 - (b) one million dollars, the Board shall seek the approval of the Cabinet.
- (2) Where a recommendation for award is to be forwarded pursuant to subsection (1)(b), the Board shall seek the approval of the Minister responsible for the procuring entity.

20. Artificial division of procurement.

A procuring entity shall not, for the purposes of determining the appropriate procurement method, artificially divide a procurement with the intention of avoiding the prescribed financial thresholds.

21. Division into lots.

- (1) Notwithstanding section 20., a procuring entity may divide a procurement requirement which could be procured as a single contract into a package, consisting of several lots that are to be tendered together, where it is anticipated that the award of several separate contracts may result in the best overall value for the procuring entity.
- (2) A requirement shall not be divided into lots —
 - (a) for the sole purpose of avoiding thresholds;
 - (b) where the award of several separate contracts would create problems of compatibility or inter-changeability between items procured as separate lots or would unduly strain contract administration resources;
 - (c) where the award of several separate contracts would increase the costs of servicing, maintenance or similar requirements.
- (3) A procuring entity shall, where a requirement which could be procured as a single contract is divided into lots —

- (a) permit bidders to bid for a single lot, any combination of lots, or all lots; and
- (b) demonstrate, prior to contract award, that the recommended contract award or combination of contract awards offers the best overall value for the procuring entity.

PART III - PROCUREMENT PLANNING AND METHODS

PROCUREMENT PLANNING

22. Annual procurement plan.

- (1) Every procuring entity shall prepare, in writing, a procurement plan for each fiscal year.
- (2) The procurement plan referred to in subsection (1) shall include —
 - (a) a detailed breakdown of the goods, works and services required;
 - (b) a schedule of the delivery, implementation or completion dates for all goods, works and services required;
 - (c) an indication of whether goods, works and services will be procured —
 - (i) as a single package;
 - (ii) through aggregation with another procuring entity; or
 - (iii) through centralized procurement by the Department;
 - (d) an indication of the anticipated procurement method for each procurement requirement, including any need for pre-qualification, and the anticipated time for the complete procurement cycle taking into account the applicable approval requirements;
 - (e) an estimate of the value of each package of goods, works and services required and details of the budget available and sources of funding;
 - (f) such other details as may be relevant to any item in the procurement plan.
- (3) Every procuring entity shall in addition to the requirements of subsection (1) prepare a summary of the plan referred to in subsection (1) in accordance with the template provided by the Department forward the same to the Department within one month of the commencement of the fiscal year for electronic publication.
- (4) The procuring entity in preparation of a procurement plan under subsection (1) shall take into consideration the budgeted allocated sums for that current fiscal year.

23. Specific procurement plan.

- (1) Subject to subsection (3), every procuring entity shall prepare a procurement plan in writing for each individual procurement requirement.
- (2) The procurement plan shall include —
 - (a) a description of the requirement including the schedule required for delivery, implementation or completion of goods, works or services and any division into lots;
 - (b) the estimated value of the requirement and, where applicable, individual lots;
 - (c) subject to section 24., the proposed procurement method and a justification for the use of any method other than competitive bidding or, in the case of consultancy services, a request for proposals;
 - (d) an estimate of the time required for each stage in the procurement cycle, taking into account publication requirements and the applicable approval requirements;
 - (e) an indication of the resources required and available for management of the procurement process and contract administration; and
 - (f) any other relevant information.
- (3) Where the estimated value of the procurement is such that the request falls within the method referred to in section 31.(1), a written procurement plan shall not be required.

METHODS OF PROCUREMENT

24. Selection of procurement method.

- (1) A procuring entity shall, as part of the procurement planning process, select the most appropriate method of procurement for each requirement being one of the methods as provided for in sections 25. to 32..
- (2) The selection of procurement method shall take into account —
 - (a) the estimated value of the procurement, calculated in accordance with the valuation rules set out in the Second Schedule;
 - (b) the potential sources for the procurement including —
 - (i) the competitiveness of the national and international market for the goods, works or services; and
 - (ii) the likely interest of potential national and international bidders, given the size and nature of the requirement;
 - (c) the nature of the goods, works or services required.

- (3) To add justification for selection of procurement method.

25. Competitive bidding.

- (1) The public procurement of goods, works and non-consultancy services shall be undertaken by means of advertised competitive bidding proceedings to which equal access shall be provided to all eligible and qualified bidders without discrimination.
- (2) Subject to sections 27. to 32., methods of procurement other than competitive bidding shall not be permitted;
- (3) A procuring entity shall, where a method of procurement other than competitive bidding is used, include in the record of the procurement proceedings a written justification of the decision to utilise the procurement method, including the grounds for taking such a decision.
- (4) Consultancy services shall be procured by the request for proposals method in accordance with sections 32. and 45..

26. Two stage competitive bidding.

- (1) Competitive bidding may be carried out in a single stage or in two stages.
- (2) Competitive bidding may be held in two stages where —
 - (a) it is not feasible to define fully the technical or contractual aspects of the procurement to elicit competitive bids; or
 - (b) due to the complex nature of the goods, works or services to be procured, the procuring entity wishes to consider and discuss with bidders various technical or contractual solutions and their relative merits before deciding on the final technical or contractual specifications.
- (3) A procuring entity may, in the first stage of the two-stage bidding method, engage in discussions with any or all bidders whose proposals satisfy the conditions set forth in the bidding documents in order to —
 - (a) further understand the proposals; or
 - (b) indicate to bidders the changes required to make the proposals acceptable and to seek the bidder's willingness to make such changes.
- (4) A procuring entity shall keep minutes of first-stage bidding discussions engaged in pursuant to paragraph (3) and such minutes shall form part of the procurement records.
- (5) A procuring entity may, at the end of the first stage of the two-stage bidding method —

- (a) reject those bids which are substantially non responsive or do not meet, and in respect of which bidders are unwilling or unable to change to meet the —
 - (i) basic requirements;
 - (ii) minimum performance; or
 - (iii) required completion time;
 - (b) modify the technical specifications, evaluation criteria, and contract conditions, while seeking to maximize competition and articulate appropriate evaluation methodology.
- (6) A procuring entity shall, in the second stage of the two-stage bidding method, invite bidders whose bids have not been rejected to submit final bids with prices responsive to the revised bidding documents.
- (7) A bidder who does not wish to submit a final bid may withdraw from the bidding proceedings without forfeiting the bid security that such bidder may have been required to provide and the final bids shall be evaluated and compared in accordance with the criteria and methodology included in the revised documents.
- (8) Subject to the provisions of this section, the procedures for single stage competitive bidding shall also apply to two-stage competitive bidding.

27. International bidding.

- (1) Where the estimated contract amount in a proposed procurement is higher than the value of the thresholds set out in paragraph (2) —
- (a) all procurement notices shall be published in accordance with section 35.(2);
 - (b) all invitations to bid or to pre-qualify, and bidding documents, shall be in English;
 - (c) a procuring entity shall allow sufficient time for the invitation to reach candidates and to enable them to prepare and submit applications to pre-qualify and bid in accordance with the instructions given in the bidding documents;
 - (d) bidders shall express their bids, as well as any security documents to be presented by them, in a currency widely used in international trade and stated in the bidding documents;
 - (e) general and special conditions of contract shall be a kind generally used in international trade;
 - (f) technical specifications shall, to the extent compatible with national requirements, be based on international standards or standards widely used in international trade.

- (2) For the purposes of this section, a procurement contract falls within paragraph (1) when its estimated value exceeds —
 - (a) nine million, five hundred thousand dollars, in the case of a works contract; and
 - (b) two hundred twenty-six thousand, five hundred dollars, in the case of a goods contract and a contract for non-consultancy services.
- (3) This section applies to competitive bidding, selective bidding and restricted bidding.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, “a currency widely used in international trade” means United States currency or the British pound.

