ANNEX B

PREAMBLE

THE STATES PARTIES,

Recalling the undertaking of the Member States in Article 239 of the Revised Treaty of Chaguaramas to elaborate a Protocol relating, inter alia, to government procurement;

Recognising the importance of the contribution of government procurement to the gross domestic product (GDP) of the Member States;

Conscious of the adjustment within the arrangements of Member States away from government procurement towards public procurement;

Aware that the Member States provide considerable procurement opportunities for CARICOM based suppliers of goods, services and works in the CARICOM Single Market and Economy (CSME);

Conscious that the Member States are likely to secure the best value for money if the procurement policies of their Governments are informed by policies of fair competition, non-discrimination and transparency;

Desirous of strengthening the regional supplier base and providing opportunities for micro, small and medium-sized enterprises to participate in procurement opportunities;

Committed to enhancing the quality of governance in the Caribbean Community through the promotion of fairness, transparency and accountability in the supply of goods and services in the CSME;

Convinced that a sound, efficient, transparent and credible policy of

March 27, 2017

public procurement by the Member States will contribute significantly to the achievement of the objectives of the CSME,

Have agreed as follows:

PART ONE

GENERAL

ARTICLE 1

USE OF TERMS

In this Protocol, unless the context otherwise requires:

“bidder” means a supplier who has submitted a bid;

“bidding documents” –

- (a) means documentation containing information in respect of a procurement opportunity; and
- (b) includes the invitation to bid, specific information concerning the item(s) to be procured including any technical or other specifications, conditions for supplier participation, the manner, date and time for the submission of bids, the form and format of the bid, evaluation criteria, the form of contract, the implementation period and any other relevant information;

“CARICOM” means the Caribbean Community;

“CARICOM supplier” in the context of a natural person, means a supplier who is a national of a Contracting Party or, in the context of a legal person, is a supplier that –

- (a) is constituted in a Member State in conformity with the laws of the Contracting Party;

“traditional media” includes television, radio, newspapers, magazines, newsletters and other print publications.

“Treaty” means the Treaty Establishing the Caribbean Community and Common Market signed at Chaguaramas on 4 July 1973;

ARTICLE 2

OBJECTIVES

The objective of this Protocol is to set out the conditions and procedures necessary for the ~~full~~ [progressive] integration of the national public procurement markets of the Contracting Parties into a single, unified and open area through the design and implementation of a regional best practice regime for public procurement and, in so doing, to:

- (a) create the necessary competitive and non-discriminatory conditions to facilitate achievement of best value for money;
- (b) provide opportunities for access to a single market with regional sales opportunities; and
- (c) strengthen the competitiveness of the regional supplier base [in particular in relation to micro, small and medium-sized enterprises]; and
- (d) encourage the rational use of scarce resources.

ARTICLE 3

OPERATING PRINCIPLES

1. Consistent with the objectives of the public procurement regime of the Community, Contracting Parties, shall, in their public procurements to which this Protocol applies, give effect to the following principles:
 - (a) ~~[free entry and participation in public procurement markets][maximum participation by CARICOM suppliers in Contracting Parties' public procurement markets];~~
 - (b) national treatment and most favoured nation treatment;

- (c) transparency;
 - (d) accountability;
 - (e) best value for money; and
 - (f) procedural fairness.
2. In accordance with paragraph 1, Contracting Parties shall:
- (a) ensure that procurement policies, administrative rules, guidelines, procedures and practices which are within the scope of application of this Protocol, as set out in Article 5, are not prepared, adopted or applied so as to afford protection or favour to, or bias against, the goods, services, works or suppliers of any other Contracting Party;
 - (b) grant the goods, services, works and CARICOM suppliers of any other Contracting Party treatment that is no less favourable than that accorded by them to domestic goods, services, works and suppliers;
 - (c) grant the goods, services, works and CARICOM suppliers of any other Contracting Party treatment that is no less favourable than that accorded by them to third country goods, services, works and suppliers;
 - (d) ensure that their procuring entities do not treat a locally established supplier less favourably than another locally established supplier on the basis of the degree of affiliation to, or ownership by a person or persons of any other Contracting Party; and
 - (e) ensure that adequate and relevant information is made accessible and widely available to suppliers in a consistent and timely manner at reasonable or no cost.

ARTICLE 4

IMPLEMENTATION

1. In the context of public procurement to which this Protocol applies, Contracting Parties shall enact, monitor and enforce appropriate public procurement legislation that is compatible with the provisions of this Protocol.
2. Contracting Parties shall not introduce in their territories any new restrictions, whether or not so expressly stated, the effect of which would prohibit or otherwise limit the participation of CARICOM suppliers in public procurements to which this Protocol applies.
3. Contracting Parties shall establish, strengthen and maintain national institutional arrangements to ensure the enforcement of and compliance with public procurement legislation enacted in accordance with paragraph 1.

PART TWO

SCOPE AND COVERAGE

ARTICLE 5

SCOPE OF APPLICATION

1. Subject to paragraph 2, this Protocol applies to every public procurement of a value equal to or greater than the relevant threshold specified in Annex A to this Protocol.
2. The provisions of this Protocol shall not apply to:
 - (a) agreements between a Contracting Party and an international organisation which limit participation in public procurement due to permissible conditions and limitations stated in the agreement;

- (b) agreements entered into between a Contracting Party and a third country or between a Contracting Party and a Member State that is not a Contracting Party intended for the joint implementation or exploitation of a project by the parties to the agreement and financed by the third country, which limit participation in public procurement because of specific permissible conditions and restrictions on nationality or other eligibility of suppliers;
- (c) the hiring of government employees, whether by contracts of service or contracts for service, and related employment measures; or
- (d) public procurements of the types specified in Annex B.

