-time social and environmental MBA programs.
- Net Impact's Business as Unusual report ranked the GSSE MBA as the 8th in "social impact" among over 100 MBA programs.
- MIT selected CSU to be their venture development partner for the $15 million USAID grant to establish the International Development Innovation Network.
- Colorado State University received the nation-wide 2013 Senator Paul Simon Award for Campus Internationalization from NAFSA.