28. Selective bidding.

- (1) Selective bidding may be used in cases of high value or complex procurements where it is necessary or desirable to identify, prior to the submission of bids, those bidders that are qualified.
- (2) The requirements and criteria for assessing the qualifications of bidders in selective bidding shall be in accordance with section 38..
- (3) In the pre-qualification stage of the selective bidding process —
 - (a) the procuring entity shall —
 - (i) provide pre-qualification documents to all bidders responding to the invitation to pre-qualify;
 - (ii) respond promptly to any request by a bidder for clarification of the pre-qualification documents received by the procuring entity within a reasonable time prior to the deadline for the submission of applications to pre-qualify; and
 - (b) the pre-qualification documents shall provide bidders with the information required to prepare and submit applications for pre-qualification.
- (4) The procuring entity —
 - (a) shall make a decision with respect to each application to pre-qualify;
 - (b) shall invite all bidders who have been pre-qualified to submit bids in the procurement proceeding;
 - (c) may at any time prior to the contract award require a pre-qualified bidder to demonstrate anew its qualifications in accordance with the same criteria used to pre-qualify such bidder; and
 - (d) shall disqualify any bidder who fails to demonstrate anew its qualifications if requested to do so.
- (5) Subject to this regulation, the provisions of the competitive bidding method apply to selective bidding.

29. Restricted bidding.

- (1) Restricted bidding may be used where —
 - (a) the goods, works or services are only available from a limited number of bidders; or
 - (b) the time and cost of considering a large number of bids are disproportionate to the estimated value of the procurement having regard to the nature of the procurement.
- (2) The procuring entity shall in the case of restricted bidding invite bids from —
 - (a) where restricted bidding is used pursuant to paragraph (1)(a), all potential bidders;
 - (b) where restricted bidding is used pursuant to paragraph (1)(b), sufficient bidders to ensure effective competition, and, in all cases, a minimum of three bidders.
- (3) The procuring entity may, in selecting bidders to be invited to bid, use —
 - (a) the contractor registration system of supplier lists maintained in accordance with procedures established by the public procurement department;
 - (b) lists of pre-qualified bidders;
 - (c) the procuring entity's own knowledge of the market;
 - (d) any other appropriate sources of information.
- (4) The procuring entity shall, where it uses restricted bidding pursuant to paragraph (1)(b), publish a notice in accordance with section 35. stating —
 - (a) the nature of the procurement requirement;
 - (b) that the procuring entity is using restricted bidding on the grounds that the time and cost of considering a large number of bids are disproportionate to the estimated value of the procurement having regard to the nature of the procurement;
 - (c) the proposed bidders;
 - (d) that any potential bidder requiring information on the procurement requirement or wishing to participate in the procurement may contact the procuring entity; and
 - (e) the deadline for a request for information or participation in the procurement.
- (5) Subject to this section, the provisions of the competitive bidding method apply to restricted bidding.

30. Limited bidding.

- (1) A procuring entity may award a public contract by limited tendering procedure where —
 - (a) no suitable tenders have been submitted in response to a competitive or selective bidding procedure and the procuring entity makes the contract subject to the condition that the requirements of the initial tender may not be substantially modified by the bidder;
 - (b) for technical or artistic reasons or for reasons connected with protection of exclusive rights, the contract may be performed only by a particular supplier and no reasonable alternative or substitute exists;
 - (c) for reasons of extreme urgency brought about by events unforeseen by the procuring entity, the products or services could not be obtained in time by means of competitive or selective bidding procedures;
 - (d) the contract is for additional deliveries of goods or services by an original supplier in circumstances where a change of supplier would —
 - (i) compel the procuring entity to procure equipment or services not meeting requirements of interchangeability with already existing equipment or services procured under the initial procurement; and
 - (ii) cause significant inconvenience or substantial duplication of costs to the procuring entity;
 - (e) the procuring entity procures prototypes or a first product or service developed at its request in the course of and for a specific contract for research, experiment, study or original development;
 - (f) additional services within the objectives of the original tender documentation but not included in the initial contract have, through unforeseen circumstances, become necessary to complete the services described in such documentation and the total value of contracts awarded for such additional services do not exceed fifty per cent of the amount of the initial contract;
 - (g) the contract is for new services —
 - (i) consisting of the repetition of similar services which conform to a basic project for which an initial contract was awarded following an open or selective procurement method; and
 - (ii) for which the procuring entity has indicated in the notice of intended procurement that a limited procurement method might be used in awarding contracts for such new services;
 - (h) the contract is for products purchased on a commodity market; or

- (i) the contract is for purchases —
 - (i) made under exceptionally advantageous conditions of unusual disposals which arise only in the very short term such as from liquidations, receiverships or bankruptcies; and
 - (ii) which are not routine purchases from regular suppliers.
- (2) Under the limited bidding method —
 - (a) the procuring entity shall prepare a written description of its needs and any special requirements as to quality, quantity, terms and time of delivery;
 - (b) a quotation shall be invited from at least one and, where possible, additional suppliers or contractors;
 - (c) the procuring entity may give a time limit to the bidders to prepare and submit bids or may fix a time limit by mutual agreement with the bidders;
 - (d) the compliance of an offer or offers with the specifications, terms and conditions shall be considered;
 - (e) negotiations to bring down the prices may be carried out if the prices offered are deemed to be excessive or substantially in excess of the prevailing market prices.
- (3) Where a procuring entity awards a public contract by limited tendering procedure in accordance with subsection (1)(c), that procuring entity shall —
 - (a) provide written justification of the decision to utilise the procurement method, including the grounds for taking such a decision; and
 - (b) ensure that the procured goods, works or services are distributed in accordance with the urgent need which necessitated the procurement and submit written evidence of the same to the Department.

31. Request for quotations.

- (1) The request for quotations method may be used for the procurement of goods, works and services where —
 - (a) the procurement is for readily available commercially standard goods, not specially manufactured to the particular specifications of the procuring entity;
 - (b) the estimated value of the procurement of works does not exceed ten thousand dollars; or
 - (c) the estimated value of the procurement of services does not exceed five thousand dollars.

- (2) Quotations shall, under the request for quotations method, be requested in writing from as many bidders as practicable and, in all cases, from a minimum of three bidders.
- (3) A request for quotations shall contain a clear statement of the requirements of the procuring entity as to quality, quantity, terms, time to delivery, and any other special requirements.
- (4) Bidders shall be given adequate time to prepare and submit their quotations and each bidder shall be permitted one quotation only which may not be altered or negotiated.
- (5) The procuring entity shall place a purchase order with the bidder providing the lowest-priced quotation meeting the delivery and other requirements of the procuring entity.
- (6) A purchase order shall include —
 - (a) the quoted price;
 - (b) the contract number;
 - (c) the name of the contractor or of the supplier;
 - (d) the name of the officer of the contractor or of the supplier who signed the contract;
 - (e) the terms and the date of delivery.

32. Request for proposals.

- (1) A procuring entity shall, for the purposes of procuring the services of a consultant —
 - (a) prepare a list of three to six consulting firms comprising, to the greatest extent feasible, consultants of the same category and similar capacity and business objectives;
 - (b) provide the request for proposals for services to the listed firms; and
 - (c) establish the short-list from among those listed firms having the capacity to perform the required services as demonstrated in their submissions.
- (2) The procuring entity shall, where the estimated value of the procurement exceeds one million dollars, prepare the list referred to in subparagraph (a) of paragraph (1) by inviting expressions of interest through publication of a notice —
 - (a) in the Gazette; and
 - (b) where appropriate, in a relevant trade publication or technical or professional journal;
 - (c) by any other electronic means.