ARTICLE 6

THRESHOLD REVIEW

1. The Council for Finance and Planning (COFAP) shall review the thresholds specified in Annex A at least every two years and shall, having taken into account the considerations referred to in paragraph 3, where necessary and appropriate recommend to the Council for Trade and Economic Development (COTED) that the thresholds be amended. Recommendations by COFAP shall be made on the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the Contracting Parties.
2. Subject to paragraph (3) and on the recommendation of the COFAP, the COTED may, from time to time, amend Annex A in order to ensure the achievement of the objectives of this Protocol.
3. The COFAP and the COTED shall take into consideration the following in determining whether to recommend the amendment of the thresholds or to amend the thresholds, respectively –

- (a) the strength of the economies;
 - (b) the strength of the currencies; and
 - (c) such other factors as the COFAP and COTED consider appropriate.
4. Decisions of COTED on whether to amend Annex A shall be reached by [an affirmative vote of all the Contracting Parties and such decision shall be binding].

ARTICLE 7

~~MODIFICATIONS AND RECTIFICATIONS~~ ~~OF ENTITY COVERAGE~~

- ~~1. Member States shall not amend their agreed coverage under this Protocol with the intention of avoiding compliance with their obligations under this Protocol.~~
- ~~2. Notwithstanding paragraph 1 and subject to the provisions of this Article, a Member State may modify or rectify its coverage under this Protocol.~~
- ~~3. Where a Member State proposes a modification to its coverage, the Member State shall, in writing, notify the COTED and the COFAP and include in the notification the reasons for the proposed modification including whether the Member State has effectively eliminated its control or influence over a procuring entity.~~
- ~~4. Upon receipt of a notification submitted under paragraph 3, the COFAP shall consider the notification and the reasons submitted and shall advise the COTED on whether the COTED may object to the proposed modification.~~
- ~~5. The COTED, on the advice of COFAP, may object to a proposed modification within 45 days of receipt of the notification. Where an objection arises, COTED shall set out in writing its reasons therefor. If no such objection is submitted~~

~~within the 45 day period, the COTED shall be deemed to have accepted the modification.~~

- ~~6. Where COTED objects to a modification of coverage and the Member State has implemented the modification, COTED may instruct the withdrawal of substantially equivalent coverage to the modifying Member State from other Member States. Any such withdrawals shall take effect 30 days after the issuance of instructions from the COTED.~~
- ~~7. The following changes to a Member State's coverage shall be considered a rectification:
 - ~~(a) a change in the name of a procuring entity;~~
 - ~~(b) a merger of two or more procuring entities;~~
 - ~~(c) the separation of a procuring entity into two or more procuring entities; or~~
 - ~~(d) any other change that does not reduce the level of coverage.~~~~
- ~~8. In the case of proposed rectifications to a Member State's coverage, the Member State shall notify the COTED and the COFAP once every two years following the entry into force of this Protocol.~~
- ~~9. The COTED, on the advice of COFAP, may object to a proposed rectification within 45 days of receipt of a notification under paragraph 8. Any such objection shall set out, in writing, COTED's reasons for believing that the proposed rectification is not a change provided for in paragraph 7 of this Article. If no such objection is submitted within the 45 day period, the COTED shall be deemed to have agreed to the rectification.~~
- ~~10. Member States shall update relevant schedules and documentation reflecting accepted modifications and rectifications and submit same to the Community, as soon as possible, thereafter.~~

- ~~11. The Community shall promptly disseminate, by way of updated information on the Community Public Procurement Notice Board, established in accordance with Article 36, accepted modifications and rectifications of coverage under this Protocol as set out in relevant schedules and documentation.~~

CONTRACT VALUATION RULES

1. The following provisions shall apply in determining the value of individual public procurement contracts to which this Protocol applies.
2. Valuation shall take into account all forms of remuneration, including any premiums, fees, commissions and interest receivable.
3. Contracting Parties shall ensure that procuring entities do not select valuation methods or divide public procurement into multiple parts with the intention of avoiding the application of this Protocol.
4. Where the procurement is to be conducted in multiple parts, with contracts to be awarded at the same time or over a given period to one or more suppliers, the basis for valuation shall be:
 - (a) where no similar recurring contracts have been concluded over the previous 12 months, the total maximum value of the procurement over its entire duration; or
 - (b) the actual value of similar recurring contracts concluded over the previous 12 months adjusted, where possible, for anticipated changes in quantity and value over the subsequent 12 months; or
 - (c) the estimated value of recurring contracts in the 12 months subsequent to the initial contract.

5. Where the procurement is to be conducted in a single lot and the total price is not known, the basis for estimating the value of the procurement shall be, with respect to:
 - (a) a fixed-term contract where:
 - (i) the term is 12 months or less, the total estimated contract value for the contract's duration; or
 - (ii) the term exceeds 12 months, the total estimated contract value, including the estimated residual value, where applicable; or
 - (b) a contract for an indefinite period, the estimated monthly instalment multiplied by 36.
6. In cases where an intended procurement specifies the need for option clauses, the basis for valuation shall be the total value, inclusive of optional purchases.

