

OEA/Ser.D/V.20/83
September 26, 1983
Original: English

Limited distribution

AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE GENERAL SECRETARIAT OF THE ORGANIZATION
OF AMERICAN STATES AND THE GOVERNMENT OF SAINT LUCIA ON THE FUNCTIONING OF THE OFFICE OF THE GENERAL SECRETARIAT
OF THE ORGANIZATION OF AMERICAN STATES AND RECOGNITION
OF ITS PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES

(Signed in Washington, D.C. on the 26th of September, 1983)

ORGANIZATION OF AMERICAN STATES
WASHINGTON, D. C.

GENERAL SECRETARIAT

AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE GENERAL SECRETARIAT OF THE ORGANIZATION
OF AMERICAN STATES AND THE GOVERNMENT OF SAINT LUCIA ON
THE FUNCTIONING OF THE OFFICE OF THE GENERAL SECRETARIAT OF
THE ORGANIZATION OF AMERICAN STATES AND RECOGNITION
OF ITS PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES

GENERAL SECRETARIAT

AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE GENERAL SECRETARIAT OF THE ORGANIZATION
OF AMERICAN STATES AND THE GOVERNMENT OF SAINT LUCIA ON
THE FUNCTIONING OF THE OFFICE OF THE GENERAL SECRETARIAT OF
THE ORGANIZATION OF AMERICAN STATES AND RECOGNITION
OF ITS PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES

WHEREAS:

On May 22, 1979, the Government of Saint Lucia deposited the instrument of ratification of the Charter of the Organization of American States, signed in Bogotá on April 30, 1948, and that on same date, it deposited the instrument of ratification of the Protocol of Buenos Aires, signed in that city on February 27, 1967;

In its resolution of June 03, 1953, the Council of the Organization of American States authorized the Secretary General to establish offices of the General Secretariat of the Organization of American States in the various Member States;

Article 119 of the Charter of the Organization of American States, as amended by the Protocol of Buenos Aires, signed on February 27, 1967, at the Third Special Inter-American Conference, states that

" The Secretary General shall:

- a) Establish such offices of the General Secretariat as are necessary to accomplish its purposes; and
- b) Determine the number of officers and employees of the General Secretariat, appoint them, regulate their powers and duties, and fix their remuneration.

The Secretary General shall exercise this authority in accordance with such general standards and budgetary provisions as may be established by the General Assembly";

The Office of the General Secretariat of the Organization of American States in Saint Lucia was established in April 1980, with the consent of the Government of Saint Lucia, and has been actively functioning since that time;

The Government of Saint Lucia has cooperated to its fullest with the Office of the General Secretariat of the Organization of American States in Saint Lucia and on several occasions has offered to increase this cooperation as appropriate;

ORGANIZATION OF AMERICAN STATES

WASHINGTON, D. C.

L SECRETARIAT

Article 139 of the Charter of the Organization of American States provides that the Organization "shall enjoy in the territory of each member state such legal capacity, privileges and immunities as are necessary for the exercise of its functions and the accomplishment of its purposes";

Consequently, it is necessary to conclude a formal agreement for the purpose of defining the forms of cooperation between the parties and to determine the terms, facilities, prerogatives and immunities that the Government of Saint Lucia will accord to the General Secretariat of the Organization of American States in connection with functioning of the aforementioned office;

THEREFORE:

The General Secretariat of the Organization of American States, hereinafter called "The General Secretariat", represented by the Secretary General of the Organization, Dr. Alejandro Orfila, and the Government of Saint Lucia, hereinafter called "The Government", represented by the Hon. John G. M. Compton, Prime Minister and Minister of Home Affairs, Finance, Planning and Foreign Affairs of Saint Lucia.

AGREE TO THE FOLLOWING:

I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1 - Definitions: For the purpose of this agreement:

The term "the Organization" means the Organization of American States.

The term "General Secretariat" means the General Secretariat of the Organization of American States.

The term "Secretary General" means the Secretary General of the Organization.

The term "the Office" means the Office of the General Secretariat of the Organization in the country.

The term "the country" means Saint Lucia.

The term "the member states" means the states that are members of the Organization.