- (3) The procuring entity may, where the estimated value of the procurement assignment is lower than one million dollars, prepare the list referred to in subparagraph (a) of paragraph (1) —
 - (a) from market knowledge or other sources of information; and
 - (b) in the case of assignments which have an estimated value above fifty thousand dollars but less than one million dollars, or are particularly complex, through the utilization of advertisements.
- (4) The request for proposals shall provide short-listed bidders with the information necessary to enable them to participate in the procurement proceedings and to submit proposals that are responsive to the needs of the procuring entity including —
 - (a) the name and address of the procuring entity;
 - (b) the nature, time frame and location of the services to be provided, terms of reference, required tasks and outputs;
 - (c) the criteria to be used in evaluating and comparing proposals and their relative weights as compared to price;
 - (d) the contractual terms of the procurement and the manner of entry into force of the contract;
 - (e) instructions for preparation and submission of proposals and the place and deadline for submission of proposals;
 - (f) the final selection procedures to be applied;
 - (g) notice of conflict of interest restrictions and anti-fraud and corruption rules, including the grounds for potential debarment from future participation in procurement of goods, service or works that may result from the assignment under consideration; and
 - (h) such matters as may be prescribed in the standard documents issued by the Department.
- (5) The price of a proposal shall be considered by the procuring entity only after completion of the technical evaluation.

33. Prohibition of multiple bids by same beneficial owner.

- (1) A procuring entity in reviewing all bids shall ascertain the beneficial ownership of each bidder to ensure that multiple bids from the same beneficial owner does not undermine the bidding process.
- (2) A procuring entity in ensuring that the bidding process is not undermined, may request from a bidder documentation to satisfy the procuring entity that the beneficial ownership of a bidder is independent from all other bidders.
- (3) In the event that it is discovered that the bidding process has been flawed by multiple bids, the procuring entity shall disqualify the bids.

PART IV – BIDDING PROCESS

34. Solicitation documents to state object of procurement.

- (1) Each procuring entity shall, in preparing its solicitation documents for a bidding process (hereinafter referred to as “bidding documents”), specify, with respect to the goods, works or services, the —
 - (a) quality;
 - (b) quantity;
 - (c) certification;
 - (d) testing and test methods;
 - (e) qualification criteria for potential bidders; and
 - (f) any other means,for evaluating the conformity of the performance of the contract to the requirements.
- (2) The procuring entity shall in preparing any relevant bidding documents and pre-qualification documents —
 - (a) use such templates as may be approved by the Department from time to time, including any manuals or guidance issued by the Department;
 - (b) provide descriptive information that does not unnecessarily favour a particular bidder; and
 - (c) provide wherever possible, the desired performance or output requirements of the object of the procurement.
- (3) Where bidding documents require technical specifications, the bidding documents shall include —
 - (a) the purpose and objectives of the goods;
 - (b) a full description of the requirement;
 - (c) a generic specification to an appropriate level of detail and such specifications shall include no requirement of or reference to a particular trademark or name, patent, design or type, specific original producer or service provider unless —
 - (i) there is no other practical way of describing the procurement requirements; and
 - (ii) words such as “or equivalent” are included in the specifications.
 - (d) a functional description of the goods, including any environmental or safety features;

- (e) where appropriate, performance parameters, including outputs, time scales and any indicators or criteria by which satisfactory performance can be measured and judged;
 - (f) process and materials descriptions;
 - (g) dimensions, symbols, terminology language, packaging, marking and labelling requirements;
 - (h) inspection and testing requirements; and
 - (i) any applicable standards.
- (4) The reference to “standards” in subsection (3)(i), is a reference to national standards or international standards.

35. Publication of procurement notice.

- (1) A notice of invitation to bid or to pre-qualify in a bidding process, (hereinafter referred to as a “procurement notice”) as the case may be, shall be—
- (a) published in the Gazette or in one or more national newspapers of wide enough circulation to reach sufficient bidders to ensure effective competition;
 - (b) broadcast over radio or television on the stations and programmes, and at a time, most likely to target potential bidders; and
 - (c) to the extent feasible, published on the internet including on any website established by the public procurement department.
- (2) Where international competitive bidding is required, a procurement notice shall be published, in addition to publication specified in subsection (1) —
- (a) in at least two newspapers published in the English Language or other printed media with adequate circulation to attract foreign competition; or
 - (b) on well known reputable internet sites as provided in guidelines by the Department.
- (3) A procuring entity that considers that it is necessary to ensure wide competition —
- (a) may send a procurement notice, after the date of publication, directly to potential bidders; and
 - (b) shall keep a record of any bidders to whom a procurement notice is sent directly,
- and such record shall form part of the procurement record.
- (4) A notice published under subsection (1) or (2), as the case may be, shall include information on —

- (a) the identity and address of the procuring entity and the contact details of the person from whom further information can be obtained;
- (b) the nature and time-frame of the procurement, including the place of delivery of goods or services and the location of any works;
- (c) the price of and the manner of obtaining the bidding documents or, where applicable, any pre-qualification documents required;
- (d) the place and deadline for submission of bids or of applications to pre-qualify;
- (e) the method of procurement, where appropriate; and
- (f) such other matters as may be provided in the templates approved by the Department.

36. Provision of bidding documents to bidders.

- (1) The procuring entity shall provide, immediately after the publication of a procurement notice in accordance with section 35. and in a non-discriminatory manner, the requisite bidding documents —
 - (a) to all potential bidders that respond to the invitation to bid; or
 - (b) in the case of selective bidding, to all bidders that have been pre-qualified.
- (2) The procuring entity may charge for the bidding documents a price that reflects only the cost of printing and distributing the documents.
- (3) The bidding documents shall provide all the information required in order for bidders to submit bids that are responsive to the needs of the procuring entity, including information —
 - (a) stating the nature and time frame of the procurement, including but not limited to the contractual terms of the procurement, and the manner of entry into force of the contract;
 - (b) in all cases other than selective bidding, providing the prescribed bidder qualification and documentation requirements in order to evidence that a bidder meets the necessary qualification criteria to perform the contract as regards the bidder's —
 - (i) professional and technical qualifications and competence;
 - (ii) financial resources, equipment and other physical facilities;
 - (iii) managerial capability;
 - (iv) experience in the object of the procurement;
 - (v) business reputation; and
 - (vi) personnel;
 - (c) on site visits and pre-bid conferences;

- (d) providing instructions for preparation and submission of bids, including the deadline for submission of bids and the time and place of bid opening;
- (e) giving the components to be reflected in the price, the currency or currencies in which the bid price may be stated, and the currency and related exchange rate to be used for comparison of bids;
- (f) providing the criteria and methodology for evaluation of bids and the selection of the successful bidder —
 - (i) quantified in monetary terms;
 - (ii) expressed in the form of pass or fail requirements and, where this is not possible, expressed by relative weights; and
 - (iii) stating that the evaluation criteria for consideration by the procuring entity shall consist only of the —
 - (aa) bid price;
 - (bb) cost of operating, maintaining and repairing the goods or works;
 - (cc) time for delivery of the goods, completion of the works or provision of the services;
 - (dd) functional characteristics of the goods or works;
 - (ee) terms of payment and of guarantees in respect of the goods, works or services;
- (g) stating the preference, if any, for domestic goods and contractors as may be prescribed by the public procurement department;
- (h) on any grouping of goods, works or services into lots and packages and the manner of evaluation of the lots and packages;
- (i) stating whether alternatives to the technical or contractual specifications would be considered and, if so, how those alternatives would be evaluated;
- (j) where suppliers are permitted to submit bids for only a portion of the goods, works or services to be procured, providing a description of the portion or portions for which bids may be submitted;
- (k) stating the required validity period of bids;
- (l) providing the amount and acceptable forms of any required bid, performance or other security;
- (m) stating the conditions of contract which will be entered into with the successful bidder;
- (n) providing notice of conflict-of-interest restrictions and anti-fraud and corruption rules;
- (o) stating the manner in which bidders may obtain review of actions, omissions and decisions of the procurement entity; and

- (p) on such other matters as may be prescribed by regulations or in manuals and standard forms issued by the public procurement department.
- (4) The procuring entity shall, for the purposes of subsequent communications with bidders, make a record of the name, postal address, telephone and fax numbers and email address of all persons to whom an invitation to bid is issued and shall file a copy of such record in the procurement documents file.

