

OAS-COE WORKSHOP ON Cybercrime Legislation
3-5 September 2008
Bogotá, Colombia

The aim of the workshop is to support countries of the Americas to strengthen of their legislation against cybercrime in accordance with international standards and in particular the Convention on Cybercrime.

AGENDA

Wednesday, 3 September, 2008
8:30 – 9:00	Arrival and registration
PLENARY SESSION
9:00 – 9:30	1. Opening session
9:30 – 10:30	2. The threat of cybercrime Overview of cybercrime threats and trends, and the issues to be addressed through cybercrime legislation
10:30 – 11:00	Break
PLENARY SESSION
11:00 – 12:30	3. International standards and national legislation Introduction to the Convention on Cybercrime; examples of how countries have implemented it into national law
12:30 – 14:00	Lunch break
PLENARY SESSION
14:00 – 14:45	4. The OAS-REMJA Working Group on Cybercrime Report on the Group's meeting and its work strengthening hemispheric cooperation in combating cybercrime
14:45 – 15:45	5. Cybercrime legislation in the Americas - Senator Eduardo Azeredo of Brazil discusses Brazil's legislative initiatives to address crimes involving computers and the Internet.
15:45 – 16:45	-Participants provide a short overview of the current situation regarding cybercrime legislation in their countries
16:45 – 17:00	Break
PLENARY SESSION
17:00 – 17:30	6. Introduction to the workshops Workshop topics, organisation, working methods, expected results.

Thursday, 4 September, 2008
	WORKSHOP SESSIONS
8:30 – 9:30	7. Workshop sessions on definitions in criminal law Countries divide into working groups; groups discuss definitions in criminal law: “computer systems”, “traffic data”, “service provider”, and others
9:30 – 12:30	8. Workshop sessions on substantive criminal law Based on draft country profiles, working groups discuss substantive criminal law provisions: how countries criminalise illegal access to computer systems, data and system interference, child pornography, computer-related fraud and other conduct
12:30 – 14:00	Lunch break
	WORKSHOP SESSIONS
14:00 – 17:30	9. Workshop sessions on procedural law Based on draft country profiles, working groups discuss procedural law: how countries regulate search and seizure of computer data, expedited preservation of data, production orders, interception of traffic or content data and other investigative activities
Friday, 5 September, 2008
	WORK WITHIN COUNTRY DELEGATIONS
8:30 – 10:00	10. Update of country profiles Participants update the legislative profile of their respective countries including comments on provisions where further work is required, and prepare recommendations on further steps to be taken
10:00 – 10:30	Break
	PLENARY SESSION
10:30 – 11:30	11. Presentation of recommendations Participants provide a summary of their analyses concerning cybercrime legislation in and their proposals regarding further steps to be taken their respective countries
11:30 – 12:30	12. Conclusions
12:30	End of workshop