The term "the competent authorities" means the authorities of Saint Lucia, in accordance with its laws.

The term "Government" means the Government of Saint Lucia.

The term "the Foreign Ministry" means the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Saint Lucia.

ORGANIZATION OF AMERICAN STATES

WASHINGTON, D. C.

GENERAL SECRETARIAT

The term "property" includes real property, furniture, vehicles and means of transportation, working equipment and materials, rights of any nature, funds in any currency, gold and foreign exchange, assets, income and donations, operations and other resources, and, in general, anything that may constitute the property of a natural or juridical person.

The term "headquarters" includes all the branches and offices of the Office.

The term "archives" comprises the correspondence, manuscripts, books, documents, and other library material, photographs, files, sound recordings, and all audiovisual documents and materials of any nature owned by the Office or in its possession.

The term "Director" means the designated Representative of the Secretary General of the Organization of American States in Saint Lucia.

The term "personnel of the Office" includes all staff members of the Office of any level and rank, including administrative and service personnel, regardless of the nationality.

The term "personnel of the General Secretariat" includes all the staff members of the General Secretariat of whatever level and rank, including the administrative and service personnel, regardless of nationality and country or place in which they are working, staff members of any level and rank of the specialized organizations of the Organization, and the technicians, experts and consultants of the Organization or of the centers or entities that are agencies of it.

The term "officials on mission" means any member of the international staff of the General Secretariat, including personnel under contract by the General Secretariat, assigned to perform their duties in Saint Lucia for periods of no less than six months.

The term "members of the family" includes the dependent relatives by consanguinity or affinity of the personnel of the Office and of the General Secretariat, whatever their grade, in accordance with the legal provisions in force in the country.

The term "payment" includes all taxes, rates and special assessments and any other charges and fees of the same or similar nature provided for in the legislation of Saint Lucia, however they may be called.

The term "tax" means a payment charged due to a situation independent of any state activity related to the payer.

The expression "rate" describes a payment charged for actual or potential individualized public services furnished to the payer, with the proceeds earmarked only for the service for which the obligation is budgeted. Payment received from the user for services not inherent to the state is not a rate.

The expression "special assessment" is a payment charged for benefits stemming from public works or state activities which is earmarked only to finance works or activities for which the obligation is budgeted.

- 4 -

ORGANIZATION OF AMERICAN STATES

WASHINGTON, D. C.

AL SECRETARIAT

The expression "assessment for improvement" means the assessment made to pay the cost of a public work that causes real property to appreciate and whose overall limit is the expenditure made and whose individual limit is the increase in the value of the real property benefited.

The term "social security tax" describes the payment made by employers and workers who are members of the groups benefited and is intended to finance the welfare service.

The term "shipments" means the equipment, goods and merchandise shipped abroad by any means and intended for the Organization, the General Secretariat or the Office.

Article 2 - Legal Status and Capacity of the International Organization: In accordance with the Charter of the Organization, the Government recognizes to the Organization, the General Secretariat, and the Office:

1. Full legal status in the territory of the country and, consequently, the capacity to acquire rights and undertake obligations and, in particular, to contract for, dispose of, or encumber for any cause, furniture and real estate and rights; to institute legal and administrative proceedings and, in general, to execute all legal acts or business inherent to the performance of their duties.

2. Independence and freedom of action appropriate to international organizations, in accordance with international custom and the customs of the place, without prejudice to the provisions of the other articles of this Agreement.

II. RECOGNITION, FUNCTIONS, REPRESENTATION AND OBJECTIVES OF THE OFFICE

Article 3 - Recognition and Functions: In accordance with the Charter of the Organization, the Government recognizes the Office that the General Secretariat has had established in Caracas since April 1980, which, as part of the General Secretariat, shall perform in the country the duties assigned to it by the Secretary General.

Article 4 - Representation: The Office shall be directed by a Director, who shall be its legal representative by delegation of the Secretary General.

Article 5 - Objectives: The Office shall have as its principal objectives:

ORGANIZATION OF AMERICAN STATES

WASHINGTON, D. C.