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST

37. Pre-qualification criteria of potential bidder.

Subject to section 38.(2), a procuring entity may, in order to satisfy the qualification criteria established in the bidding documents, by notice invite potential bidders to express interest in the bidding process by providing evidence of that bidder's—

- (a) technical abilities, in relation to the nature, quantity, importance or use of the works, suppliers or services, by evidence of —
 - (i) experience and reliability;
 - (ii) financial resources, equipment and other physical facilities;
 - (iii) personnel;
 - (iv) managerial capability;
 - (v) possession of the necessary professional and technical qualifications and competence; and
 - (vi) subject to the right of the bidder to protect its intellectual property rights and trade secrets, possession of the requisite intellectual property rights or trade secrets;
- (b) legal capacity to perform the contract furnished by evidence that —
 - (i) the bidder has satisfied all the legal requirements to carry on business in The Bahamas and, where the bidder has its headquarters outside The Bahamas, is entitled to carry on business in the foreign jurisdiction;
 - (ii) the bidder is not insolvent, in bankruptcy, in receivership or under liquidation, and
 - (iii) legal proceedings have not been taken, and are not anticipated to be taken, that would materially affect the ability or the legal capacity of the bidder to carry out the contract;
- (c) good standing with the Government and fulfilment of its obligations to pay taxes, levies, license fees and other fees or charges, including

- national insurance contributions, or conclusion of arrangements satisfactory to the Minister and the National Insurance Board to fulfil such obligations;
- (d) integrity, including evidence that neither the bidder nor any director, officer, manager or supervisor of the bidder has, within a period of three years preceding the date of issuance of the invitation to bid, been —
 - (i) convicted of any criminal offence, whether in The Bahamas or elsewhere —
 - (aa) relating to the bidder's or his professional conduct;
 - (bb) relating to the making of false statements or misrepresentations as to the bidder's or his qualifications to enter into a procurement contract;
 - (cc) involving dishonesty;
 - (dd) under anti-corruption legislation; or
 - (ii) suspended or disbarred by administrative or judicial proceedings from participating in procurements, whether in The Bahamas or elsewhere; or
 - (e) or any other documentary evidence to certify the potential bidder's eligibility.

38. Permitted criteria.

- (1) The procuring entity shall, in establishing the qualifications referred to in section 37., be limited to criteria designed to demonstrate that a bidder possesses —
 - (a) the necessary professional and technical qualifications and competence;
 - (b) financial resources;
 - (c) equipment and other physical facilities;
 - (d) managerial capability;
 - (e) experience in the procurement object;
 - (f) business reputation and personnel;to perform the contract.
- (2) The qualification criteria referred to in subsection (1) shall —
 - (a) not be unduly restrictive or designed to reduce competition; and
 - (b) be prepared for each procurement requirement, taking into account the size, complexity and technical requirements of the proposed contract.

- (3) The procuring entity shall not impose any requirement as to qualifications in the invitation to bid other than a requirement specified in sections 37. and 55..
- (4) This section shall govern entry, or the denial of entry, on or to any list or register of suppliers, service providers or contractors held by a procuring entity, and any system of pre-qualification, based on qualification criteria.

INVITATION TO BID

39. Invitation to bid.

- (1) Where a method of procurement does not require a procurement notice, the procuring entity shall issue an invitation to bid.
- (2) An invitation to bid shall include —
 - (a) bidding documents in accordance with section 34.;
 - (b) the information required under section 35.(4); and
 - (c) requirements regarding —
 - (i) minimum bidding requirements;
 - (ii) alternative bids;
 - (iii) provision of performance security;
 - (iv) domestic preference; and
 - (v) provision of bid security.

40. Minimum bidding periods.

- (1) All bidding documents shall be made available upon publication of the invitation to bid.
- (2) The bidding period shall commence on the date of the first publication or and shall finish on the date of the bid submission deadline.
- (3) The minimum bidding period shall be, in respect of —
 - (a) competitive bidding, thirty calendar days;
 - (b) international competitive bidding, forty-five calendar days;
 - (c) selective bidding, twenty calendar days;
 - (d) restricted bidding, twenty calendar days;
 - (e) selective international competitive bidding, thirty calendar days; and
 - (f) restricted international competitive bidding where section 31.(b) applies, thirty calendar days.

- (4) All bidders shall, in selective bidding, be given a minimum of thirty calendar days following the publication of a notice to pre-qualify to submit their pre-qualification applications.
- (5) A procuring entity shall, in determining the appropriate bidding period for each requirement, take into account in addition to the minimum bidding period —
 - (a) the time required for preparation of bids, having regard to the level of detail required and the complexity of the bids;
 - (b) any need for bidders to submit authenticated legal or similar documents as part of their bids and the time required to obtain such documents;
 - (c) the location of potential bidders and the time required to obtain the bidding documents and for the delivery and submission of bids to the procuring entity; and
 - (d) any restrictions relating to the time the goods, works or services are required.

41. Alternative bids.

- (1) Alternative bids shall not, except where specifically indicated in the bidding documents, be permitted.
- (2) A procuring entity may permit alternative bids where it is anticipated that bidders may be able to offer goods, works or services which, although they do not conform precisely to the description of requirements, meet the objectives of the procurement in an alternative manner.
- (3) Alternative bids may be permitted —
 - (a) in areas of rapidly changing technology or where a need could be satisfied in a number of different ways; and
 - (b) where the procuring entity wishes to encourage cost efficient and technically innovative approaches by bidders.
- (4) The bidding documents shall, where alternative bids are permitted, state that the alternative bid does not need to conform precisely to the description of requirements but the bid must —
 - (a) meet the objectives or performance requirements prescribed in the description of requirements;
 - (b) be substantially within any delivery or completion schedule, budget and other performance parameters stated in the bidding documents; and
 - (c) clearly state the benefits of the alternative bid over any solution which conforms precisely to the description of requirements in terms of technical performance, price, operating costs or any other benefit.

42. Domestic preferences.

- (1) A margin of domestic preference may be applied to eligible bids —
 - (a) where so indicated in the bidding document; and
 - (b) strictly in accordance with any rules or schemes for domestic preference issued through circulars by the Department.
- (2) All bidding documents and Department circulars permitting a margin of domestic preference to be applied to eligible bids shall clearly state the —
 - (a) eligibility requirements for the margin of preference in terms of ownership, location of bidder or production facilities, origin of labour, raw materials or components, extent of sub-contracting or association with local partners, or any other relevant factor;
 - (b) documentation required as evidence of eligibility for the margin of preference; and
 - (c) percentage of the margin of preference and the manner in which it will be applied during the evaluation.
- (3) The percentage of domestic preference permitted in schemes issued by Department circular shall be between five and ten per cent and may be reviewed annually by the Department.

43. Performance security.

- (1) A procuring entity may request a performance security to secure the contractor's obligation to fulfil the contract and shall set out in the bidding documents and the contract the requirements for such performance security.
- (2) The value of a required performance security shall be no more than ten per cent of the contract value and may be expressed either as a fixed amount or as a percentage of the contract value.
- (3) The procuring entity shall, in determining the amount of performance security required, take into account —
 - (a) the cost to the contractor of obtaining a performance security;
 - (b) the value of the contract;
 - (c) the risk of a contractor failing to fulfil his contractual obligations; and
 - (d) the extent of protection offered to the procuring entity through alternative means, such as payment retentions.

