

17th St. & Constitution Avenue N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20006
United States of America

Organization of American States

P. 202.458.3000
www.oas.org

- Antigua and Barbuda
- Argentina
- The Bahamas
- Barbados
- Belize
- Bolivia
- Brazil
- Canada
- Chile
- Colombia
- Costa Rica
- Cuba
- Dominica
- Dominican Republic
- Ecuador
- El Salvador
- Grenada
- Guatemala
- Guyana
- Haiti
- Honduras
- Jamaica
- Mexico
- Nicaragua
- Panama
- Paraguay
- Peru
- Saint Kitts and Nevis
- Saint Lucia
- Saint Vincent and the Grenadines
- Suriname
- Trinidad and Tobago
- United States of America
- Uruguay
- Venezuela

Here is what Rowe Fund

Ex-beneficiaries have to Say

In response to the following two of the ten questions in the survey:

- What are you doing to assist in your country’s economic development?
- How has your international experience changed you as an individual and as a professional?

* * * * *

“Political Science studies allowed me to have a broad picture of issues such as poverty, discrimination, and inequality.”

R. Alayza from Peru
Fordham University
Doctorate in Political Science

* * * * *

“My contribution to my country has been preparing new engineers to develop high quality work.”

A. Avila from Chile
University of Missouri
Doctorate in Mathematics

* * * * *

“My research at the University (on judicial independence and public transparency) has been helpful in advising both the Ministry of Justice and the National Audit office.”

J. Couso from Chile
University of California, Berkeley
Doctorate in Comparative Public Law

* * * * *

“I contribute academically and culturally to my country as I use what I have learned in the US every time I step into the classroom.”

R. Da Silva from Brazil
Carson Newman College
Masters in Teaching English as a Second Language

17th St. & Constitution Avenue N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20006
United States of America

Organization of American States

P. 202.458.3000
www.oas.org

- Antigua and Barbuda
- Argentina
- The Bahamas
- Barbados
- Belize
- Bolivia
- Brazil
- Canada
- Chile
- Colombia
- Costa Rica
- Cuba
- Dominica
- Dominican Republic
- Ecuador
- El Salvador
- Grenada
- Guatemala
- Guyana
- Haiti
- Honduras
- Jamaica
- Mexico
- Nicaragua
- Panama
- Paraguay
- Peru
- Saint Kitts and Nevis
- Saint Lucia
- Saint Vincent and the Grenadines
- Suriname
- Trinidad and Tobago
- United States of America
- Uruguay
- Venezuela

“Personally, I feel confident when dealing with people and businesses from other countries.”

A. Gonzalez from Mexico
MIT, Sloan School of Management
Masters in Business Administration

* * * * *

“I used my industrial engineering knowledge to help improve production on a textile industry in Peru. My engineering studies in the US gave me a strong background that I used in Peru.

As an individual, I gained valuable international knowledge by interacting with people from different countries. As a professional, I learned the tools necessary to develop myself as an engineer.”

M. Tovar from Peru
St. Mary's University
Bachelors in Engineering

* * * * *

“My international experience has completely changed my mind set and perception of the world.”

H. Beltran from Colombia
Monterey Institute of International Studies
Masters in International Business Administration

* * * * *

“Having worked in the US and in Europe, I feel very competent and see great potential for students from Latin America. Unfortunately qualified jobs are limited in some Latin American countries.”

C. Castro from Peru
Michigan State University
Masters in Agriculture and Natural Resources

* * * * *

“It has broadened my perspective on diversity, economic development, and the practice of the law.”

G. Sterling from Dominican Republic
John Marshall Law School
Masters in Intellectual Property Law

* * * * *

17th St. & Constitution Avenue N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20006
United States of America

Organization of American States

P. 202.458.3000
www.oas.org

- Antigua and Barbuda
- Argentina
- The Bahamas
- Barbados
- Belize
- Bolivia
- Brazil
- Canada
- Chile
- Colombia
- Costa Rica
- Cuba
- Dominica
- Dominican Republic
- Ecuador
- El Salvador
- Grenada
- Guatemala
- Guyana
- Haiti
- Honduras
- Jamaica
- Mexico
- Nicaragua
- Panama
- Paraguay
- Peru
- Saint Kitts and Nevis
- Saint Lucia
- Saint Vincent and the Grenadines
- Suriname
- Trinidad and Tobago
- United States of America
- Uruguay
- Venezuela

“I am in close collaboration with a network of scientist, which allows me to bring information and technology to my country.”

