

Disaster Risk Management

Name of Initiative:	Decision Support Systems for Disaster Risk Management (DRM) and Adaptation to CC in the Greater Caribbean
Duration:	2022 to 2023
Current participating Countries:	Greater Caribbean – OAS/ CARICOM & OECS Member States
Objective:	To build a bridge among practitioners, academics, and policy and decision makers for the implementation of DRM and Adaptation to CC science-based Decision Support Systems in the Greater Caribbean.
Activities:	Seminars and workshops for applying scientific findings to Risk Assessment, Disaster Mitigation and Prevention; development of Disaster Reconstruction and Recovery Financial and Physical plans; implementation of pilot Reconstruction and Recovery Plans; and development of Indicators for M&E of Reconstruction and Recovery Plans.
Cost and Funding:	USD $4.5 million
Request from Partners:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- Funding</li><li>- Technical, financial and policy tools</li><li>- Public-private Partnerships</li><li>- Horizontal and Triangular Cooperation</li><li>- Knowledge and Best Practice Sharing</li></ul>

Sub-themes

- Resilience
- Disaster Reconstruction & Recovery; Preparedness & Response; Mitigation & Prevention
- CC Adaptation

Beneficiaries

National Emergency Preparedness and Response Systems

Ministries of Finance, Public Works, health, education, tourism, water and sanitation, energy

Expected Results

DRM Science-based Decision Support Systems and Reconstruction & Recovery Plans -financial and physical plans within development plans.

Partners

ISRM Caribbean Chapter

CARICOM

OECS

Point of contact for additional information:
Pablo Gonzalez, SEDI/DSD,
pgonzalez@oas.org

OAS | More rights
for more people