- (4) The value of a performance security may, where appropriate, be progressively reduced in line with the contractor's progress in delivering or completing the goods, works or services to which the security relates.
- (5) The bidding documents and contract shall state that the performance security must —
 - (a) be in accordance with the format and wording provided in the bidding documents;
 - (b) be in a form acceptable to the procuring entity;
 - (c) where the security is issued by a financial institution, be from an institution acceptable to the procuring entity; and
 - (d) be valid for the period prescribed in the contract.
- (6) The conditions for forfeiture of the performance security shall be specified in the contract.
- (7) The procuring entity shall authorise the release of the performance security promptly to the contractor upon —
 - (a) completion of all the contractor's contractual obligations which are subject to the security; or
 - (b) termination of the contract for a reason that is not attributable to any fault of the contractor.

44. Bid security.

- (1) A procuring entity —
 - (a) may require a bid security in order to deter non-compliant bids and encourage bidders to fulfil the conditions of their bids; and
 - (b) shall include in the bidding documents any requirement for a bid security.
- (2) The value of a required bid security shall be expressed as a fixed amount and not as a percentage and such amount shall be between two and five percent of the estimated value of the contract.
- (3) The procuring entity shall, in determining the amount of bid security required, take into account the —
 - (a) cost to bidders of obtaining a bid security;
 - (b) estimated value of the contract;
 - (c) risk of bidders failing to fulfil the conditions of their bids; and
 - (d) need for the amount of the bid security to be high enough to deter irresponsible bids but not so high as to discourage competition.
- (4) The bidding documents shall state that a bid security must be —
 - (a) in accordance with the format and wording provided in the bidding documents;

- (b) in a form acceptable to the procuring entity, including —
 - (i) cash;
 - (ii) a bank guarantee;
 - (iii) an equivalent instrument, such as a security issued by a insurance company or stand-by letter of credit;
 - (iv) property pledged by the bidder; or
 - (v) an alternative form acceptable to the procuring entity including a form permitted under schemes authorised by Department to facilitate access to securities by small enterprises;
 - (c) in the case of instruments issued by financial institutions, from an institution acceptable to the procuring entity; and
 - (d) valid for a period of twenty-eight days after the expiry of the bid validity period, or for such other period as may be prescribed in the bidding documents.
- (6) A procuring entity may forfeit a bid security only where there is a —
- (a) modification or withdrawal of a bid after the deadline for submission of bids and during its period of validity;
 - (b) refusal by a bidder to accept a correction of an arithmetical error appearing on the face of the bid;
 - (c) failure by the successful bidder to sign a contract in accordance with the terms set forth in the bidding documents; or
 - (d) failure by the successful bidder to provide a security for the performance of the contract if required to do so by the bidding documents.
- (7) A procuring entity shall authorise the release of a bid security promptly to an unsuccessful bidder upon the earlier of the —
- (a) expiry of the term of the security; or
 - (b) formation of a contract with the successful bidder and submission of any required performance security.
- (8) The bid security of a successful bidder shall not be authorised for release until a performance security, if required, has been received.

45. Request for proposals award, quality and cost selection.

- (1) The selection of the successful proposal in a request for proposals method shall, as appropriate, be based on the —
 - (a) technical quality of the proposal, the consultant's relevant experience, the expertise of its staff, the proposed work methodology, and the price of the proposal;

- (b) quality of the technical proposal submitted within a predetermined fixed budget; or
 - (c) best financial proposal submitted by the candidates that have obtained an acceptable technical score pre-disclosed in the request for proposals.
- (2) The method of selection and the criteria to be applied shall be set out in detail in the request for proposals.
- (3) A consultant may be selected exclusively on the basis of the technical quality of the proposal where —
- (a) the head of the procuring entity has approved the use of such method; and
 - (b) the services —
 - (i) are of an exceptionally complex nature;
 - (ii) will have a considerable impact on future projects or national economy; or
 - (iii) may lead to the submission of proposals which are difficult to compare.

BID OPENING

46. Bid opening.

- (1) Bids shall be opened or accessed electronically, as the case may be, by the procurement unit, tender committee or the Board, as appropriate, at the time and place indicated in the bidding documents and the time of bid opening shall coincide with or follow immediately after the deadline for submission of bids, allowing a minimum time interval for logistical reasons.
- (2) Bidders or their representatives may attend the bid opening and the procurement unit, tender committee or the Board, as the case may be, shall cause to be read out loud and recorded —
 - (a) the name of each the bidder;
 - (b) the total amount of each bid;
 - (c) any discounts or alternatives offered; and
 - (d) the presence or absence of any required bid security or essential supporting documents.
- (3) A copy of the record shall be made available to any bidder on request.
- (4) No decision regarding the disqualification or rejection of a bid shall be taken or announced in the bid opening session.

- (5) A bidder shall not, after the of the bids and until the preliminary decision on award has been notified to the successful bidder, make any unsolicited communication to the procuring entity or the Board or attempt in any way to influence the examination and evaluation of the bids.

47. Submission of bids.

- (1) A bid shall be submitted before the deadline for submission of bids in written form, duly signed and sealed, in an envelope or electronically, whichever method has been specified.
- (2) Bids received after the deadline for submission of bids shall be returned unopened or denied electronic access.
- (3) Invitations for pre-qualification and bidding documents shall permit the submission of applications to pre-qualify or bids by hand or mail, or by courier or electronically.
- (4) Bids shall remain valid for the period of time indicated in the bidding documents but modification or withdrawal of a bid during the bid validity period shall be subject to forfeiture of the bid security.
- (5) The procuring entity shall not extend, or be deemed to have extended, the validity period of a bid without the written agreement of the bidder concerned and, where a bidder agrees in writing to an extension of the validity period of its bid, the bid security where such security was required shall also be correspondingly extended.

48. Confidentiality.

Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, information relating to the content of pre-qualification applications and bids, or the examination, clarification, evaluation and comparison of bids, shall not be disclosed by the procuring entity to —

- (a) suppliers or contractors; or
- (b) any other person not involved officially in the examination, evaluation or comparison of bids or in making the decision whether a bid should be accepted.

EXAMINATION AND EVALUATION OF BIDS

49. Examination and evaluation of bids.

- (1) The procuring entity shall, following the opening of bids, examine the bids in order to determine whether —
 - (a) bids are complete and have been properly signed by the bidder or bidding entity;

- (b) required documents to establish the legal validity of the bidder or the bidding entity and required bid security have been furnished; and
 - (c) bids are substantially responsive to the technical specifications and contract conditions set forth in the bidding documents.
- (2) A bid shall be rejected and excluded from further evaluation and comparison where the bid is —
 - (a) not complete or properly signed;
 - (b) not accompanied by a bid security in the prescribed form where such security is required;
 - (c) not accompanied by essential supporting documents such as business registration certificates, business licences and tax receipts; or
 - (d) substantially non-responsive to the technical specifications or contract conditions or to other critical requirements in the bidding documents.
- (3) In selective bidding, a bid received from an entity other than the pre-qualified bidders shall be rejected and excluded.
- (4) Bids not excluded from consideration pursuant to subsection (2) shall be evaluated in accordance with the criteria and methodology stated in the bidding documents.
- (5) The procuring entity —
 - (a) may seek clarification in writing from any bidder to facilitate evaluation;
 - (b) shall not ask or permit a bidder to change the price or any other aspect of the bid; and
 - (c) where a bidder amends its bid in any manner, shall reject the bid and forfeit the bid security.
- (6) In a bid —
 - (a) the amount in words shall, where there is a discrepancy between figures and words, prevail; and
 - (b) where a discrepancy is due to misplacement of decimal point, the mistake shall be rectified and the bidder notified.
- (7) During an evaluation —
 - (a) minor deviations in a bid which did not merit rejection of the bid at an earlier stage, such as a minor variation, shall where possible be costed; and

- (b) the evaluation cost of a bid referred to in paragraph (a) shall then be compared to those of other bids to determine the lowest evaluated bid.
- (8) In selective bidding, the qualifications of the lowest evaluated bidder shall be verified again to take account of any change since the original pre-qualification.
- (9) In methods other than selective bidding, the qualifications of the lowest evaluated substantially responsive bidder shall be checked against the criteria specified in the bidding documents and, if that bid fails, the same check shall be applied to the next ranked bid.