GENERAL SECRETARIAT

1. To represent the General Secretariat before the competent authorities and in all acts related to the functions of the Office and of the General Secretariat in Saint Lucia.
2. To serve as a center to promote, supervise and coordinate all the activities and operations of the General Secretariat in Saint Lucia.
3. To develop exchange of information and experience and promote coordination with other international organizations and also with the other organs, agencies, and entities of the Inter-American system.
4. To disseminate the programs and activities of the Organization and supervise the public information activities of the General Secretariat in Saint Lucia.
5. To inform the national public on the principles, purposes and objectives of the Organization.
6. To sponsor knowledge of the art and culture of the peoples of the Americas, through the promotion and exchange with countries of the Americas of exhibits, lectures and other manifestations of artistic and intellectual endeavour.
7. To represent the General Secretariat or to serve as an observer for the Secretariat at any seminars and lectures held in Saint Lucia to which it may be invited, when so designated by the General Secretariat.
8. To give priority in its activities to the rendering of direct services of technical cooperation of the Organization in Saint Lucia, to support the national economic, social, educational, scientific, technological and cultural development effort.
9. To collaborate with the fellowship, professorship and the extra-continental training programs.
10. To cooperate in the printing, promotion and distribution of the publications of the General Secretariat.

III. FINANCING OF THE OFFICE

Article 6 - Budget of the Organization: For the maintenance of the Office in the country, the General Secretariat shall allocate the amount approved for this purpose in the program-budget of the Organization and also other funds allocated to it according to the activities that the General Secretariat decides to undertake through the facilities of the Office, taking into account the country's relatively-lesser-development. The Office shall be an integral part of the Organization of American States.

ORGANIZATION OF AMERICAN STATES

WASHINGTON, D. C.

GENERAL SECRETARIAT

Article 7 - National Contribution: The Government shall make an annual contribution in national currency to the General Secretariat for the exclusive use of the Office, as a means of contributing to the achievement of the objectives of the Office and helping to increase and improve the services rendered by it to the country. The parties, by mutual agreement, and once the country overcomes its present economic crisis, shall set the initial amount of that contribution, which shall be adjusted each year, according to information on the rise in living costs during the preceding year.

IV. PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES

A. INSTITUTIONAL

Article 8 - Privileges and Immunities in General: The Government recognizes that the Office, the General Secretariat, and the Organization shall enjoy in the territory of the country:

1. In accordance with the provisions of Article 139 of the Charter of the Organization, such privileges and immunities as are necessary for the exercise of its functions and the accomplishment of its purposes, as an international organization.

2. The immunities, privileges, exemptions, and postage-free facilities set forth in the Agreement on Privileges and Immunities of the Organization of American States, open to signature on May 15, 1949.

Article 9 - Immunity from Jurisdiction: The Office, the General Secretariat and the Organization, and also its property, premises, means of transportation, files, and shipments shall enjoy immunity in the country against judicial and administrative procedure, being immune from search, seizure, requisition, attachment or any other measure of execution, except in particular cases in which that immunity is expressly waived by the Director of the Office, duly authorized to do so by the Secretary General.

The effects of the waiver shall not extend to measures of execution affecting the property, premises, files and shipments of the Office, the General Secretariat, or the Organization, which shall require another, express waiver.

Article 10 - Inviolability: The premises, property, files, correspondence and shipments of the Office, the General Secretariat and the Organization shall be inviolable within the territory of the country, wherever located and by whomsoever held; and they shall be immune from search, requisition, inspection, seizure, and from any other form of interference, whether of an executive, administrative, judicial, or legislative nature. The consent of the Director of the Office shall be required for agents of the State to be permitted to enter the headquarters of the Office.

ORGANIZATION OF AMERICAN STATES
WASHINGTON, D. C.

GENERAL SECRETARIAT

Article 11 - Monetary and Foreign Exchange Restrictions: In accordance with Article 6 of the Agreement on Privileges and Immunities of the Organization of American States, the Office, the General Secretariat and the Organization may, without the restriction of financial decrees, regulations, or moratoria of any kind:

1. Hold funds, gold or currency of any kind and operate accounts in any currency;
2. Transfer their funds, gold or currency of any kind within or outside of the country; and
3. Convert any currency held by them into any other currency. In the exercise of these privileges, the General Secretariat shall give due attention to any objection made by the Government, to the extent that it considers that such an objection may be taken into account without detriment to the interests of the Office, the General Secretariat, and the Organization.