ARTICLE 9

RULES OF ORIGIN

Contracting Parties shall apply the existing Community Rules of Origin to public procurement.

ARTICLE 10

PROHIBITION OF OFFSETS

Subject to Article 32 paragraph 2, Contracting Parties shall ensure that procuring entities do not seek to impose offsets against CARICOM suppliers in the:

- (a) qualification and selection of suppliers;

- (b) evaluation of bids; or
- (c) award of contracts.

PART THREE
INFORMATION AND COMMUNICATION TECHNOLOGIES

ARTICLE 11

COMMUNICATION MODALITIES

1. Unless otherwise required by this Protocol, and consistent with the requirements of the procuring entity and the conditions of the market, information dissemination and other communication shall be effected through electronic or paper media.
2. The Community shall promote the use of information technology taking into consideration:
 - (a) the high cost of paper publication;
 - (b) the volume of publication necessary in the operation of a Community public procurement regime;
 - (c) the complexities of intra-regional transport and delivery of documents;
 - (d) time constraints involved in the Community public procurement regime; and
 - (e) regional progress in the use of electronic data processing and telecommunication technologies.

ARTICLE 12

COMMUNITY INFORMATION SYSTEMS

1. The Community shall establish and maintain community information systems comprising traditional and electronic media which shall be accessible by procuring entities and suppliers for the enhancement of the Community regime for public procurement.

2. Among the electronic media to be established pursuant to paragraph 1, the Community shall establish an electronic Community Public Procurement Notice Board, in accordance with article 36, to facilitate participation by CARICOM suppliers in its public procurement regime.
3. The Community shall also establish an appropriate mechanism to promote and facilitate joint bidding by CARICOM suppliers for the award of public procurement contracts.

PART FOUR

PROCUREMENT PROCEEDINGS

ARTICLE 13

COMMUNITY STANDARD BIDDING DOCUMENTS

1. The Community shall:
 - (a) develop Community Standard Bidding Documents, including:
 - (i) standard forms and content of the invitation to bid;
 - (ii) instructions to bidders;
 - (iii) form of bid;
 - (iv) form and conditions of contract; and
 - (v) any necessary appendices, such as formats for bid securities; and

- (b) publish the Community Standard Bidding Documents on the Community Public Procurement Notice Board, established in accordance with Article 36.
- [2. Contracting Parties shall ensure that their procuring entities use the Community Standard Bidding Documents in public procurement to which this Protocol applies.]
3. Contracting Parties may submit requests for modifications and amendments of the Community Standard Bidding Documents to the Permanent Joint Council on Public Procurement (“Permanent Joint Council”), established in accordance with Article 35, for its consideration and approval.
4. The Permanent Joint Council shall be responsible for considering and approving any modifications or amendments to the Community Standard Bidding Documents as well as ensuring the accuracy and currency of such documentation.

ARTICLE 14

BIDDING DOCUMENTS

- ~~1. Procuring entities shall ensure that bidding documents provided to suppliers contain, at a minimum, the following information:-~~
- ~~(a) the name and address of the procuring entity;~~
 - ~~(b) the date, time and place for the submission and opening of bids and for the submission of requests for additional information;~~
 - ~~(c) the procurement method employed;~~
 - ~~(d) the language in which bids and bidding documents should be submitted;~~
 - ~~(e) the bid validity period;~~

- ~~(f) — the purpose of the intended procurement, including the nature and quantity of the goods or services to be procured or the works to be executed and any requirements to be fulfilled, including any technical specifications, conformity certification, plans, drawings or any required instructions;~~
 - ~~(g) — the procuring entity's specific requirements as a condition for a supplier's participation in the procurement, including—~~
 - ~~(i) — bonds or other securities; and~~
 - ~~(ii) — proof of fitness and propriety, legal and financial eligibility and technical and economic or financial competence, where appropriate;~~
 - ~~(h) — all criteria to be considered in the evaluation of bids and the awarding of the contract, including any factors, other than price, that are to be considered in the evaluation of bids, and if applicable, a clear explanation of the formula for weighing the factors used to select bids, as well as the currency for submitting bids and payment;~~
 - ~~(i) — the terms of payment and related terms or conditions;~~
 - ~~(j) — date set to begin and conclude delivery of the goods or works or provision of the services;~~
 - ~~(k) — the place where laws governing the procurement and challenge procedures may be obtained;~~
 - ~~(l) — the model contract to be signed by the supplier, if available;~~
 - ~~(m) — any specifications and execution standards relevant to the bid; and~~
 - ~~(n) — the applicability, as appropriate, of a standstill period.~~
- ~~2. — Procuring entities shall respond promptly to any reasonable request for information relating to the intended procurement, including requests for clarification, on condition that such information is not intended to, nor has the effect of giving any supplier an unfair advantage over its competitors. Such~~

~~information shall be provided to all suppliers who are in receipt of bidding documents, along with a copy of the request for information without identifying the source of such request for information.~~