50. Prohibition of negotiations.

- (1) Where the examination and evaluation of bids has commenced in accordance with section 49., no negotiations shall take place between the procuring entity and a bidder with respect to a bid submitted by that bidder.
- (2) Subsection (1) shall not apply in circumstances where there is only one bidder.

51. Unsatisfactory bids.

Where the lowest evaluated responsive bid exceeds the budget for the contract by a substantial margin, the procuring entity shall investigate the causes for the excessive cost and —

- (a) may consider requesting new bids; or
- (b) subject to approval by the head of the procuring entity, may negotiate a satisfactory contract with the lowest evaluated bidder for a reduction in the scope of the goods, works or services reflected in a corresponding reduction of the contract price.

52. Amendment or withdrawal of bid.

- (1) A bidder may amend or withdraw a bid by submitting a notice of amendment or withdrawal to the procuring entity not later than the date and time for the close of submission of bids.
- (2) The notice of amendment or withdrawal shall be submitted in the same manner as the original bid and clearly labelled “Amendment of Proposal” or “Withdrawal of Proposal” and shall comply with any additional directions, if any, in the invitation to bid.

53. Bidder debriefing.

- (1) A procuring entity shall, upon request, communicate promptly to a bidder the reason for the rejection of its application to pre-qualify, or of its bid.

- (2) A debriefing shall be provided in writing within a reasonable period of time of the receipt of the request.
- (3) A debriefing shall state —
 - (a) at which stage of the evaluation the bid was rejected and provide brief details of any material deviation, reservation or omission leading to rejection of the bid; or
 - (b) that a bid was substantially responsive but failed to offer the lowest evaluated price or highest score as required.
- (4) A debriefing shall not provide details on any other bids, other than information that is publicly available from bid openings or published notices.

CANCELLATION OF BIDS

54. Unsuccessful procurement procedures.

- (1) The procuring entity shall, where no responsive bids are received or procurement proceedings are otherwise unsuccessful —
 - (a) investigate the failed procurement proceedings; and
 - (b) record in the procurement report the reasons why the procurement was unsuccessful and the course of action taken.
- (2) An investigation pursuant to paragraph (1) shall consider all relevant issues, including whether —
 - (a) the bidding period was sufficient, having regard to the factors referred to in section 40.(5);
 - (b) the requirements of the bidding documents and the terms and conditions of the proposed contract were clear, non-discriminatory, proportionate, reasonable and not so excessive as to deter competition;
 - (c) the invitation notice was published in an appropriate publication and on the required date;
 - (d) there was delay in issuing the bidding documents;
 - (e) any amendments or clarifications to the bidding documents allowed sufficient time for bidders to take them into account in preparing their bids;
 - (f) there were other extraneous events or circumstances which may have affected the ability of bidders to respond;
 - (g) the evaluation process was conducted in accordance with this Act and the bidding documents and whether the tender committee had adequate skills and resources;

- (h) there is any suspicion of collusion between potential bidders; and
 - (i) the original choice of procurement method was appropriate.
- (3) The procuring entity shall, after completion of its investigation, take any appropriate action suggested by the cause or causes of failure including but not limited to —
- (a) the use of an alternative method of procurement;
 - (b) amendments to the bidding documents, including bidding requirements, the type of contract, or the terms and conditions of the proposed contract;
 - (c) alternative publication of any invitations to bid, similar notices or bidding documents; and
 - (d) the introduction of international competition.

55. Disqualification.

- (1) A procuring entity shall disqualify a bidder if the procuring entity finds that the information submitted in a bid concerning the bidder's qualifications is false or misleading.
- (2) A procuring entity may disqualify a bidder if the procuring entity —
- (a) finds that the information submitted in a bid concerning the bidder's qualifications is materially inaccurate or materially incomplete; or
 - (b) gives written notice to the bidder to remedy in writing, within ten days after the bidder's receipt of the notice, the material inaccuracies or material omissions in a bid concerning the bidder's qualifications and the bidder fails or refuses to do so within the time specified.

56. Cancellation of procurement proceedings.

- (1) Cancellation of procurement proceedings shall be permitted where the procuring entity makes a determination in writing that —
- (a) the procurement need has ceased to exist or has changed significantly;
 - (b) insufficient funding is available for the procurement;
 - (c) there has been a significant change in the required technical details, bidding conditions, conditions of contract or other details making it necessary to commence procurement proceedings anew;
 - (d) insufficient or no responsive bids have been received;
 - (e) there is evidence of collusion among bidders; or
 - (f) cancellation is otherwise in the public interest.
- (3) Bids received shall, where procurement proceedings are cancelled, be returned.

AWARD OF CONTRACT

57. Award of Contract.

- (1) The contract shall be awarded to the bidder who submitted the lowest evaluated cost and substantially responsive bid which meets only those evaluation criteria as specified in the bidding documents.
- (2) The procuring entity shall, prior to the expiry of the bid validity period, give notice as prescribed to the successful bidder of the proposed award, specifying the time within which, subject to any intervening complaints filed, the contract must be signed.
- (3) The procuring entity shall, where a contract is awarded by way of competitive bidding, or has a value in excess of $XXX, give notice as prescribed to the other bidders specifying —
 - (a) the name and address of the proposed successful bidder;
 - (b) the price of the contract; and
 - (c) that the contract shall not be signed until at least fourteen calendar days have passed following the date of the notice.
- (4) The procuring entity, where the successful bidder fails within the prescribed time limits to sign a written contract or to provide a required performance security, shall —
 - (a) accept the next ranked bidder from among the remaining bids that are in force;
 - (b) in selecting the next ranked bidder, comply with the bid opening provisions set out in section 46. as appropriate and the notice requirements of subsection (3).
- (5) A written procurement contract that is required to be signed shall enter into force when the contract is signed by the supplier or contractor and by the procuring entity.
- (6) A procurement contract in accordance with the terms and conditions of the accepted bid shall, where notice is dispatched while the bid is in force in accordance with subsection (2), enter into force when the notice is dispatched to the successful supplier or contractor that submitted the bid.
- (7) Contracts shall be signed by the head of a procuring entity or a person delegated by the head of such entity.

58. Contract award notice.

The procuring entity shall publish promptly, and in any event within two months of the contract award, a notice of all procurement contract awards in accordance with the requirements for procurement notices under section 35..

PART V – CHALLENGES AND APPEAL

REVIEW TRIBUNAL

59. Procurement Review Tribunal.

- (1) There is established for the purpose of this Part a tribunal to be known as the Procurement Review Tribunal.
- (2) The Procurement Review Tribunal shall—
 - (a) be an independent, ad hoc tribunal;
 - (b) exercise its functions, when required, by panels constituted in accordance with regulations;
 - (c) have an official seal that shall be judicially noticed;
 - (d) consist of the President and such other members as may be prescribed by the regulations; and
 - (e) develop its own rules of procedure.
- (3) The Tribunal shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all appeals, matters and disputes referred to it under this Act or the regulations or conferred upon it by any other law.
- (4) An appeal from a decision of the Tribunal shall lie to the Supreme Court.