Article 12 - Taxes: The Office, the General Secretariat, and the Organization shall have the following tax privileges:

1. Total exemption from payment and charges with respect to national or municipal taxes on transfers with respect to:
 - (a) To import into national territory merchandise for their use or consumption or for that of projects of cooperation for development that they execute in whole or in part in the country, or in whose execution they participate.
 - (b) To export from national territory for their use or consumption or for that of projects of cooperation for development that they execute in whole or in part in the country, or in whose execution they participate.
 - (c) To buy, sell, or conduct other equivalent operations with respect to merchandise for their use or consumption, or that have been in use or consumption for projects of cooperation for development that they execute in whole or in part in the country, or in whose execution they participate.
 - (d) To render and receive services of any class, including national and international air, sea and land passages.
 - (e) To hold, purchase, or use real property and hold, register and drive vehicles of any kind for the execution of their activities or those projects of cooperation for development that they execute in the country, or in whose execution they participate.
 - (f) Insurance policies.
 - (g) Bank transactions, including loans.

ORGANIZATION OF AMERICAN STATES
WASHINGTON, D. C.

GENERAL SECRETARIAT

(h) Lodging in hotels for people that are under the account of the Office, the General Secretariat or the Organization.

(i) Licences for vehicles to which special corresponding international organizations' licence plate shall be assigned.

(j) The construction of buildings within its premises, including construction licence or similar assessments.

(k) To obtain income, rents, contributions, funds, donations and loans for the purposes set forth in the Charter.

(l) To implement all kinds of agreements, conventions, acts, contracts, documents, actions, petitions and briefs with any type of persons or before any national or foreign authorities.

2. Regarding rates:

(a) Franking privileges for local telegraph service and postal service for correspondence, including printed matter and parcels, in accordance with Article 142 of the Charter of the Organization.

(b) Same rates as applied to the Government for water, light, telephone, telex, cable, telegram and mail services.

3. Total exemption from improvement, social security, or any other type of special taxes. Consequently, the personnel of the Office and of the General Secretariat shall be protected under the employment systems and social welfare regulations of the Organization, and it shall not be mandatory for the General Secretariat to affiliate its personnel with the national social security and welfare systems. Notwithstanding, the General Secretariat may make arrangements with national social security and welfare institutions for its personnel, when it deems this advisable.

4. Whenever the Office, the General Secretariat or the Organization have paid the respective taxes, assessments or services from which they are exempt by this Agreement, the Government shall take the necessary steps for refunding the sums paid for such concepts.

5. The Office, the General Secretariat and the Organization shall be exempt from all obligations related to the retention or collection of any tax or assessment.

Article 13 - Withholding and Declarations: The Office, the General Secretariat and the Organization shall be exempt from having to withhold or collect any tax and/or present declarations in this respect.

ORGANIZATION OF AMERICAN STATES
WASHINGTON, D. C.

GENERAL SECRETARIAT

Article 14 - Communications: The Office, the General Secretariat and the Organization shall have the benefit of the following for its national and international official communications in the territory of the country:

(a) Facilities no less favourable than those granted by the Government to any international organization with respect to priorities, tariffs and franking privileges on cables, telegrams, radiograms, telexes, telephone, telephotos and other communications.

(b) The right to use codes or keys and to send and receive their correspondence by courier or in sealed pouches, enjoying for this purpose the same privileges and immunities as those granted for diplomatic mail, couriers or pouches.

(c) The right to be free of all restrictions in their correspondence or other official communications.

Article 15 - Travel Document: The Government recognizes the "Official Travel Document" issued by the General Secretariat as a valid and sufficient document for national and international travel of the staff members of the Office, the General Secretariat, or the Organization within or outside of the country. This document requires no visa for its holder to enter into the country and remain there until the conclusion of his mission or service in the country. Family members of the holder of the "Official Travel Document" not included therein shall be given official visas in their national passport to permit them to enter the country and to remain therein. These visas shall be issued without delay, for no fixed time, and shall not require the presence of the family members in the diplomatic or consular mission of the country, or payment of any fee. The same provision shall apply to personnel of the General Secretariat or of the Organization, and to members of their families, who, because of the short duration of the mission, do not have the "Official Travel Document" and must enter the country with passports issued by their countries of origin. The Government shall take the appropriate measures for these cases.