- ~~3. At any time prior to the deadline for bid submission, a procuring entity may, for any reason, whether on its own initiative or as a result of a request for clarification by a bidder, modify the bidding documents by issuing an addendum which shall be promptly communicated to all bidders to which the procuring entity has provided the bidding documents, and which shall be binding on them.~~
- ~~4. Procuring entities shall afford bidders reasonable time, consistent with the nature, complexity and the date of issuance of modification addenda, and the requirements of Article 19, to take modifications into account in the preparation of original or amended bid submissions.~~

ANNUAL PROCUREMENT PLAN

1. Each Contracting Party shall ensure that every procuring entity publishes an Annual Procurement Plan on the Notice Board as early as possible in every fiscal year.
2. A procuring entity's Annual Procurement Plan shall contain information concerning its intended public procurement to which this Protocol applies for the relevant year, including the subject matter of the intended public procurements together with volumes and values, and the proposed dates or range of dates for the publication of relevant invitations to tender, where such information is available.
3. Procuring entities shall employ their best endeavours to conduct their procurement proceedings in accordance with their Annual Procurement Plans, which shall not be binding on the relevant procuring entities.

ARTICLE 16

PUBLICATION OF PROCUREMENT OPPORTUNITIES

1. Subject to paragraph 3, Contracting Parties shall ensure that procuring entities publish tender notices of procurement opportunities on the Community Public Procurement Notice Board.
2. Contracting Parties shall ensure that procuring entities set out in their tender notices, as a minimum, the information specified in Article 18.
3. Where a method other than open bidding is being employed, nothing in paragraph 1 shall be construed as requiring Contracting Parties to ensure that procuring entities comply with that paragraph.

ARTICLE 17

PROCUREMENT METHODS

1. Subject to the provisions of this Article, Contracting Parties, through procuring entities therein, shall employ the open bidding for public procurements valued at or above the relevant threshold.
2. Notwithstanding paragraph 1, Contracting Parties, through procuring entities therein, may employ procurement methods other than open bidding if –
 - (a) subject to paragraph 3, there is an extremely urgent need for the subject matter of the procurement and an open and competitive method of procurement is impractical because of the time involved in using such a method;

- (b) in relation to a specific procurement opportunity, the procuring entity reasonably decides that only a limited number of suppliers can perform the contract for technical or artistic reasons or reasons connected with the protection of exclusive rights and no reasonable alternative or substitute exists;
- (c) additional goods, services or works which were not included in the initial procurement contract, but which were within the objectives of the original bidding documents have, through unforeseen circumstances, become necessary to satisfactorily complete the procurement, provided that the total value of the contract awarded for additional goods, services or works does not exceed fifty per cent (50%) of the amount of the initial contract;
- (d) goods are purchased on commodity markets or where goods and services are made available under exceptionally advantageous conditions that only arise in the very short term;
- (e) no suitable bids were received in response to an earlier invitation to suppliers to participate in an open bid;
- (f) due to a catastrophic event, there is an extremely urgent need for the subject matter of the procurement, and engaging in open bidding would be impractical because of the time involved in using other methods;
- (g) the procuring entity has –
 - (i) procured from a particular supplier goods, services or works which are, to the procuring entity's satisfaction, effective in meeting the needs of the procuring entity; and
 - (ii) determined the need for additional supplies to be procured from the supplier for reasons of standardisation or compatibility with existing goods, services or works;
- (h) the procurement contract is awarded to the winner of a design or artistic contest;
- (i) the procurement is between procuring entities; or

[(j) the procuring entity has determined that the subject matter of the procurement is of a highly sensitive or confidential nature].

3. [Contracting Parties shall implement measures to penalize a procuring entity that, by its own dilatory conduct, causes the extremely urgent need upon which the use of a procurement method other open bidding is based.]
4. [Contracting Parties shall ensure that where procuring entities employ a procurement method other than open bidding, they select bidders in a non-discriminatory manner so as to maximise competition to the extent practicable.]
5. In establishing procedures for procurement methods, Contracting Parties shall develop appropriate and effective rules and guidelines governing procurement planning, advertising media, e-procurement, security of bids, establishment of bid evaluation committees, regional reporting requirements concerning mechanisms, time-frames and content and fees for bidding documents.

~~ARTICLE 18~~

~~CONTENT OF TENDER NOTICES~~

~~Procuring entities shall ensure that tender notices contain, at a minimum, the following information:-~~

- ~~(a) — the name and address of the procuring entity, including the post of the designated responsible officer;~~
- ~~(b) — a brief description of the required goods, works or services;~~
- ~~(c) — the location for the deliverables;~~
- ~~(d) — qualification requirements;~~
- ~~(e) — the date, time and location from which the bidding documents may be~~

~~collected, the price to be paid for the bidding documents, if any, and the means of payment;~~

~~(f) — the source of funding; and~~

~~(g) — the closing date and time for bids to be submitted and the location and form of submission.~~

ARTICLE 19

TIME LIMITS

1. Contracting Parties shall ensure that all time limits applied to procurement opportunities offered by their procuring entities under this public procurement regime are adequate to allow interested suppliers to prepare and submit bids and, where appropriate, applications for qualification.
2. Contracting Parties shall ensure that procuring entities take into account the complexity of the procurement opportunity, the possibility of publication delays and the implications of cross-border transport of relevant documentation consistent with the procuring entity's own reasonable needs when determining time limits mentioned in paragraph 1.
3. Contracting Parties shall ensure that where procuring entities use open bidding, they shall provide no less than forty (40) calendar days between the date of publication of the bid and the deadline for the submission of bids.
4. Contracting Parties shall ensure that, subject to paragraph 2, where a procuring entity uses a method other than open bidding, it provides a reasonable time limit consistent with the requirements of the procurement and the objectives of this Protocol.

