

Caribbean Sustainable Energy Program (CSEP)

Ministry of Public Utilities, Energy and Ports and the Organization of American States

In Partnership with the

Renewable Energy and Energy Efficiency Partnership (REEEP), CARICOM Secretariat, Caribbean Energy Utility Services Corporation (CARILEC), and Caribbean Renewable Energy Development Programme (CREDP)

Meeting Sponsored by a Grant from: The European Commission

Government Stakeholder Meeting

Monday, 23 March 2009

Conference Room, Fort Young Hotel

AGENDA

- 10:00 – 10:15 am*      Welcome and Introductory Remarks – Vincent Philbert, Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Public Utilities, Energy and Ports
- 10:15 – 10:25 am*      Remarks – Dr. Joseph Campbell, Director National Office, Organization of American States
- 10:25 – 10:40 am*      Remarks – Dr. Andre Poucet, Head of Section, European Commission Delegation Barbados
- 10:40 – 11:00 am*      Remarks – Honourable Charles Savarin, Minister for Public Utilities, Energy and Ports
- 11:00 – 11:15 am*      Coffee Break
- 11:15– 1:00 pm*      Toward a Sustainable Energy Framework in Dominica:
- Review of CSEP Project Objectives and Activities
Presented by: Mark Lambrides and Carolina Peña, Organization of American States
  - Energy Policy and Planning approaches throughout the Region
Presented by: TBD, Consultant to the CSEP Project and,
Detlef Loy, Consultant to CREDP/GTZ
  - Discussion: Designing an appropriate Sustainable Energy Pathway for Dominica
Moderated by Mark Lambrides
- 1:00 -2:00 pm*      Lunch (Served in the Fort Young Hotel)