The OAS is proud to present

THE 2ND INTER-AMERICAN WEEK FOR PEOPLE OF AFRICAN DESCENT IN THE AMERICAS

March 25-29, 2019

Remember Slavery: Power of the Arts for Justice

Monday, March 25 | 10am
Special Meeting of the Permanent Council
Simon Bolivar Room

Monday, March 25 | 1pm
Unveiling of Commemorative Triptych Painting
Atrium of Simon Bolivar Room

Monday, March 25 | 3pm
Launch of Photo Exhibit 360 VR (Virtual Reality):
People of African Descent in the Americas
Exhibit of Art and Books on People of African Descent
Marcus Garvey Hall of Culture (March 25-29)

Thursday, March 28 | 2pm
Forum: Remember Slavery: Power of the Arts for Justice
Hall of the Americas

Friday, March 29 | 3pm
Book Presentation: “Erased: The Untold History of the Panama Canal” by author, Marixa Lasso
OAS Art Museum of the Americas

Under the auspices of the Assistant Secretary General of the OAS,
H.E. Nestor Mendez, and the Chair of the Permanent Council,
H.E. Carlos Alberto Calles Castillo.

Organization of American States | 200 17th St. NW Washington, D.C. 20006