ARTICLE 20

SUBMISSION, RECEIPT AND OPENINGS OF BIDS

1. Contracting Parties shall ensure that procuring entities:
 - (a) require the submission of bids in writing;
 - (b) receive and open bids under conditions and procedures that guarantee transparency, fairness and objectivity; and
 - (c) that receive bids after the closing date and time for submission return the unopened bids to the senders, subject to paragraph 2.
2. Notwithstanding paragraph 1(c), Contracting Parties shall ensure that their legislation permit procuring entities to accept late bids in circumstances where it can be ascertained that the submission of such bids was delayed by force majeure.
3. The Community shall elaborate procedures and conditions that guarantee transparency, fairness and objectivity pursuant to paragraph 1 (b).

ARTICLE 21

EVALUATION OF BIDS AND NOTICE

OF SUCCESSFUL BID

1. Contracting Parties shall ensure that procuring entities evaluate:
 - (a) only bids which, at the time of opening, materially comply with the requirements for participation as described in the bidding documents; and
 - (b) bids fairly and objectively and solely on the basis of the evaluation criteria contained in the relevant bidding documents.

2. Contracting Parties shall ensure that where a bid is abnormally lower in price than other bids submitted, the procuring entity makes the necessary enquiries to satisfy itself that the bidder submitting that bid is capable of fulfilling the terms of the contract.
3. Contracting Parties shall ensure that procuring entities issue a notice of successful bid to the bidder whose bid is determined to be the most advantageous based on the criteria in the bidding documents. A notice of successful bid shall be issued, simultaneously, to all participating bidders.
4. Contracting Parties shall ensure that procuring entities provide reasons for rejecting a bid to the unsuccessful bidder who so requests. Such request must be received by the procuring entity within five (5) working days of notification of the successful bid. The procuring entity shall respond to such requests within ten (10) calendar days of receipt of same.
5. ~~[Subject to paragraph (6), procuring entities may cancel a procurement opportunity.—— ——(a) prior to accepting a successful bid, provided there is no dilatory or irresponsible conduct on the part of the procuring entity; or ——(b) after accepting a successful bid, for justifiable reasons including in the public interest, rejecting all bids where necessary, without incurring liability.]~~
6. Contracting Parties shall ensure that where procuring entities cancel procurement opportunities under paragraph 5, they provide reasons for the cancellation, within a reasonable time, to any supplier who so requests.

ARTICLE 22
NEGOTIATIONS

1. ~~For the purpose of this Protocol, negotiation is a derogation or exceptional means of awarding contracts and should be used only in the specific circumstances set out in the Article.~~
2. ~~Procuring entities that have indicated an intention to negotiate in the invitation to bid may conduct negotiations in one or more of the following circumstances:~~
 - (a) ~~in cases of extreme urgency brought about by unforeseen circumstances;~~
 - (b) ~~where, in the reasonable judgment of a procuring entity, there is only one supplier capable of performing the contract; or~~
 - (c) ~~where it appears from evaluation that no one bid is the most advantageous in terms of the specific evaluation criteria described in the bidding documents.~~
3. ~~Procuring entities shall ensure that negotiations are used primarily to identify the strengths and weaknesses in bids and not to arbitrarily discriminate among bids. In particular, procuring entities shall ensure that:~~
 - (a) ~~any elimination of participants is carried out in accordance with the criteria described in the bidding documents;~~
 - (b) ~~any resulting modifications to the criteria or the technical requirements are communicated, in writing, to all remaining participants in the negotiations; and~~
 - (c) ~~on the basis of the revised requirements or when negotiations are concluded, all remaining participants are afforded an equal opportunity to submit new or amended bids in accordance with a reasonable and common deadline.~~
4. ~~The Community shall ensure the elaboration of rules for conducting negotiations primarily for the purpose referred to in paragraph 2, as may be~~

~~necessary, to ensure that negotiations are not used as an unfair discriminatory tool nor as an artificial barrier to regional market access.~~

ARTICLE 23

PUBLICATION OF NOTICE OF CONTRACT AWARD

1. In the context of public procurement to which this Protocol applies, Contracting Parties shall ensure that when procuring entities select successful bidders, the procuring entities:
 - (a) directly notify all bidders participating in the bid proceedings of the contract award;
 - (b) submit to the Community Contact Point, through an electronic medium, a notice of contract award for publication on the Community Public Procurement Notice Board for general information; and
 - (c) ensure that notifications and submissions done pursuant to sub-paragraphs (a) and (b), respectively, are dispatched within three working days from the date of the contract award decision.
2. The Community shall ensure that such notices of contract award remain posted on the Community Public Procurement Notice Board for at least thirty (30) calendar days following the date of publication.

