▼ ABOUT THE PARTNER INSTITUTIONS

The General Secretariat of the OAS (GS/OAS) is the central and permanent organ of the Organization of American States.

- Through its Department of Human Development, Education and Employment (DHDEE), GS/OAS supports OAS Member States in creating policies and executing programs that promote human capacity development at all educational levels.
- By enabling formative opportunities to citizens, DHDEE strengthens democratic values and security under the framework of regional integration.
- DHDEE does this: (i) by supporting the efforts of OAS member states to improve the quality of and equity in education; and (ii) by assisting the citizens of the Americas in realizing their full potential by giving them access to knowledge and skills through training that improves the standard of living for individuals, families and communities in the region.

Michigan State University College of Law (MSU-COL) is part of Michigan State University, one of the top 100 universities in the world, and one of the largest universities in the United States. The College of Law's degrees in Global Food Law, Intellectual Property, Information & Communications Law and similar programs build upon MSU's academic pillars as a land-grant institution.

- Michigan State is at the forefront of research and academics related to agriculture and food production, marketing, packaging, and safety standards. The College of Law's Global Food Law program builds upon these strengths, focusing on the regulatory and legal aspects of the food industry.
- Global Food Law graduates gain a powerful set of legal skills and tools to navigate the complex standards of the industry, which vary from country to country.
- Program graduates are working in every aspect of the food industry, from research and development to regulatory and legal affairs in private firms, Fortune 100 companies, global nonprofits, academia and government agencies.
- The College's Intellectual Property, Information & Communications (IPIC) Law program offers multiple degree options for J.D. and non-JD students, including a Masters of Jurisprudence (M.J.) program for non-lawyers.
- The M.J. in IPIC allows professionals from any discipline to gain a deeper understanding of this critical field of law to enhance their careers. Students come from a variety of backgrounds, including the STEM fields, especially engineering, as well as design, communications, packaging, business, and multiple others.
- Students in the MJ in IPIC program benefit from MSU's variety of science programs and the cutting-edge research happening on campus, as well as collaboration with MSU's Technology Transfer Office, Office of the General Counsel, and Center for Anti-Counterfeiting and Product Protection.
- On campus, MSU Law offers a Juris Doctor program, Master of Laws and Master of Jurisprudence programs in Intellectual Property, Information & Communication Law, a Master of Laws and Masters of Jurisprudence in the American Legal System, a Masters of Legal Studies, and an Advanced Standing J.D. program for foreign lawyers.

- ⊗ OAS Permanent officials and their immediate relatives.

▼ SCHOLARSHIP SELECTION CRITERIA

- ✓ The merits and overall credentials of the candidate, including his/her academic and professional background;
- ✓ Geographical distribution of the applicants, taking into account the greater needs of the smaller and relatively less developed economies;
- ✓ Applicants whose essays portray the highest potential for impact upon return to their countries of origin; and
- ✓ Gender diversity.

▼ SCHOLARSHIP SELECTION PROCESS:

Selection Committee MSU-COL and the OAS will select the scholarship awardees, based on the criteria listed above. The names of the scholarship awardees will be published July and November 2018 at www.oas.org/scholarships.

Notification of selected candidates The OAS will contact selected candidates by email with the scholarship offer and instructions for the scholarship acceptance. Applicants who are not selected will not be contacted.

▼ DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITY OF THE SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENT:

- ✓ The scholarship will be formally awarded only after the selected awardees have signed an OAS/MSU-COL Acceptance Form, in which the awardees formally accept the scholarship and agree to its terms and conditions.
- ✓ Refrain from activities that are inconsistent with the status of an OAS Scholarship recipient, abiding by the regulations referred to in this Acceptance Form.
- ✓ Comply with all the academic guidelines and admission requirements requested by MSU-COL and submit to the updates of these guidelines and requirements made by the academic authorities at MSU.
- ✓ Comply with the provisions indicated in the "Financial responsibilities of awardees."
- ✓ Authorize MSU-COL (in writing) to release academic and other information to OAS so that OAS can monitor the Scholarship recipient's academic performance. The form to complete this authorization will be provided by MSU Law.
- ✓ To retain the scholarship, Scholarship recipients should not have low academic performance (GPA must be at least equivalent to 3.0/4.0), due to absence from the program and/or course failure.
- ✓ The scholarship can be declined by the scholarship recipient before the start date of the program without financial penalties. However, if s/he declines the scholarship after that date without proof of force majeure, the OAS and MSU-COL may require the Scholarship recipient to reimburse all funding granted to her/him with the scholarship at the time in which the declination is processed.
- ✓ Commitment to return to work in their sponsoring country or legal residence in one of the OAS member states, or at an international organization, for at least the length of the duration of the scholarship. Failure to comply with this commitment, the GS/OAS and/or the MSU could seek reimbursement for the total value of the scholarship awarded.