A. Chavez from Peru
University of Colorado
Masters in Biotechnology

* * * * *

“My studies in the US provided me with the necessary analytical tools and a reference frame work.”

C. Perez from Mexico
University of Chicago
Doctorate in Economics

* * * * *

“I work in exports, which directly helps with the growth of my country's economy.”

R. Hernandez from Colombia
Oklahoma City University
Masters in Business Administration

* * * * *

“I've been working in transparency and government accountability issues in close collaboration with non-profit organizations. This work contributes to democratic consolidation in Mexico.”

A. Oejo from Mexico
New York University
Masters in Public Policy and Non-profit Management

* * * * *

“As an individual, I have been enriched by a different culture and can appreciate the world with a different perspective.”

C. Chaparro from Colombia
University of Illinois
Masters in Civil Engineering

* * * * *

“I got a better understanding of other experiences in the world, not only from my professors but also by interacting with my classmates. I

17th St. & Constitution Avenue N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20006
United States of America

Organization of American States

P. 202.458.3000
www.oas.org

- Antigua and Barbuda
- Argentina
- The Bahamas
- Barbados
- Belize
- Bolivia
- Brazil
- Canada
- Chile
- Colombia
- Costa Rica
- Cuba
- Dominica
- Dominican Republic
- Ecuador
- El Salvador
- Grenada
- Guatemala
- Guyana
- Haiti
- Honduras
- Jamaica
- Mexico
- Nicaragua
- Panama
- Paraguay
- Peru
- Saint Kitts and Nevis
- Saint Lucia
- Saint Vincent and the Grenadines
- Suriname
- Trinidad and Tobago
- United States of America
- Uruguay
- Venezuela

am part of a network related with gender and the law that focuses specifically on reproductive health issues.”

F. Martínez from Colombia,
Florida International University
Master in International Business Administration

* * * * *

“I contribute to my country by working with a financial institution that has among its aims sustainable development in the South American region.”

M. Barrera from Ecuador
American Graduate School of International Management
Master in International Business Administration

* * * * *

“I contribute to my country by developing international standards of risk management practice and processes to several banks within Jamaica. Personally, I have become acquainted with international standards of hiring, work environment, efficiency and motivating employees.”

C. Levy from Jamaica
Florida International University
Master in Finance

* * * * *

“Studying in the US has given me the distance to observe and the framework to be able to act and solve problems.”

A. Hoogesteyn from Venezuela
Cornell University
Doctorate in Zoology

* * * * *

“On account of my international experiences in the USA and Africa, I became acculturated to some extent and have learned to appreciate similar or different cultures.”

A. Isaac from Guyana
Loma Linda University
Master in Public Health

* * * * *

17th St. & Constitution Avenue N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20006
United States of America

Organization of American States

P. 202.458.3000
www.oas.org

- Antigua and Barbuda
- Argentina
- The Bahamas
- Barbados
- Belize
- Bolivia
- Brazil
- Canada
- Chile
- Colombia
- Costa Rica
- Cuba
- Dominica
- Dominican Republic
- Ecuador
- El Salvador
- Grenada
- Guatemala
- Guyana
- Haiti
- Honduras
- Jamaica
- Mexico
- Nicaragua
- Panama
- Paraguay
- Peru
- Saint Kitts and Nevis
- Saint Lucia
- Saint Vincent and the Grenadines
- Suriname
- Trinidad and Tobago
- United States of America
- Uruguay
- Venezuela

“Studying in the US has definitely been a turning point in my life at both levels (individually and professionally).”

J. Alvarez from Costa Rica
American University
Master in International Legal Studies

* * * * *

“My major contributions to my country are in the construction of human and social capital as a university professor. I continue to grow a wide international network of peers while thinking globally and acting locally.”

F. Lamus from Colombia,
Tulane University
Doctorate in Applied Development

* * * * *

“Studying in the US has given me a whole different perspective about life, how to get things done in a different country, and multicultural perspective.”