ARTICLE 24

RECORD OF PROCUREMENT PROCEEDINGS

1. Contracting Parties shall ensure that procuring entities document and maintain records of their procurement proceedings in the manner specified in paragraph 2 of this Article.
2. Without prejudice to the means of retention or storage employed, procuring entities shall ensure that their procurement records contain, at a minimum, the following information and are retained for a minimum period of five years:
 - (a) a brief description of the works, goods or services procured;
 - (b) the names and addresses of the bidders;
 - (c) the procurement method employed;
 - (d) the name and address of the successful bidder employed;
 - (e) the date of contract award;
 - (f) the contract price and actual completion cost;
 - (g) the duration of the contract;
 - (h) information relating to the qualification of bidders;
 - (i) a summary of the evaluation and comparison of bids;
 - (j) the reasons for the rejection of any or all bids;
 - (k) a summary of the requests for clarification or verification of the bid documents and any modifications thereof;
 - (l) information relating to the successful bidder's performance on the contract; and
 - (m) information relating to complaints, resolution decisions and appeals.

ARTICLE 25

CONTRACT ADMINISTRATION

1. Contracting Parties shall employ their best endeavours to ensure that procurement personnel are adequately trained and qualified to administer procurement and contract administration procedures.
2. The Community shall employ, on an ongoing basis, its best endeavours to design regional training programmes and to assist Contracting Parties with the implementation of such programmes.

ARTICLE 26

STATISTICAL REPORTING

1. The Community shall ensure the development, and encourage the use of an electronic database of statistical information and recording in the database of statistical data submitted by Contracting Parties in compliance with reporting requirements under the provisions of the Community public procurement regime.
2. The Community shall ensure access to the database in respect of information contained therein and facilitated by the Community Public Procurement Notice Board.
3. Contracting Parties shall record, compile and store information relating to procurement proceedings and shall submit the information annually to the Community.
4. The Community shall ensure the development of common rules with respect to the maintenance, content and submission of annual reports and their dissemination as required in relation to the Community public procurement regime.

PART FIVE

TRANSPARENCY, FAIRNESS AND SUPPLIER CHALLENGE

ARTICLE 27

TECHNICAL SPECIFICATIONS

1. Contracting Parties shall ensure that procuring entities' use of design and technical specifications in their procurement proceedings is not intended to and does not have the effect of, unfairly limiting competition by directing the award of a contract to a particular supplier.
2. Contracting Parties shall ensure that where procuring entities prescribe technical specifications, such specifications:
 - (a) are included in the bidding documents;
 - (b) are worded in terms of performance, conformance and functional requirements, wherever possible, rather than design or descriptive characteristics;
 - (c) are based on regional standards, where available, or on national standards or internationally recognized standards or codes;
 - (d) do not refer to a particular trademark, patent, copyright, design or type, specific origin, producer or supplier, unless there is no other sufficiently precise or intelligible way of describing the requirements. Where this type of specification is unavoidable, words such as "equivalent" or "similar to" shall be included in the specification.

ARTICLE 28

PRE- QUALIFICATION AND ELIGIBILITY OF SUPPLIERS

1. Contracting Parties shall ensure that:
 - (a) any conditions for participation in a procurement opportunity that a procuring entity requires of an interested supplier are limited to conditions [essential] [necessary to ensuring that the supplier possesses the capabilities to fulfil the requirements of the procurement and the ability to execute the corresponding contract;
 - (b) procuring entities do not discriminate between national and non-national suppliers when identifying suppliers who are qualified to participate in a procurement opportunity;
 - (c) procuring entities' decisions regarding the qualifications of suppliers are based solely on the conditions for participation specified in the bidding documents;
 - (d) where a supplier is rejected on the basis of qualifications, the procuring entity, at the request of the supplier, communicates to the supplier the reasons for its decision within a reasonable time.
2. Nothing in this Protocol shall prevent a procuring entity from disqualifying a supplier from a procurement opportunity on grounds of unfair competitive advantage, conflict of interest, bankruptcy, false declarations or conviction for criminal offences.
3. Contracting Parties shall ensure that procuring entities do not, as a prerequisite for award of a contract, impose artificial constraints that serve to limit procurement opportunities, such as conditions that require previous awards of contracts by the procuring entity or prior work experience in the territory of the procuring entity.
4. The Community shall ensure the elaboration of common rules for the disqualification of suppliers mentioned in paragraph 2.
5. The Community shall ensure the elaboration of a set of common rules and minimum standards for the use of procuring entities in their assessments of a supplier's eligibility to participate in procurement proceedings.

ARTICLE 29

LIMITATION ON DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION

Contracting Parties shall ensure that unless ordered to do so by a court of competent jurisdiction, and subject to the conditions of such an order, procuring entities do not disclose information:

- (a) that prejudices legitimate commercial interests of bidders or inhibits fair competition; or
- (b) relating to the examination, evaluation and comparison of bids, other than the summary required by Article 24 (2)(i).

