DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

Under the supervision of the Executive Secretary of the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights (IACHR), directly or through the corresponding Specialist and under their general supervision, the Human Rights Specialist will be responsible for the following duties:

1. Case processing and reporting
• Implement the individual petition system governed by the inter-American human rights instruments, initially assessing the admissibility of complaints received against member states assigned and applying the relevant procedures.

• Manage case correspondence which includes requests for information from the parties to fully develop the claims; analyze claims according to the pertinent systemic norms; coordinate case hearings, and draft case reports setting forth conclusions and recommendations for Commission consideration.

• Participate in the preparation and presentation of contentious cases and requests for advisory opinions before the Inter-American Court: conduct legal research and analysis, draft briefs, manage case correspondence, identify and collect evidence, coordinate the presentation of witnesses, and may participate or help prepare arguments and witness testimony to be presented before the Court.

• Advise petitioners and state representatives on the application of petition procedures and other matters related to human rights. Provide technical advisory services for other organs or agencies of the Organization, in relation to drafting and implementation of juridical international instruments in the field of human rights.

2. Research and monitoring:

• Conduct legal research pertinent to specific cases;

• Engage in fact finding on numerous situations and cases, and draft reports or sections of reports for review by senior staff.

• Organize, coordinate, and participate in on-site visits conducted by the Commission: develop draft program of activities; manage logistical arrangements; facilitate meetings between Commission members and Government officials, representatives of local non-governmental organizations and other groups, such as alleged victims and their relatives, draft reports and recommendations for publication pending Commission approval.

• Monitor the overall situation of human rights in the member states assigned by contacting and maintaining sources, collecting and reviewing information, coordinating general hearings before the Commission, and consulting with the Commission Rapporteur.

• Prepare special reports on the situation of human rights in member states assigned and on selected human rights issues. This requires gathering and evaluating data from a wide range of sources, legal research and analysis, editing and translating documents, and the drafting of reports for publication, pursuant to Commission approval.

3. Other

• Engage in promotional activities such as seminars and conferences on human rights issues.

• Perform other related duties as assigned, including replacing and backstopping for others.
