1. ABOUT The General Secretariat of the Organization of American States

GS/OAS is the central and permanent organ of the Organization of American States (OAS). Through its Department of Human Development and Education (DHDE), GS/OAS supports OAS member states in creating policies and executing programs that promote human capacity development at all educational levels. By enabling formative opportunities to citizens, DHDE strengthens democratic values and security under the framework of regional integration. DHDE does this: (i) by supporting the efforts of OAS member states to improve the quality of and equity in education; and (ii) by assisting the citizens of the Americas in realizing their full potential by giving them access to knowledge and skills through training that improves the standard of living for individuals, families and communities in the region.

2. ABOUT The UNESCO-IHE Institute for Water Education

The UNESCO-IHE Institute for Water Education was established in 2003. It carries out research, education and capacity development activities in water related fields. The UNESCO-IHE is the largest water education facility in the world, and the only institution in the UN system authorized to confer accredited M.Sc. degrees, and provides PhD education in collaboration with partner universities. The UNESCO-IHE Institute for Water Education is based in and operates from Delft, the Netherlands, and facilitates all UNESCO member states.

3. Application for Admission Information

The candidate should begin the admission process to the degree program before applying for the Scholarship.

Student/Applicant's profile:

The program is intended for practicing sanitation sector professionals, or for those who have aspirations to work in the sector.

Admission Process:

For information about the UNESCO-IHE's application process for the online courses of the GPDP, please visit the UNESCO-IHE's website <https://www.unesco-ihe.org/graduate-professional-diploma-programme> or contact UNESCO-IHE at onlinecourse@unesco-ihe.org

The following documents are necessary to obtain admission to the program:

- a) Participants must comply with the education and examination regulations of the GPDP set by UNESCO-IHE.
- b) The minimum requirement to obtain a GPDP diploma is to collect at least 20 European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System (ECTS) credits. The table below describes the online courses offered by UNESCO-IHE as part of the GPDP and their respective number of ECTS credits. Participants have to select among three clusters of courses leading to three different tracks:
 - A. Sanitation Track (S): 15 ECTS credits from sanitation online courses must be obtained + 5 ECTS credits from any other online courses listed below.
 - B. Sanitary Engineering Track (SE): 15 ECTS credits from sanitary engineering online courses + 5 ECTS credits from any other online courses listed below.
 - C. All Round/Generalist Track (M): 10 ECTS credits from sanitation online courses + 10 ECTS credits from sanitary engineering courses.
- c) The number of online courses required to collect the 20 ECTS credits required to obtain the diploma ranges between four and five online courses. Each online course is offered only once a year. A detailed schedule showing the starting date of the online courses can be found at <https://www.unesco-ihe.org/online-courses>.