ARTICLE 30

ANTI-CORRUPTION AND CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

1. Contracting Parties shall create legal and administrative frameworks which require the procurement personnel in procuring entities to:
 - (a) discharge their duties impartially so as to ensure that responsible and qualified suppliers have fair and competitive access to procurement opportunities to which this Protocol applies; and
 - (b) conduct themselves in such a manner as to foster public confidence in the integrity of the Community Public Procurement regime.
2. Notwithstanding the generality of paragraph 1, the legal and administrative frameworks shall require procurement personnel to:

- (a) abstain from attempting to realize personal gain from public office by conduct inconsistent with the proper discharge of duties;
 - (b) avoid direct or indirect involvement in public procurement proceedings where:
 - (i) the officer or any member of his immediate family has a financial interest pertaining to the procurement;
 - (ii) a business or organization in which the officer or any member of his immediate family has a financial interest pertaining to the procurement; or
 - (iii) any other person, business or organisation with whom the officer or any member of his immediate family is negotiating or has an arrangement concerning prospective employment is involved in the procurement; and
 - (c) abstain from soliciting or accepting from a supplier a gratuity or offer of employment in connection with any decision, approval, disapproval, recommendation, preparation of any part of a procurement, influencing the content of any specification, rendering of advice, investigation, auditing or in any other advisory capacity in any proceeding or application, request for ruling, determination, claim or controversy or other particular matter pertaining to any public procurement contract, sub-contract or activity;
 - (d) abstain from using confidential information for actual or anticipated personal gain or for actual or anticipated gain of any person.
3. Contracting Parties shall ensure that where an officer is involved in or about to become involved in public procurement proceedings under any of the circumstances referred to in paragraph 2 (b), the officer immediately declares his interest, in writing, and recuses himself from the procurement proceedings.

ARTICLE []

NORMS AND STANDARDS

The Community shall develop and adopt norms and standards to be complied with by Contracting Parties' procurement personnel as well as by suppliers and bidders to be included in the Community public procurement regime for the implementation and enforcement by all Contracting Parties. Non-compliance with these norms and standards shall be subject to the laws of the Contracting Party where the non-compliance occurred.

ARTICLE []

PROTECTION OF ACTS DONE IN GOOD FAITH

1. No suit, prosecution or other legal proceedings shall lie against the Government of a Contracting Party, any officer of the Government or any other person exercising any power or performing any duty under this Protocol in respect of anything which, in good faith, is done, intended to be done or omitted in pursuance of this Protocol or any rules or orders made thereunder, or in respect of any publication by or under the authority of the Government, such officer or such other person of any report, paper or proceedings.
2. No suit or their legal proceedings shall lie against a person referred to in paragraph 5 or the Government of a Contracting Party for any damage, loss or injury caused or likely to be caused by anything which, in good faith, is done, intended to be done or omitted in pursuance of this Act or any rule or order made thereunder.

ARTICLE 31

SUPPLIER CHALLENGE AND REVIEW

1. The Community shall ensure the development of common non-discriminatory, timely, transparent and effective challenge and review procedures.
2. Contracting Parties shall provide for the independent hearing and consideration of supplier challenges. Such hearings may be at the administrative or judicial levels. When an authority other than a court hears a supplier challenge, the supplier's right to seek judicial review shall not be prejudiced.
3. Contracting Parties shall ensure that the exercise of a supplier's right to challenge and seek review of the procurement decisions of their procuring entities does not prejudice that supplier's participation in ongoing or future procurement opportunities within the Contracting Party to which the procuring entity belongs.

[PART SIX

TEMPORARY MEASURES AND INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT

ARTICLE 32

TEMPORARY RESTRICTIONS AND SAFEGUARDS

1. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 4 (2) and subject to paragraphs 3 and 4, where the exercise of rights granted by the provisions of this Protocol creates serious difficulties in any sector of the economy of a Contracting Party or occasions economic hardships in a region of a Contracting Party, the adversely affected Contracting Party may, subject to the provisions of the said Article, apply such restrictions or temporary safeguards on the exercise of rights as it considers appropriate in order to resolve the difficulties or alleviate the hardships.

2. Restrictions or temporary safeguards that may be applied pursuant to paragraph 1, may include one or more of the following:
 - (a) offsets, including price preferences for domestic suppliers, counter-trade measures or specific requirements for local labour or materials content in the goods or services being procured;
 - (b) higher thresholds, thereby allowing for a larger exclusion of the domestic market from the regional market; or
 - (c) sectoral or other exclusions from the general coverage.
3. Where a Contracting Party intends to apply temporary safeguards or restrictions pursuant to paragraph 1, the Contracting Party, shall prior to applying such temporary safeguards or restrictions, notify the COTED about the nature of the temporary safeguards or restrictions.
4. Where a Contracting Party is unable to notify the COTED of the application of temporary safeguards or restrictions prior to their application, the Contracting Party shall, immediately after their application, notify the COTED of the nature of such temporary safeguards or restrictions and submit to the COTED a programme detailing the measures to be taken in order to resolve the difficulties or alleviate the hardships.
5. The COTED shall give its earliest consideration to the intended or actual application of temporary safeguards or restrictions as outlined in paragraphs 3 and 4, and:

- (a) shall make a determination about the appropriateness of the temporary safeguards or restrictions and whether they shall be applied or continue to apply, as the case may be;
 - (b) shall, where it decides that the temporary safeguards or restrictions shall be applied or continued, determine:
 - (i) the adequacy of the programme; and
 - (ii) the period for which the temporary safeguards or restrictions shall continue; and
 - (c) may, in making a determination under sub-paragraph (b), impose such conditions as it considers necessary.
- 6. Temporary safeguards or restrictions applied by Contracting Parties shall be confined to those necessary to:
 - (a) resolve the difficulties in the affected sectors; or
 - (b) alleviate economic hardships in a particular region.
- 7. In applying temporary safeguards or restrictions mentioned in this Article, a Contracting Party shall:
 - (a) minimize damage to the commercial or economic interests of other Contracting Parties;
 - (b) prevent the unreasonable exercise of rights granted by the Community Public Procurement regime, the execution of which may impair the development of the CSME; and
 - (c) not discriminate among the Contracting Parties and shall progressively relax the temporary safeguards and restrictions as relevant conditions improve or maintain them only to the extent that conditions mentioned in paragraph 1 of this Article continue to justify their application.
- 8. Where the COTED is not satisfied that a Contracting Party is acting in accordance with paragraphs 6 and 7 of this Article it may recommend to the Contracting Parties adversely affected thereby, alternative arrangements to the same end.