The Government and the Organization shall take the necessary steps to accomplish the requirements set forth in this Article; in cases such as conferences and meetings when large groups of officials need to travel to Saint Lucia, these requirements shall be waived by the Government after prior consultation.

Article 16 - Fares: Because their goal is to provide service, staff members of the Office, the General Secretariat, or the Organization taking national or international trips on official mission, and also OAS fellowship students and individuals invited by the Organization to participate in contests or special events, shall not be required to pay entry and embarkation taxes at ports and airports. These provisions also apply to family members of the staff and of the fellowship students of the Organization.

ORGANIZATION OF AMERICAN STATES
WASHINGTON, D. C.

GENERAL SECRETARIAT

B. PERSONNEL

Article 17 - General: Staff members of the Office of the General Secretariat:

1. Shall have the status of international officers serving an international organization, in accordance with Article 124 of the Charter, and shall be selected, contracted and appointed by the Secretary General, in accordance with the provisions of Article 119 of the Charter.

2. In their position as officers of an international organization:

(a) They shall enjoy immunity from personal arrest, detention, administrative and judicial proceedings in connection with the official acts and deeds that they execute and in respect of words spoken or written by them in the performance of their duties and even after these have concluded, without prejudice to the Secretary General's power to waive that immunity in cases in which he considers this necessary.

(b) They shall be treated with due respect and the Government shall grant the maximum protection and take all appropriate steps to prevent any attack on their person, freedom or dignity.

(c) They shall be exempt from taxes of all kinds on their salaries, benefits and other remunerations received from the Office and from the General Secretariat, and be given ample liberty for the transfer of funds and for the negotiation in any place and form, of foreign exchange, cheques, foreign coins and bills, received as payment and benefits for their services, including their retirement pensions and indemnities and other payments for retirement or separation, not being subject to limitations, official rate exchange, restrictions or measures of inspection or control established for the matter.

(d) They shall be provided with an official identification document issued by the Foreign Ministry.

Article 18 - Foreign Staff Members: Staff members of the Office, the General Secretariat, and the Organization, and members of their families, not nationals of the country, shall, in addition and on continuous basis, enjoy the following privileges, immunities, benefits and facilities:

1. Inviolability of their baggage, personal effects, papers and documents.

2. Exemption from compulsory national service.

ORGANIZATION OF AMERICAN STATES
WASHINGTON, D. C.

GENERAL SECRETARIAT

3. The same repatriation facilities as those accorded to diplomatic agents in time of international crisis.

4. The usual facilities and courtesies comparable with the laws on nationality and immigration in force in the country; and freedom to enter, leave and travel in national territory with no other requirement or document than the "Official Travel Document" issued by the Organization.

5. The private residence of Officials of the Office shall enjoy the same inviolability and protection as the premises of the Office.

6. Full exemption from the following taxes:

(a) On importation or introduction into the country of baggage, furniture, household effects and equipment, and merchandise and articles for family use or consumption upon their entry into the country as part of the family's installation therein.

(b) On the importation or introduction into the country of baggage, furniture, household effects and equipment, vehicles, and merchandise and articles for personal or family use or consumption during the period of official stay in and up to three months after final departure from the country. Vehicles shall be restricted to one automobile for each member of the staff and his spouse every two years, or to some other vehicle for personal use of the member of the staff and his family.

(c) On export of baggage, furniture, personal effects, household equipment, merchandise, articles and vehicles for personal or family use, owned by a member of the staff, at the close of his mission or service and up to six months after his final departure from the country.

(d) On transfer of his automobiles or other vehicles for personal use, under the terms and conditions established by legislation in force. Notwithstanding, the transfer shall be exempt from such terms and conditions with respect to automobiles or other vehicles for personal use that:

i. Belonged to staff members who died while carrying out their mission or service;

ii. Occurred because of the official transfer of the staff member to another country, or country of repatriation, if he has served in the country for one year or more.

