1st Workshop on Maritime Safety

April 28-30, 2013
Washington, DC

NEWSLETTER

Background: In broader terms, this proposed pilot workshop follows the theme of President Obama's April, 2009, speech at the Summit of the Americas, and the subsequent Caribbean Basin Security Initiative (CBSI) Partnership launched in May, 2010. More than a series of programs, CBSI has been an ongoing collaboration that draws upon and helps develop the ability of the Caribbean to address common and related challenges. Safety and security capacity-building is an example, particularly in preparation for the Panama Canal expansion.

The key objectives of the CBSI Partnership include three specific goals: 1) "Substantially reduce illicit trafficking," 2) "Increase public safety and security," and 3) "Promote social justice." The U.S. Department of Transportation's Maritime Administration (MARAD) has taken the lead in addressing maritime safety responsibilities.

In this context this 1st Workshop on Maritime Safety is organized in response to requests from the Inter-American Committee on ports (CIP) and Caribbean Basin Security Initiative (CBSI) member countries. Representatives from all OAS Member States are welcome to participate.

Objectives: To strengthen institutional capabilities in Maritime Safety of OAS member Countries with special emphasis on the CBSI through the provision of high quality training and exposure to successful practices to selected applicants.

Name of the Activity: 1st Workshop on Maritime Safety

Technical Advisory Group (TAG): Port Protection and Security, MARAD, US.

Organizers: The Secretariat of the Inter-American Committee on Ports (CIP) of the Organization of American States (OAS), in collaboration with the U.S. Department of Transportation's Maritime Administration (MARAD) and with the financial support of the U.S. State Department through the Permanent Mission of the U.S. to the OAS.

Dates, City and Venue: The workshop will take place from April 28-30, 2013 in the OAS Headquarters (Padilha Vidal Room, TL Area) located in 1889 F Street N.W., Postal Code 20006, Washington DC, United States (US).

Agenda and Schedule: Agenda and Schedule are being drafted by the CIP Secretariat, in coordination with the Delegation of the United States and the Permanent Mission of the United States to the OAS. Agenda as of today is enclosed.

Language: English and Spanish simultaneous interpretation will be provided.

Participants: Participants include senior managers of port companies and/or high-ranking officers with policy and or decision capabilities, government officials responsible for the areas of Maritime Safety and Security, and/or senior staff of companies and organizations of port communities.

Admission and Registration: Interested applicants must complete the attached registration form and send it by e-mail or fax to the CIP/OAS Secretariat. Registration is required due to limited space.