J. Luque from Peru
Duke University
Master in Business Administration

* * * * *

“Studying in the US has been by far the most important experience of my life. It has opened my mind about the world.”

R. De Sola from Venezuela
American University
Master in International Legal Studies

* * * * *

“I contribute to the betterment of my country by teaching undergraduate and graduate courses at a federal university in Brazil. I also write research papers and contribute to public policies. It was a great experience and I am a better person than before studying abroad.”

A. Benetti from Brazil
Cornell University
Doctorate in Environmental Engineering

* * * * *

17th St. & Constitution Avenue N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20006
United States of America

Organization of American States

P. 202.458.3000
www.oas.org

- Antigua and Barbuda
- Argentina
- The Bahamas
- Barbados
- Belize
- Bolivia
- Brazil
- Canada
- Chile
- Colombia
- Costa Rica
- Cuba
- Dominica
- Dominican Republic
- Ecuador
- El Salvador
- Grenada
- Guatemala
- Guyana
- Haiti
- Honduras
- Jamaica
- Mexico
- Nicaragua
- Panama
- Paraguay
- Peru
- Saint Kitts and Nevis
- Saint Lucia
- Saint Vincent and the Grenadines
- Suriname
- Trinidad and Tobago
- United States of America
- Uruguay
- Venezuela

“Studying in the US has provided me with the expertise to assist children in my home community at the grassroots level with much needed speech language services.”

C. Edwards-Henry from Jamaica
Southern University
Master in Speech Pathology

* * * * *

“My experience has impacted my life completely, from a personal and professional standpoint. What I studied helped me become what I am now professionally.”

C. Santangelo from Argentina
Harvard University
Master in Public Administration

* * * * *

“Multinational countries value the work of Colombian nationals and allow them opportunities in management. This allows for knowledge transfers to the county. As a professional, I have expanded my vision of the world and also found that Colombia has a lot to offer.”

M. Lorza from Colombia,
Thunderbird, the American Graduate School of International Management
Master in International Business Administration

* * * * *

“My academic and professional interests in human rights, humanitarian law, refugee law, and international criminal law may have contributed to further discussion on enforcement of such rights.”

E. Santalla from Bolivia
University of San Francisco
Master in Law, LLM

* * * * *

“I have changed as an individual I have become more conscious about the needy. As a professional, I learned that developing trust in business relationships is the key to escalate the professional ladder.”

D. Peralta from Peru
Texas A & M University
Doctorate in Civil Engineering

17th St. & Constitution Avenue N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20006
United States of America

Organization of American States

P. 202.458.3000
www.oas.org

Antigua and Barbuda

* * * * *

Argentina

The Bahamas

Barbados

Belize

Bolivia

Brazil

Canada

Chile

Colombia

Costa Rica

Cuba

Dominica

Dominican Republic

Ecuador

El Salvador

Grenada

Guatemala

Guyana

Haiti

Honduras

Jamaica

Mexico

Nicaragua

Panama

Paraguay

Peru

Saint Kitts and Nevis

Saint Lucia

Saint Vincent and the Grenadines

Suriname

Trinidad and Tobago

United States of America

Uruguay

Venezuela

“I am able to positively contribute to a transforming sector with a new disposition to management. Studying in the US has provided me with wider exposure and an appreciation of best practices internationally. It also instilled in me a greater disciplined approach to work.”

G. D’Aguilar from Jamaica
Georgia State University
Master in Business Administration

* * * * *

“While working for the hotel, I was teaching service seminars to servers at several restaurants. These are people of low income that would not be able to afford education in this field.”

M. Hidalgo from Ecuador
International College of Hospitality Management
Associate, Hospitality Management

* * * * *

“Today I work as a commercial manager for an Aquaculture Business in Honduras. Through the products and services that we sell, thousands of large and small tilapia producers in central America benefit.”

E. Suazo from Honduras
Cornell University
Master in International Agriculture and Rural Development

* * * * *

“Being able to shape public policy for the development of private sector.”

D. Arias from Argentina
Harvard University
Master in Public Administration in International Development

* * * * *

“The experience I got in the US is extremely helpful to analyze such a complex situation in some of our countries. I have had the opportunity to interact with people from all over the world and learned not only techniques but how to interrelate with different people.”