60. Appointment of Tribunal president.

- (1) The Governor-General acting on the advice of the Judicial and Legal Service Commission shall appoint the president of the Tribunal.
- (2) A person shall not be eligible for appointment as president of the Tribunal unless such person —
 - (a) is a member of The Bahamas Bar for a period of at least ten years; and
 - (b) appears to the Judicial and Legal Service Commission to have appropriate experience and knowledge to enable him to discharge his functions as a member of the Tribunal.
- (3) A person may not be appointed to serve as president for more than an aggregate period of eight years.
- (4) Notwithstanding subsection (3), the president may be temporarily re-appointed for the purpose of continuing to act as a member of the Tribunal as constituted in order to complete any proceedings instituted before the end of the president's term of office.

- (5) The president may at any time resign his office by notice in writing to the Judicial and Legal Services Commission.
- (6) The Governor-General acting on the advice of the Judicial and Legal Services Commission may remove a person from office as president where satisfied that the president is unable, unwilling or unfit, for whatever reasons, to perform his functions as a member of the Tribunal.
- (7) Subject to this section, the president shall hold and vacate office in accordance with the president's terms of appointment.

61. Appointment of Tribunal members.

- (1) The Governor-General shall, acting on the advice of the Minister, appoint a maximum of four persons to serve as ordinary members of the Tribunal.
- (2) Members appointed pursuant to subsection (1) —
 - (a) shall be persons with experience, expertise or professional qualifications that the Governor-General considers relevant to exercising the jurisdiction of the Tribunal; and
 - (b) may include economists, lawyers, surveyors, accountants or persons with substantial and relevant experience in public procurement and related fields of expertise.
- (3) A minimum of one-third of all members of the Tribunal shall be legal members.
- (4) A person shall not be eligible for appointment as a legal member unless such person —
 - (a) is a member of The Bahamas Bar and has been for a period of at least seven years; and
 - (b) appears to the Minister to have appropriate experience and knowledge to enable him to discharge his functions as a legal member of the Tribunal.
- (5) A person shall not be appointed as a member of the Tribunal for more than eight years in aggregate.
- (6) Notwithstanding subsection (5), a member may be temporarily re-appointed for the purpose of continuing to act as a member of the Tribunal as constituted in order to complete any proceedings instituted before the end of the member's term of office.
- (7) A member may resign his office at any time by notice in writing to the president.

- (8) The Governor-General acting on the advice of the Minister may remove a member from office where satisfied that the member is unable, unwilling or unfit, for whatever reasons, to perform the member's functions as a member of the Tribunal.
- (9) Subject to this section, members shall hold and vacate office in accordance with their terms of appointment.

62. Tribunal registrar.

- (1) The president shall appoint, and supervise, a registrar of the Tribunal who shall be responsible for the administration of the Tribunal.
- (2) The president may in writing assign such functions to the registrar as the president deems fit.
- (3) The registrar shall serve for a term of four years and shall be eligible for re-appointment.
- (4) Subject to any directives of the president, the functions, powers and duties of the registrar are to —
 - (a) require any application or other reference to the Tribunal to be amended in accordance with the rules, practice and procedure of the Tribunal or to be re-presented after an amendment has been made at the direction of the registrar;
 - (b) register applications and maintain the register of applications;
 - (c) fix dates and make all other practical arrangements, including the issuing of notices to parties and witnesses, for sittings of the Tribunal or a panel of the Tribunal;
 - (d) arrange for publication of the proceedings and judgements of the Tribunal;
 - (e) give directions for any formal amendment of the record of the Tribunal;
 - (f) order the provision of copies of documents to parties; and
 - (g) grant leave to inspect the records of the Tribunal.
- (5) The registrar shall have custody of the seal and records of the Tribunal and shall exercise such other functions as may be assigned to the registrar by order of the President.

63. Tribunal panels.

- (1) The functions of the Tribunal shall be exercised by panels of the Tribunal.
- (2) A panel of the Tribunal shall sit at such time and in such place as the president may direct and more than one panel may sit at a time.

- (3) The president shall make arrangements for determining which members of the Tribunal are to constitute a panel of the Tribunal in relation to the exercise of any function.
- (4) Arrangements made pursuant to subsection (3) shall ensure that each panel is constituted as —
 - (a) the president sitting alone;
 - (b) the president sitting with two ordinary members; or
 - (c) a legal member sitting with two ordinary members.

PROCEDURE FOR COMPLAINTS

64. Complaints.

- (1) A potential or actual bidder who claims to have suffered, or to be likely to suffer, loss or injury due to a breach of a duty imposed on a procuring entity by this Act may at any stage apply by way of complaint to the procuring entity for a review of the procurement proceedings.
- (2) The procuring entity shall not process an application made pursuant to subsection (1) unless —
 - (a) the complaint which is the subject of the application is made in writing;
 - (b) the complaint identifies the specific act of omission or commission alleged to contravene this Act and the bidding documents; and
 - (c) the complaint is made in respect of a contract award.
- (3) A procuring entity shall process a complaint by way of a review of the procurement proceedings where such complaint —
 - (a) concerns alleged improprieties in the solicitation of bids or applications to pre-qualification; and
 - (b) such alleged improprieties were not apparent prior to bid opening but have come to light after bid opening.

65. Procuring entity review procedure.

- (1) A complaint prior to the entry into force of a contract shall be made by the bidder, in the first instance, in writing to the head of the procuring entity.
- (2) The head of the procuring entity shall not entertain a complaint made pursuant to subsection (1) unless the complaint was submitted within fourteen working days of the bidder becoming aware of the circumstances giving rise to the complaint, or should have become aware of such circumstances, whichever is earlier.

- (3) The head of the procuring entity shall, unless the complaint is resolved by mutual agreement —
 - (a) suspend the procurement proceedings unless satisfied that urgent public interest considerations require the procurement to proceed;
 - (b) review the complaint; and
 - (c) within five working days after submission of the complaint, issue a written decision to the complainant stating the reasons the complaint has been rejected or, where the complaint is upheld, the corrective measures to be taken.
- (4) The complainant may, where the head of the procuring entity upon review does not issue a decision within five days or the complainant is not satisfied with the decision issued, appeal to the Procurement Review Tribunal.

66. Appeal Tribunal.

- (1) A person may make an application to the Procurement Review Tribunal for review where such person —
 - (a) is aggrieved by a decision of the head of procuring entity made pursuant to section 55; or
 - (b) has a complaint in respect of the award of a contract that has already come into force.
- (2) An application for review may be made to the Tribunal —
 - (a) in the form of an appeal by the complaining bidder against a decision by the head of a procuring entity filed within ten working days of the date on which the procuring entity's decision was communicated to the complaining bidder;
 - (b) where the head of a procuring entity to whom a complaint is made fails to render a decision within the required time or where the complainant is not satisfied with the decision issued by the procuring entity, and the application is filed within ten working days of the expiry of the required time for decision-making by the procuring entity;
 - (c) where the contract has already entered into force, in the form of an appeal in the first instance to the Tribunal filed within ten working days of the bidder becoming aware of the circumstances giving rise to the complaint, or should have become aware of such circumstances, whichever is earlier;
- (3) The president of the Tribunal shall within ten working days of receiving an application for review —
 - (a) appoint a panel to hear the matter; and

- (b) fix a date, to be known as the date of establishment, for the commencement of the panel's deliberations.

