The Parties, the Electoral Commission of Antigua and Barbuda (hereinafter referred to as the “Electoral Commission”) and the General Secretariat of the Organization of American States (hereinafter referred to as the “General Secretariat”);

CONSIDERING:

THAT on the 23rd day of December 2022, the Government of Antigua and Barbuda (hereinafter referred to as “the Government”), through its Permanent Mission to the OAS, invited the Secretary General of the Organization of American States (hereinafter referred to as the “Secretary General”) to send an Electoral Observation Mission (hereinafter referred to as “the Mission”) to Antigua and Barbuda for the purpose of observing the General Elections to be held on January 18, 2023 (hereinafter referred to as the “General Elections”);

THAT in Resolution AG/RES. 991 (XIX-O/89), the General Assembly of the OAS recommended to the Secretary General that “when a member state so requests in the exercise of its sovereignty, missions should be organized and sent to said state to monitor the development, if possible at all stages, of each of its electoral processes;”

THAT Article 24 of the Inter-American Democratic Charter states in pertinent part as follows:

The electoral observation missions shall be carried out at the request of the member state concerned. To that end, the government of that state and the Electoral observation missions shall be carried out in accordance with the principles and norms of the OAS. The Organization shall ensure that these missions are effective and independent and shall provide them with the necessary resources for that purpose. They shall be conducted in an objective, impartial, and transparent manner and with the appropriate technical expertise;

THAT the Organization of American States (OAS) endorsed the Declaration of Principles for International Election Observation and the Code of Conduct for International Election Observers, commemorated on October 27th, 2005 at the United Nations in New York, and by whose principles OAS Electoral Observation Missions are guided, in keeping with the Manual for OAS Electoral Observation Missions; and

THAT by way of letter dated December 27, 2022, the Secretary General responded affirmatively to the Government's request and agreed to send the Mission with the objective of observing the General Elections;

WHEREFORE, THE PARTIES AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

First: Guarantees

a) The Electoral Commission guarantees the Mission access to all facilities for the adequate fulfillment of the observation of the General Elections, in conformity with the laws and standards of Antigua and Barbuda and the terms of this Agreement.

b) The Electoral Commission, on the day of and the day after the General Elections, shall guarantee the Mission access to all polling stations and other locations and facilities related to the election until the official count is tabulated nationally and the General Elections process is concluded.

c) The Electoral Commission shall guarantee the Mission complete access to the locations in which the process of counting and tabulating votes will take place both before and during this process.

d) The Electoral Commission shall guarantee that its authorities will be duly instructed so that the Mission is granted complete access to all of its installations, as well as to timely information regarding the development and progress of the election calendar.

e) The Electoral Commission shall guarantee the Mission access to all electoral bodies responsible for vote counting and tabulation. Similarly, the Electoral Commission shall permit the Mission to conduct any evaluations deemed necessary by the Mission of the voting system and of the communications utilized to transmit electoral results. f) The Electoral Commission further guarantees the Mission access to all polling stations and other bodies throughout the national territory of Antigua and Barbuda. Upon request of the Mission, the Electoral Commission guarantees to make available by the end of the voting process and, before the closing of the polling stations, copies of all documents printed electronically.

Second: Information

a) The Electoral Commission will furnish the Mission with all information related to the organization, direction and supervision of the electoral process. The Mission may request of the Electoral Commission such additional information as is necessary for the exercise of the Mission's functions, and the Electoral Commission shall promptly furnish all such information.

b) The Mission may inform the Electoral Commission about any irregularities and/or interference, which the Mission might observe or of which the Mission might learn. Similarly, the Mission may request that the Electoral Commission provide any information regarding the measures which the Electoral Commission will take in relation to such irregularities, and the Electoral Commission shall promptly furnish all such information.

c) The Electoral Commission shall provide the Mission with information related to the electoral list and other electoral data referring to the same.