J. Alvaredo from Argentina

17th St. & Constitution Avenue N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20006
United States of America

Organization of American States

P. 202.458.3000
www.oas.org

Antigua and Barbuda
Argentina
The Bahamas
Barbados
Belize
Bolivia
Brazil
Canada
Chile
Colombia
Costa Rica
Cuba
Dominica
Dominican Republic
Ecuador
El Salvador
Grenada
Guatemala
Guyana
Haiti
Honduras
Jamaica
Mexico
Nicaragua
Panama
Paraguay
Peru
Saint Kitts and Nevis
Saint Lucia
Saint Vincent and the Grenadines
Suriname
Trinidad and Tobago
United States of America
Uruguay
Venezuela

Columbia University - MA in International Affairs

“The experience of studying abroad has helped me understand the concepts of globalization and internationalization.”

D. Conde from Colombia
University of Connecticut
Doctorate in Materials Science

* * * * *

“It allowed me to get a postgraduate education which obviously prepares oneself to be a better professional. Personally, living in a foreign country is a very valuable experience. I don't think I have made any notable contributions to Colombia's economic development.”

F. Botero from Colombia,
University of Chicago
Master in Social Science

* * * * *

“It made me a more well-rounded professional and expanded my professional work.”

L. Gomez from Peru
Carnegie Mellon University
Master in Public Policy and Management

* * * * *

“I have contributed to my country by offering skills pertaining to using computer systems and how they impact business. Studying in the US has given me a larger view of the world around me.”

B. Skeete from Barbados
Florida International University
Master in Component Services

* * * * *

“It gave me a broad perspective about development, inequality, and power.”

M. Piglo from Peru
American University
Master in Business Administration/ Finance

17th St. & Constitution Avenue N.W.
 Washington, D.C. 20006
 United States of America

Organization of American States

P. 202.458.3000
www.oas.org

- Antigua and Barbuda
- Argentina
- The Bahamas
- Barbados
- Belize
- Bolivia
- Brazil
- Canada
- Chile
- Colombia
- Costa Rica
- Cuba
- Dominica
- Dominican Republic
- Ecuador
- El Salvador
- Grenada
- Guatemala
- Guyana
- Haiti
- Honduras
- Jamaica
- Mexico
- Nicaragua
- Panama
- Paraguay
- Peru
- Saint Kitts and Nevis
- Saint Lucia
- Saint Vincent and the Grenadines
- Suriname
- Trinidad and Tobago
- United States of America
- Uruguay
- Venezuela

“Studying in the US showed me how good the education is in my home country, Colombia, and it gave me an exposure to a varied range of cultures and people that I otherwise wouldn't have.

I found in New Zealand a good opportunity to further my professional experience and to raise a family, but I hope to return to Colombia in a few years.”

A. Jaramillo from Colombia
 Utah State University
 Master in Engineering

* * * * *

“I have contributed to my country by engaging in entrepreneurship activities in my country to further commercial interaction between my country and the rest of the world.”

S. Carrillo from Colombia
 University of Southern California
 Master in Business Administration

* * * * *

“I have contributed to my country by founding a non-profit organization to help children in extreme poverty in Peru (www.sonrisasperu.org).”

A. De Losada from Peru
 University of Maryland
 Master in Business Administration

* * * * *

“I have been able to make a significant contribution to the technical and theoretical level of both undergraduate and graduate students. Studying in the US gave me a completely different perspective of the career I was seeking and the way to master it.”

P. Vivero from Ecuador
 University of Illinois
 Master in Economics

* * * * *

“I am more open to new cultures and different ways of thinking.”

J. Castellanos from El Salvador
 University of Texas, Austin
 Master in Business Administration

* * * * *

17th St. & Constitution Avenue N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20006
United States of America

Organization of American States

P. 202.458.3000
www.oas.org

- Antigua and Barbuda
- Argentina
- The Bahamas
- Barbados
- Belize
- Bolivia
- Brazil
- Canada
- Chile
- Colombia
- Costa Rica
- Cuba
- Dominica
- Dominican Republic
- Ecuador
- El Salvador
- Grenada
- Guatemala
- Guyana
- Haiti
- Honduras
- Jamaica
- Mexico
- Nicaragua
- Panama
- Paraguay
- Peru
- Saint Kitts and Nevis
- Saint Lucia
- Saint Vincent and the Grenadines
- Suriname
- Trinidad and Tobago
- United States of America
- Uruguay
- Venezuela

“I was part of a small team in charge of designing and launching a major social program (A Trabajar Urbano) which has been recognized for promoting civil society participation in funds allocation.