67. Panel decisions.

- (1) A panel of the Procurement Review Tribunal shall make a written decision, containing the reasons for the decision, within ten working days after the conclusion of its deliberations.
- (2) A panel decision shall be binding on all the parties.
- (3) An application for review may be dismissed for —
 - (a) failure to comply with any of the prescribed requirements;
 - (b) containing only obligations that do not —
 - (i) state a valid basis for a complaint; or
 - (ii) set forth a detailed legal and factual statement;
 - (c) having been filed in an untimely manner —
 - (i) at the initial level of review by the procuring entity; or
 - (ii) with respect to deadlines for filing of an application with the Tribunal;
 - (d) being concerned with contract implementation or administration rather than contract award.
- (4) The Tribunal panel may, on review of an application brought before it, dismiss a complaint or order a remedy —
 - (a) prohibiting the procuring entity from acting or deciding in an unauthorised manner or from following incorrect procedure;
 - (b) annulling in whole or in part any unauthorized act or decision of a procuring entity, other than an act or decision bringing the contract into force;
 - (c) reversing a decision by the head of a procuring entity, or substituting its own decision for such a decision, other than a decision bringing the contract into force.
- (5) Subject to subsection (6), the submission of an application for review within the time periods specified in this Act shall suspend the procurement proceedings until a decision on the matter is issued by the Tribunal panel.
- (6) The president of the Tribunal may upon the application of the procuring entity end the suspension of procurement proceedings pursuant to subsection (5) where the procuring entity satisfies the president that the continuation of the suspension would cause disproportionate harm to —
 - (a) the public interest;
 - (b) the procuring entity; or
 - (c) other suppliers and contractors.

- (7) The lifting by the president of a suspension pursuant to subsection (6) shall —
 - (a) permit the procuring entity to continue with the procurement procedure up to contract award; and
 - (b) not permit a contract to be concluded before a decision is made by the Tribunal panel.
- (8) The Tribunal panel shall in all cases ensure that all parties to a dispute are heard and given fair opportunity to make their case.

PART VII – DEBARMENT PROCEDURE

68. Interpretation of Part.

For the purposes of this Part —

“debarment” or “debar” means

“person” whether legal or natural, includes a bidder, supplier or contractor;

“suspension” means a temporary status of ineligibility for procurement transactions, pending completion of an investigation or legal proceedings;

69. Suspension.

Where the Department determines that immediate action is necessary to protect the interest of the Government, the Department may suspend a person where there is adequate evidence that there may be a cause for debarment

70. Debarment.

The Department may debar a person for —

- (a) conviction or civil judgement for —
 - (i) commission of fraud or a criminal offense in connection with —
 - (aa) obtaining;
 - (bb) attempting to obtain; or
 - (cc) performing a public contract or subcontract;
 - (ii) commission of embezzlement, theft, forgery, bribery, falsification or destruction of records, making false statements, tax evasion, violating tax laws, or receiving stolen property; or

- (b) commission of any other offense indicating a lack of business integrity or business honesty that seriously and directly affects the bidder's present responsibility;
- (c) upon a preponderance of evidence for —
 - (i) violation of the terms of a Government contract, subcontractor, or public agreement so serious as to justify debarment including but not limited to —
 - (aa) willful failure to perform in accordance with the terms of a contract; or
 - (bb) a history of failure to perform, or of unsatisfactory performance of a contract;
 - (ii) knowing failure by a principal, within three years after final payment on any Government contract, to timely disclose credible evidence of —
 - (aa) commission of fraud, bribery, ...
 - (bb) significant overpayment on the contract.
- (d) based on a determination by the Department of Immigration or the Office of the Attorney-General that the person is not in compliance with the Immigration Act (Ch. 191).
- (e) based on any other cause of so serious or compelling a nature that it affects the present responsibility of the person.

71. Period of debarment.

- (1) Debarment shall be for a period commensurate with the seriousness of the cause but shall not generally exceed three years.
- (2) If suspension precedes a debarment, the suspension period shall be considered in determining the debarment period.

PART VIII – MISCELLANEOUS

72. Confidentiality.

- (1) A person having an official duty or being employed in the administration of this Act or engaged as a consultant to the Board shall consider and deal with all documents and information relating to the functions of the Board as confidential.
- (2) Subject to section 44. a person in possession of or control over any document or information relating to any business or transaction of the Board shall not communicate or attempt to communicate any information contained in that document or pass on the document to any person other than a person authorised under this Act to receive the document.

73. Offences.

- (1) No person, whether that person has made an offer or not, shall, with intent to gaining any advantage or concession for himself or any other person —
 - (a) offer any member of the Board or a committee thereof or any employee of the Board or any consultant or person providing service under this Act, a gift of money or other thing;
 - (b) approach any member of the Board, committee or any officer under this Act with respect to any matter that is before the Board or a committee or that is expected to come before the Board or Committee.
- (2) No person appointed under this Act shall accept any gift of money or other thing which is intended—
 - (a) to influence the vote at any meeting of the Board, or
 - (b) to influence the Board or any member of the Board or committee with respect to any matter that is before the Board or committee or that is expected to come before the Board or committee.
- (3) A person who contravenes section 13. commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of ten thousand dollars or to a term of imprisonment for twelve months or to both.
- (4) A person who contravenes section 14. commits an offence and is liable on conviction on indictment to a fine of one hundred thousand dollars or to a term of imprisonment for five years or to both.
- (5) Where a person who commits an offence under subsections (1) and (2) is a corporate body, every director or officer thereof who knowingly or negligently authorised or conspired with another person to commit the offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of one hundred thousand dollars or to a term of imprisonment for five years or to both.

74. Review of Act.

- (1) This Act shall be reviewed from time to time by a Committee of both Houses of Parliament appointed by the Prime Minister in consultation with the Leader of the Opposition for that purpose.
- (2) The first review of this Act shall be conducted not later than two years after the date of the first appointed day notice under this Act.

75. Annual report.

The Minister shall cause to be prepared before the 30th day of September each year an annual report on the overall functioning of the public procurement system, including a profile of procurement activities.

76. Minister to lay annual report.

The Minister shall by the 1st day of October of each year cause the annual report of the Department to be laid before both chambers of Parliament together with the Minister's assessment of the work of the department for the relevant financial year.

77. Non-derogation.

Nothing in this Act shall derogate from the provisions of the Financial Administration and Audit Act (No. 26 of 2010).

78. Regulations.

The Minister may make regulations—

- (a) providing for the application, modification or suspension of the provisions of this Part;
- (b) prescribing the membership, functions and powers of the Public Procurement Board;
- (c) prescribing procurement entities and their functions, powers and duties;
- (d) prescribing the functions, powers and duties of a procuring unit;
- (e) providing for the constitution of the Procurement Review Tribunal and the appointment of its members;
- (f) providing a code of conduct for contractors and suppliers;
- (g) prescribing the procedures for complaints and appeals to the Procurement Review Tribunal and from the Tribunal to the Supreme Court; and
- (h) providing for any other matter necessary or conducive to giving effect to the provisions of this Act.

79. Repeals.

The Financial Administration and Audit (Amendment) Act (No. 13 of 2013) is hereby repealed.

SCHEDULE

1. Procedures of the Board.

- (1) The Board shall have such structures and organization as the Minister may determine necessary for the efficient performance of its functions.
- (2) The Chairperson and other Board members, not being ex officio members, shall hold office for a term of three years and shall be eligible for re-appointment except in the case of members appointed pursuant to section 4.(1)(d).
- (3) The Chairperson and other Board members shall be paid by the Department such remuneration, fees, allowances and reimbursements for expenses incurred, in connection with the discharge of their functions as the Minister may determine.
- (4) The quorum at a meeting of the Board shall be five, excluding the Secretary.
- (5) Each Board member excluding the Secretary shall have one vote but the Chairperson shall, where there is an equality of votes, have a casting vote.
- (6) The Board shall cause minutes of all its meetings to be taken by the secretary to the Board, signed by the Chairperson, and kept in the proper form as a public document.
- (7) Subject to the Act and these Regulations, the Board may regulate its meetings and procedure as the Board thinks fit.
