

XXXV Modelo de Asamblea General de la Organización de los Estados Americanos (OEA)

March 24th-26th, 2021 | Universidad Euro Hispanoamericana, Xalapa, Mexico

WHAT IS THE MOAS?

The MOAS is a simulation of the Organization of American States (OAS) General Assembly. It is a powerful educational tool that offers collegiate students a unique opportunity to learn about the countries of the Americas and the work of the OAS in the areas of democracy, human rights, integral development and security.

HOW TO PARTICIPATE:

A professor must form a delegation of 8 students and register online. A registration fee must be processed by the professor who is also charged with preparing the students for the Model. Each delegation will be assigned one of the 34 active OAS Member States to represent.

REGISTRATION FEE AND ONLINE FORM:

The cost per delegation of 8 students is:
 - Universities outside Mexico: USD$900
 - Mexican universities: USD$450

A registration form must be filled out online by the professor responsible for the delegation.

Registration is due on March 5th, 2021.

PREPARATION:

Students must prepare in advance. This implies studying the role of the OAS and doing research on the country they will represent. The professor responsible for the delegation will have access to a tutorial.

HOTELS, TRANSPORTATION AND MEALS:

Visit the 35th MOAS Information Bulletin.

CERTIFICATE OF PARTICIPATION:

A certificate of participation will be given to each participant on the last day of the Model.

BENEFITS FOR THE STUDENTS:

The MOAS seeks to foster:

1. Leadership skills such as negotiation, teamwork and problem solving;
2. International cooperation and diplomacy, through critical thinking and consensus;
3. Appreciation of different cultures, languages and people of the Americas;
4. Preparation for careers in the public service or international sphere.
