Introduction

CooperaNet is a response from the Organization of American States' Executive Secretariat for Integral Development (OAS/SEDI) to Member States' mandate to facilitate regional and multi-sectoral cooperation for development.

In 2018, Member States' High-Level Cooperation Authorities highlighted a series of recommendations for action:

- Increase regional coordination on cooperation through the OAS, strengthening engagement with and among Cooperation Authorities.
- Support Member States in identifying and accessing existing and emerging funding and technical assistance opportunities.
- Build a database of practices on specific topics by and for Member States.
- Provide an ongoing forum for Member States' Cooperation Authorities.
- Enable the undertaking of joint solutions to similar development problems.
- Realize the potential of the OAS as an impartial mediator, catalyst, and facilitator of partnerships with other stakeholders.
- Use available technologies and tools to further such engagement.

The CooperaNet online platform offers a consolidated space to optimize partnerships, build alliances and networks, leverage development assistance, and provide more demand-driven technical cooperation in the Americas, while also facilitating the regional attainment of the SDGs. The online functionalities available to Member States and other actors were designed to better position them to lead, engage, partner, and design innovative solutions to development challenges.

To access all of the platform's functionalities, users must join the CooperaNet community as one of three types of potential users:

- Member States: Users associated with a public sector entity from an OAS Member State. These users may indicate needs in their specific sector and match to available cooperation offers and needs.
 - Cooperation Focal Points: Designated by Cooperation Authorities from OAS Member States (may not be self-selected). These are the only users who can make offers or share good practices on behalf of their country, and can also indicate needs and match to available cooperation offers and needs. Focal Points can edit the information contained in the Authority's profile.
- Partners: users from OAS Observer countries, private sector, academia, civil society, and international organizations. They can post offers or share good practices as partners and match to published cooperation needs.
- Experts: users willing to provide technical assistance on development issues, which may be internal (OAS) or external experts.

How to access the Platform?

- Visit CooperaNet: <https://www.oas.org/cooperanet>
- Log-In: If you have an account, click on Log-In, and enter your username and password.
- Register: If you do not have an account, click on Register, and complete the form.

Membership to the CooperaNet Community must be verified. Once you've registered and your information has been submitted, you will receive an email from donotreply@oas.org* containing a link to verify and activate your account. This step is required in order to become a registered user and to upload and access resources shared by other users.

This is an automated message. Please do not reply directly to this e-mail.*

You may access or log-out of your profile by clicking here.

To complete your registration successfully, you must update your profile, filling out all of the required fields. We encourage users to follow the simple instructions to upload a photo, as this will strengthen the community and networking aspect of the platform.

At this point, you are a user of the site, but do not have a member role assigned. In order to be able to actively participate in the community, you must “Join”.

Depending on your member role, you will be granted access to different functionalities available through this menu.

- Join and select a member role: click on “Join” in your user profile. Fill out the form based on the type of user that best adjusts to your profile (Member State, Partner, or Expert – refer to page 2 for more information) and submit your membership request. Permissions will be granted based on your information and after the site administrator reviews and accepts your request.

Member Registration Form

All fields marked in red or (*) are required.

You are currently a user of the site, but you do not have a member role assigned. In order to be able to actively participate in the community, please select your type of profile, fill out the form and submit your request.

Profile Types:

- Member States: Including government entities and those associated to the government, which are potential providers and recipients of development cooperation.
- Partners: Including the private sector, non-governmental organizations, international organizations, OAS Permanent Observers and academic institutions, which are potential providers of development cooperation.
- Experts: Including sector-specific experts from the OAS and from external sources, who may provide technical assistance to governments.

 Please select type:

Member State Partner Expert

Before continuing, select a type of profile above.

Submit

Once you submit your request, please allow us 48 hours to validate your account. If you have questions or suggestions, please Contact Us.

- Forgotten Password: If you forgot your password, click on “Reset Password here” Complete the form and submit. An email with a password reset link will be sent to you from donotreply@oas.org. Click on the link in that email and you will be taken to a page where you can then create a new password.

Sections of the Platform

CooperaNet is comprised by 8 different sections, which provide a combination of static information sources, and interactive features.

Match

- MATCH: Member States (all users, not only Focal Points) or Partners may “Match” to an offer or need, with the intention of realizing regional cooperation to find solutions to development challenges.

You have identified a potential match with: Technical inspections of security in buildings / Peru / Peruvian Agency for International Cooperation (APCI)

An email will be sent to all parties concerned, including the provider of the offer (Member State or partner) or need, and the OAS/SEDI.