Article 19 - Customary Courtesies: When they visit the country on official mission, the Secretary and the Assistant Secretary General of the Organization, the Executive Secretaries, Assistant Secretaries, and other high officials of the General Secretariat of the Organization shall enjoy the facilities appropriate to their position and station, in accordance with international custom.

ORGANIZATION OF AMERICAN STATES

WASHINGTON, D. C.

GENERAL SECRETARIAT

Article 20 - Fellowship Students of the Organization: Fellowship students designated by the Organization to receive training or do research in the country or abroad shall have the following benefits:

1. Exemption from any payments on the living allowance received from the Organization, including taxes, rates, or assessments, or any other contributions, charges or fees, howsoever they may be called.
2. For foreign fellowship students, their spouses and dependents, exemption from any obligation to register as aliens.
3. Official visas, free of charge, in the passports of foreign fellowship students and in those of their spouses and dependents for the period of duration of the fellowship in the country.

Article 21 - Accreditation: The Director of the Office, or whosoever replaces him, shall send to the Foreign Ministry a list of the personnel of the Office and of the General Secretariat working in the country, eligible for the privileges according to this Agreement.

C. GENERAL FEATURES

Article 22 - Nature of the Privileges and Immunities: In accordance with Article 14 of the Agreement on Privileges and Immunities referred to in Article 8, the privileges and immunities in this section are granted to the personnel of the Office and of the General Secretariat in the interest only of the General Secretariat and of the Organization. Consequently, the Secretary General or the Director, by delegation, shall waive the privileges and immunities of any staff member in any case where, in the judgment of the Secretary General, the exercise thereof would impede the course of justice, and when such waiver can be made without prejudice to the interests of the Office and of the General Secretariat.

Article 23 - Most Favourable Provisions: The Office, the General Secretariat and the Organization, and also their staff members, may avail themselves of the most favourable provisions now in force or that may be issued or agreed upon in the future by the country regarding immunities, privileges, or prerogatives for other international organizations or technical cooperation missions, and for the personnel of these organizations or missions.

V. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 24 - Cooperation: The Office, the General Secretariat and the Organization:

GENERAL SECRETARIAT

1. Shall cooperate with the competent authorities of the country to facilitate the proper administration of justice, to see to compliance with police, traffic, and health ordinances and regulations, and other similar ones; and to prevent abuses of the privileges, immunities and facilities granted through this Agreement.

2. Shall take whatever steps may be necessary for the appropriate settlement of:

(a) Disputes arising out of contracts or other matters of private law to which they may be party;

(b) Disputes involving any of their staff members with respect to which they enjoy immunity provided that the General Secretariat has not expressly waived this immunity.

Article 25 - Security: No article of this Agreement shall be construed as precluding the adoption of appropriate security measures in the interest of the country.

Article 26 - Settlement of Disagreements: Any disagreement on application or interpretation of the provisions of this Agreement shall be settled by whatever procedure is agreed to by the Government and the General Secretariat.

Article 27 - Amendment: This Agreement may be amended by mutual consent of the Government and of the General Secretariat.

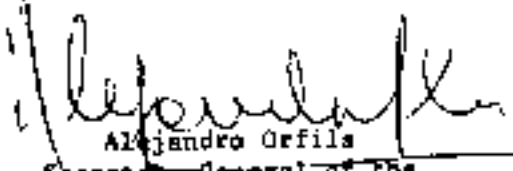

Article 28 - Force: This Agreement shall enter into force on the day it is signed and shall remain in force indefinitely. However, either of the parties may terminate it by notifying the other of its desire to do so one year in advance of the date on which that termination is to take effect.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, duly authorized to do so, sign two identical copies of this Agreement in Washington, D.C., United States of America, on this twenty-sixth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and eighty three.

FOR THE GOVERNMENT

John G. M. Compton
Prime Minister and Minister of Home Affairs, Finance, Planning and Foreign Affairs of Saint Lucia

FOR THE GENERAL SECRETARIAT

Alejandro Orfils
Secretary General of the Organization of American States