Professionally I am now able to address social problems in my home country and in the Latin American region from a wider perspective. Individually, I am more tolerant to other cultures.”

R. Sandoval from Peru
University of Syracuse
Master in Public Administration

* * * * *

“As an individual the experience studying in the US was good, as a professional not so much.”

C. Barreto from Colombia
Schiller International University
Master in Business Administration

* * * * *

“I got more self-confidence and I understand how people around the world work and think. I’ve learned not to give up and to always see opportunities.”

L. Ayala from Bolivia
Kennesaw State University
Master in Business Administration

* * * * *

“I have contributed to my country with knowledge of international markets and ways to reach them with our products and services and Understanding of other cultures and opportunities for business. It gave me a different version of the world and the possibilities of commerce.”

D. Salazar from Colombia
Johns Hopkins University
Master in Marketing

* * * * *

“Studying abroad in a US university has allowed me to bring a broader mindset to local journalism. It has allowed me to meet a variety of people and live with a wide range of experiences that I wouldn't have lived otherwise. It was enriching both personally and professionally.”

D. Mohor from Chile

17th St. & Constitution Avenue N.W.
 Washington, D.C. 20006
 United States of America

Organization of American States

P. 202.458.3000
www.oas.org

Antigua and Barbuda	University of California, Berkeley
Argentina	Master in Journalism
The Bahamas
Barbados	* * * * *
Belize
Bolivia	"I have contributed to my country by widening the possibilities of providing high level legal services for US and South American based clients in the financing and development of infrastructure projects that have direct ties with US legal framework. I believe the skills I acquired make me a better professional now. As an individual it has opened my mind to the world outside my country and helped me understand things from a global perspective."
Brazil
Canada
Chile
Colombia
Costa Rica
Cuba
Dominica
Dominican Republic	J. Inchauste from Bolivia
Ecuador	Georgetown University
El Salvador	Master in Law
Grenada
Guatemala	* * * * *
Guyana	"It opened the door wide to learn about different cultures and views."
Haiti
Honduras	A. Galindo from Argentina
Jamaica	American University
Mexico	Master in Law, LLM
Nicaragua
Panama	* * * * *
Paraguay	"As a developer, I am planning to create many projects in Mexico and get many investors from the US. I will focus on US investors willing to do business in Mexico."
Peru
Saint Kitts and Nevis
Saint Lucia
Saint Vincent and the Grenadines	C, Gomez from Mexico
Suriname	Arizona State University
Trinidad and Tobago	Master in Construction
United States of America	* * * * *
Uruguay
Venezuela	"I have worked in the IT sector for a few years and contributed by being part of the workforce in my country. My studies in the US helped me move up in my field even though my area of study was not related. Studying in the US made me more aware, better organized, and a deeper thinker."
	K. Mangatal from Jamaica
	Florida International University
	Master in Business Administration
	* * * * *

17th St. & Constitution Avenue N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20006
United States of America

Organization of American States

P. 202.458.3000
www.oas.org

- Antigua and Barbuda
- Argentina
- The Bahamas
- Barbados
- Belize
- Bolivia
- Brazil
- Canada
- Chile
- Colombia
- Costa Rica
- Cuba
- Dominica
- Dominican Republic
- Ecuador
- El Salvador
- Grenada
- Guatemala
- Guyana
- Haiti
- Honduras
- Jamaica
- Mexico
- Nicaragua
- Panama
- Paraguay
- Peru
- Saint Kitts and Nevis
- Saint Lucia
- Saint Vincent and the Grenadines
- Suriname
- Trinidad and Tobago
- United States of America
- Uruguay
- Venezuela

“When I finished my masters degree I was accepted into the PhD program at UNC. I am working on a research project about volcanic eruptions in my country. “

M. Ruiz from Ecuador

* * * * *

“Besides being a part-time professor teaching several courses on thermal sciences at a local university, I founded my own company which manufactures thermal equipment for the local market.”

