

María Cecilia Cáceres

Judge María Cecilia Cáceres is a lawyer from the University of Chile (1990), specializing in Administrative Law and has a degree in Political Science. She has more than 20 years of experience in the public sector, where she has held managerial and advisory positions to ministerial authorities; she served as Head of the Legal or Fiscal Division or Legal Director in the Ministry of National Assets, in the Ministry of Social Development, in the Ministry of Housing and Urban Development, and in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

As a lawyer, she has provided advisory services in Administrative Law and Public Law to several companies in the private sector. In the Ministry of the General Secretariat of the Presidency, she worked on matters involving modernization of the State and citizen participation in public sector management, and in the Ministry of Public Works she worked on various legal issues.

She has also been a consultant on labor issues and drafting of legislative bills. She has participated in several electoral observation missions with the OAS Department for Electoral Cooperation and Observation, acting as regional coordinator in a number of missions throughout Latin America. As an academic, she was a professor of Family Law at Universidad Católica Cardenal Silva Henríquez and assistant professor of Constitutional Law and Civil Law at Universidad Austral de Chile and Universidad de Chile, respectively.

Judge Cáceres has participated in the publication of the works: "Institucionalidad y Criterios de Gestión para las Empresas Públicas" (May 2001) and "Participación Ciudadana en la Gestión Pública, Marco Conceptual" (June 2001), both prepared and published by the Ministry of the General Secretariat of the Presidency.

She has been a Judge of the Administrative Tribunal since 2023.