ARTICLE 33

TECHNICAL COOPERATION AND ASSISTANCE

1. At the request of any disadvantaged country, region, sector or less developed country, the COTED shall provide technical cooperation and assistance for the purpose of enabling any such disadvantaged or less developed country, region or sector to participate in the Community Public Procurement regime and to discharge relevant responsibilities thereunder.
2. The mode, scope and extent of such technical cooperation and assistance shall be agreed between the relevant Contracting Parties and notified to the Permanent Joint Council on Public Procurement.

ARTICLE 34

PROMOTION OF INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT

1. Upon application made in that behalf by a disadvantaged country, region or sector or a less developed country, the COTED may, if necessary, as a temporary measure in order to promote development of an industry in any of these countries, regions or sectors authorise the suspension of the application of this Protocol in whole or in part, regarding the industry in relation to which the application is made.
2. The COTED may, in taking decisions pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Article, establish terms and conditions including a phasing-out period during which Contracting Parties and the Community shall provide support measures and the industry shall implement the necessary programmes for achieving competitiveness.

3. The grant of authorisation pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Article shall be by means of a decision supported by the affirmative votes of all the less developed countries and at least two of the more developed countries.]

PART SEVEN

INSTITUTIONAL ARRANGEMENTS

ARTICLE 35

THE PERMANENT JOINT COUNCIL ON PUBLIC PROCUREMENT

1. The Community shall establish the Permanent Joint Council on Public Procurement (Permanent Joint Council) before this Protocol enters into force.
2. At its first meeting, the Permanent Joint Council shall establish its rules of procedure which shall address, inter alia, the election and terms of office of its officials.
3. The Permanent Joint Council shall:
 - (a) be constituted as a Body of the Community consistent with Article 18 of the Revised Treaty;
 - (b) be comprised of Ministers of the COTED and the COFAP which may delegate authority to officials of those Bodies to take decisions in accordance with this Article; and

- (c) report to the Community Council on decisions and actions taken in relation to the operation of this Protocol.
4. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing paragraph, the Permanent Joint Council shall:
- (a) oversee the implementation of the Community Policy on Public Procurement and compliance with the provisions of this Protocol;
 - (b) have responsibility for the long-term monitoring of the Community public procurement regime with the assistance of the Caribbean Community Secretariat and shall draw the attention of the Community Council of Ministers to persistent breaches of this Protocol;
 - (c) review and report on the Community public procurement regime every two years, the report on which shall be made available to Contracting Parties at the earliest opportunity after completion of such review and shall include a report on the application of any provisions pursuant to Part Six of this Protocol and Chapter 7 of the Revised Treaty. The purpose of such a report shall be for the Community to adopt and take action, as necessary, designed to enhance the effectiveness of the Community public procurement regime;
 - (d) notwithstanding sub-paragraph (c), convene, as necessary, to examine and evaluate the operation of the Community public procurement regime and progress in achieving its objectives, including the performance of the periodic reviews in respect of the disadvantaged or less developed countries, sectors and regions referred to in Part Six;
 - (e) in its decision-making processes promote, as far as practicable, the use of electronic communications in light of the reasonableness of cost, scope and ease of access;
 - (f) coordinate the development of a Community database of government public statistical information and make decisions relative to the accessibility of the information it contains;

- (g) coordinate and promote the design of training programmes, as necessary, to support the implementation processes at the Community level and in Contracting Parties; and
 - (h) coordinate, as necessary, the requests and provision of technical cooperation and assistance referred to in Part Six of this Protocol.
- 5. The Permanent Joint Council shall establish, as it considers necessary, ad hoc Working Groups comprised of trade and public procurement officials to assist in the discharge of its responsibilities detailed in this Protocol.
- 6. ~~Nothing in this Article shall be construed as precluding any person aggrieved under this Protocol from espousing a claim in the municipal jurisdiction of a Contracting Party or the original jurisdiction of the Caribbean Court of Justice (CCJ), as the case may be.~~

COMMUNITY PUBLIC PROCUREMENT

NOTICE BOARD

- 1. The Community shall:
 - (a) establish a Community Public Procurement Notice Board before this Protocol enters into force, which shall be accessible to all interested stakeholders; and
 - (b) be responsible for maintaining the Community Public Procurement Notice Board.
- 2. For the purpose of facilitating the implementation of the Community Public Procurement Regime, Contracting Parties and the Community shall use the Community Public Procurement Notice Board to discharge the obligations set out in this Protocol, relating, inter alia, to:
 - (a) supplier exchange of information to facilitate joint bidding activities;

- (b) publication of the following:
 - (i) annual procurement plans;