Continue?

Yes No

By matching to an offer/good practice or need, an email is sent to all parties concerned, including the requesting Member State, the provider of the offer (Member State or partner), and the OAS/SEDI. Parties are then encouraged to follow-up directly.

- Connect with an Expert: A data base of internal (OAS) and external experts that allows users to seek technical assistance on specific areas of interest.

Experts may be filtered and searched by country (Member State or Other); Type (Internal or External), and Area of Expertise (based on the Areas of Focus).

Users may access additional details by selecting "View Profile".

Expert profiles contain relevant information such as: years of experience in the region, latest and previous professional experience, academic background, and research and publications.

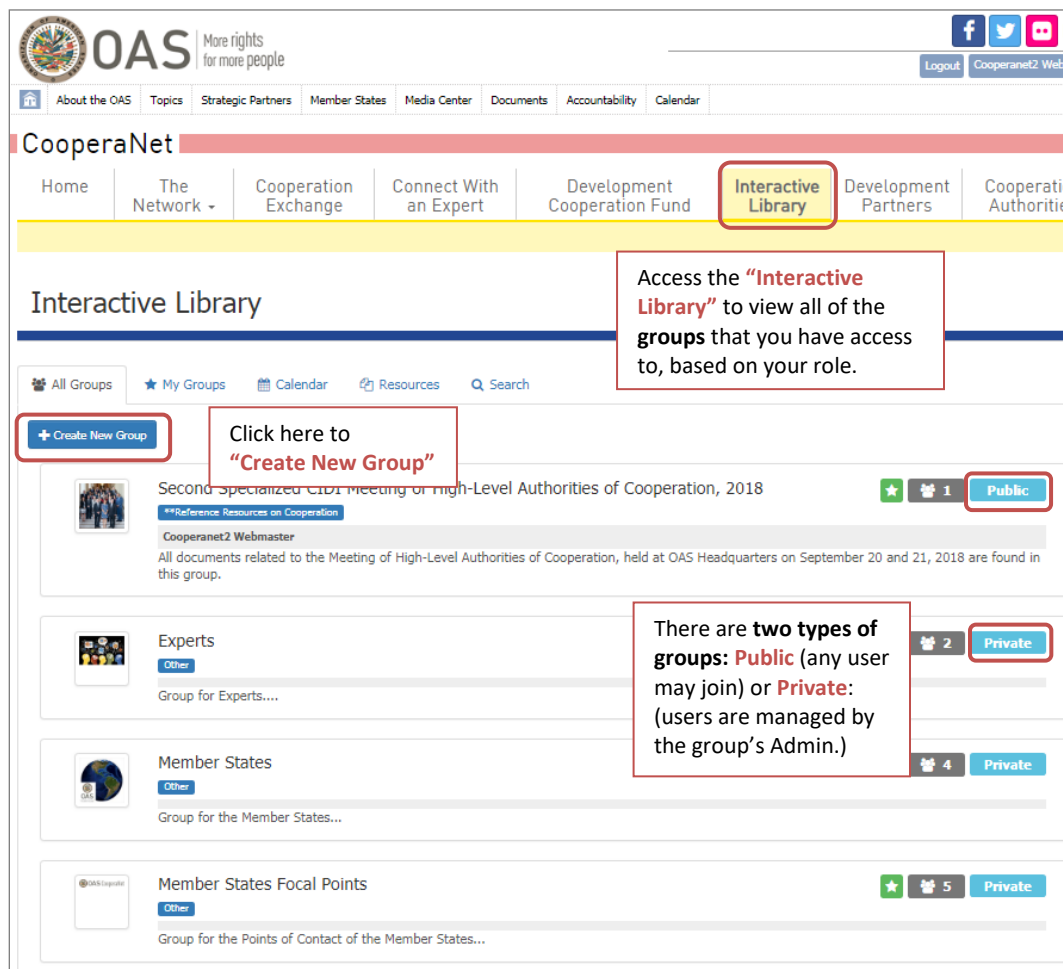

Users interested in exploring technical assistance may click on "Connect" in a specific profile.

By connecting to an expert profile, an email is sent to all parties concerned, including the requesting user, the Expert, and the OAS/SEDI. Parties are then encouraged to follow-up directly.

- Interactive Library: The library is only available to registered users. It features documents, publications, and other relevant resources shared by the community. Its interactive functionalities enable discussions through groups (open or private) to expand on the information uploaded in the library. In addition, community members may share events of interest through a collective calendar.