V. Adum from Ecuador

* * * * *

“Studying in the US has been a great experience because it has allowed me to learn more about different cultures. As a professional, I learned many new things at great depth.”

J. Carrion from Ecuador

* * * * *

“At present I am in the last year of my PHD. After obtaining my degree I expect to obtain a position as a full-time professor in my home country. There is no question of the significance of studying abroad. It has given me the opportunity to interact with an impressive diversity of scientists and non-scientists with very different skills.”

J. Guayasamin from Ecuador

* * * * *

“It changed my point of view of culture, personal behavior and let me improve professionally in Ecuador.”

A. Rigail from Ecuador

* * * * *

“After returning to my country of origin, Peru, I worked for the Ministry of Economy, contributing in public policy issues. Now I work for an international development organization in rural development. I can not conceive myself or my career without the international experience I gained when studying in the USA.”

L. Hitze from Peru
North Carolina State University
Doctorate in Economics

17th St. & Constitution Avenue N.W.
 Washington, D.C. 20006
 United States of America

Organization of American States

P. 202.458.3000
www.oas.org

Antigua and Barbuda	* * * * *
Argentina	"Studying in the US was an extraordinary experience "
The Bahamas	C. Green from Argentina
Barbados	University of Pennsylvania
Belize	Master in Law, LLM
Bolivia
Brazil
Canada	"Publishing and doing research in exercise science. Pursuing a PhD not offered in Argentina. I visited over twenty countries, met my wife and erased limits to what I could accomplish both professionally and personally."
Chile	M. Palavicini from Argentina
Colombia	California State University, Fresno
Costa Rica	Master in Kinesiology
Cuba
Dominica	* * * * *
Dominican Republic	"I was able to achieve all of my dreams."
Ecuador	V. Rojas from Chile
El Salvador	University of Texas, Austin
Grenada	Doctorate in Journalism
Guatemala
Guyana	* * * * *
Haiti	"It was very beneficial. It made me understand cultural differences. Professionally, it opened more doors to find better jobs."
Honduras	M. Weckenmann from Ecuador
Jamaica	Oklahoma City University
Mexico	Master in International Business Administration
Nicaragua	* * * * *
Panama	"Knowing the language and having a degree from a US university is definitely a plus."
Paraguay	C. Hernandez, from Colombia,
Peru	Texas A & M University
Saint Kitts and Nevis	Master in Engineering
Saint Lucia	* * * * *
Saint Vincent and the Grenadines	"I started the Fund for Development of Brazil, which I preside over nowadays. The fund finances the creation of strategic infrastructure such as schools, health establishments, libraries, parks, etc."
Suriname	R. Mareno from Brazil
Trinidad and Tobago	George Washington University
United States of America
Uruguay
Venezuela

17th St. & Constitution Avenue N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20006
United States of America

Organization of American States

P. 202.458.3000
www.oas.org

Antigua and Barbuda
Argentina
The Bahamas
Barbados
Belize
Bolivia
Brazil
Canada
Chile
Colombia
Costa Rica
Cuba
Dominica
Dominican Republic
Ecuador
El Salvador
Grenada
Guatemala
Guyana
Haiti
Honduras
Jamaica
Mexico
Nicaragua
Panama
Paraguay
Peru
Saint Kitts and Nevis
Saint Lucia
Saint Vincent and the Grenadines
Suriname
Trinidad and Tobago
United States of America
Uruguay
Venezuela

Bachelors in Latin American Studies

* * * * *

“An adequate institutional framework has a positive influence on economic growth. For example, to establish a simple regulation (decreasing the bureaucratic steps) to create new business promotes job creation. Studying in the US helped me to better understand cultural differences.”

N. Luzi from Argentina
American University
Master in Law, LLM

* * * * *

“I am working for a non-profit organization that works in the interest of coffee growers of Colombia.”

A. Osorio from Colombia,
Georgetown University
Master in Law, LLM

* * * * *

“Security stability and intelligence sharing towards the CARICOM Single market economy.”

K. Lee SamFrom Trinidad and Tobago
University of Denver
Master in International Development

* * * * *

“Its definitely given me a wider perspective on life and the opportunities at hand to make a difference wherever you are.”

V. Herrera from Venezuela
University of Evansville
Bachelors in Business Management

* * * * *