

INSTRUMENT OF RATIFICATION

WHEREAS, the Government of the Republic of Suriname has ratified the Inter-American Convention on Serving Criminal Sentences Abroad, which was adopted on 9 June 1993 in Managua, Nicaragua.

AND WHEREAS, upon ratification of the Inter-American Convention on Serving Criminal Sentences Abroad, the Government of the Republic of Suriname made reservations in relation to Article V paragraph 7 of the Convention which reads as follows:

1. The sentencing State shall produce a certified copy of the final judgment which has become final;
2. The sentencing State shall ensure that a copy, translated into the Dutch language, is also attached to the transfer documents of this Judgment;
3. With respect to Article VIII regarding the full jurisdiction corresponding with the measures that must be taken immediately in Suriname, the Roman-Germanic law is applicable; and
4. Based on the Decree on Extradition of the Republic of Suriname (S.B. 1983 no. 52) nationals with the Surinamese nationality shall not be extradited.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal.

Done at Paramaribo, July 30, 2018.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Desiré Bouterse', written over a large, stylized flourish.

DESIRÉ DELANO BOUTERSE
PRESIDENT OF THE REPUBLIC SURINAME

Declaration of the Republic of Suriname

“The Government of the Republic of Suriname herewith declares, that according to Article 146 of the Constitution, the Attorney General at the Court of Justice, is the Head of the Public Prosecutor’s office and in that capacity is designated as the Central Authority, to perform the functions mentioned in Article XI of the “Inter-American Convention on Serving Criminal Sentences Abroad”.