AGREEMENTS ADOPTED AT THE FIRST REGULAR SESSION OF THE CIM EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE 2019-2022

The hiring process for the Executive Secretary of the Inter-American Commission of Women (CIM) began on April 2, 2019, in accordance with the provisions of its Statute.¹ Following the process initiated by the Executive Committee 2016-2019, the Executive Committee 2019-2022 held its First Regular Session on June 26 in Medellín, Colombia.

Taking into account:

The provisions of Article 30 of the Statute of the CIM;

The criteria established for the selection of the short-list of three candidates by the Sixth Session of the Executive Committee of the CIM 2016-2019:

- A personal knowledge and demonstrated commitment to the gender equality perspective, as well as practical experience of this commitment;
- Knowledge of the Inter-American Commission of Women and its role within the inter-American system;
- Extensive experience of practical work in the political field and, from this trajectory, ability to propose a strategic vision for the strengthening of the CIM within the current hemispheric context;
- The provisions of article 16 of the Statute of the CIM regarding "the principles of rotation and equitable geographical representation".;

The importance of the position of the Executive Secretary of the CIM in terms of strengthening the impact of the CIM in national and international political forums on human rights, democracy and sustainable development;

The Executive Committee of the CIM 2019-2022 agrees:

Agreement 1

To request that the President of the CIM communicate to the Secretary General of the Organization of American States the following list of candidates for the position of the Executive Secretary of the CIM, elected by a majority of the Executive Committee:

1. Alejandra Mora Mora (8 votes)
2. Miosotis Rivas Peña (7 votes)
3. Lorena Frías Monleón (5 votes)

Request, also, that this communication be accompanied by the profiles and supporting documentation received by each candidate.

Request that the same communication emphasize the importance of the appointment of the new Executive Secretary without delay to ensure the continuity of the work of the CIM and its effective representation.

Agreement 2

To request that the Executive Secretariat of the CIM duly notify the six candidates considered of the status of the selection process, and thank the three candidates who are not part of the short-list for their interest and participation in the process

Agreement 3

To thank Carmen Moreno Toscano for her work over the last ten years as Executive Secretary of the CIM, which has contributed to the strengthening of the CIM as a hemispheric political forum of reference for women's rights and gender equality

Agreement 4

To thank the Government of Colombia for its warm welcome and efficient management of the First Regular Session of the Executive Committee of the CIM.
