of the Minister.

5. The Minister may give to the Financial Intelligence Unit directions in writing of a general nature as to the policy to be followed by the Financial Intelligence Unit in the performance of its functions as appear to the Minister to be requisite in the public interest and the Financial Intelligence Unit shall give effect to those directions.

No order.

6. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other Act, no order for the provision of information, documents or evidence may be issued in respect of the Financial Intelligence Unit or against the Minister, Director, officers or personnel of the Financial Intelligence Unit or any person engaged pursuant to this Act.

No liability.

7. No action shall lie against the Minister, Director, officers or personnel of the Financial Intelligence Unit or any person acting under the direction of the Director for anything done or omitted to be done in good faith and in the administration or discharge of any functions, duties or powers under this Act.

No criminal or civil liability
for information.

8. (1) No proceedings for breach of banking or professional confidentiality may be instituted against any person or against directors or employees of a financial or business entity who in good faith transmit information or submit reports in accordance with the Proceeds of Crime Act, 2000 or under this Act.

(2) No civil or criminal liability action may be brought nor any professional sanction may be taken against any person or against directors or employees of a financial or business entity who in good faith transmit information or submit reports to the Financial Intelligence Unit.

Confidentiality.

9. (1) Any person who obtains information in any form as a result of his connection with the Financial Intelligence Unit shall not disclose that information to any person except so far as it is required or permitted under this Act or any written law.

(2) Any person who communicates any information in breach of subsection (1) commits an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding one year or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Annual Report.

10. (1) The Director shall -

(a) from time to time advise the Minister on the work of the Financial Intelligence Unit and in particular on matters that could affect public policy or the priorities to be set by the Financial Intelligence Unit;

(b) prepare and submit to the Minister on or before June 30 in each year an annual report reviewing the work of the Financial Intelligence Unit.

(2) The Minister shall lay or cause to be laid a copy of every annual report on the table of both Houses of Parliament.

15. (1) Subject to section 16, the Financial Intelligence Unit shall from time to time issue, in respect of each kind of financial institution to which the Financial Transactions Reporting Act, 2000 applies, guidelines-

- (a) setting out any features of a transaction that may give rise to a suspicion that the transaction is or may be relevant to the enforcement of the Proceeds of Crime Act, 2000;

- (b) setting out any circumstances in which a suspicious transaction report relating to such a transaction may be made orally in accordance with section 14(3) of the Financial Transactions Reporting Act, 2000 and the procedures for making such an oral report.

(2) Suspicious transaction guidelines shall be issued in such manner as the Financial Intelligence Unit shall from time to time determine.

(3) The Financial Intelligence Unit may from time to time issue an amendment or revocation of any suspicious transaction guidelines.

(4) Without limiting subsection (1), suspicious transaction guidelines issued under this section may relate to one or more kinds of financial institution; and such guidelines may make different provisions for different kinds of financial institutions and different kinds of transactions.

Consultation on proposed guidelines.

16. (1) The Financial Intelligence Unit shall, before issuing any suspicious transaction guidelines -

- (a) consult with, and invite representations from the Central Bank of The Bahamas, the Securities Commission, the Compliance Commission, the Registrar of Insurance, the Gaming Board and such other agencies and or entities as the Minister may by order designate and shall have regard to any such representations;
- (b) give public notice of the Financial Intelligence Unit's intention to issue the guidelines, which notice shall contain a statement-

- (i) indicating the Financial Intelligence Unit's intention to issue the guidelines, and
- (ii) inviting financial institutions that are likely to be affected by the proposed guidelines, and industry organisations that are representative of those financial institutions, to express to the Financial Intelligence Unit, within such reasonable period as is specified in the notice, their interest in being consulted in the course of the development of the guidelines; and

(c) consult with, and invite representations from, those financial institutions and industry organisations which express such an interest, and shall have regard to any such representations.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) prevents the Financial Intelligence Unit from adopting any additional means of publicising the proposal to issue any suspicious transaction guidelines or of consulting with interested parties in relation to such a proposal.

(3) This section shall apply in respect of any amendment or revocation of any suspicious transaction guidelines.

Financial Intelligence

17. On request by any financial institution in respect of which any suspicious transaction guidelines are for the time being in force, or by any industry organisation of guidelines.

18. (1) The Financial Intelligence Unit shall from time to time review any suspicious transaction guidelines for the time being in force.

(2) Section 18 shall apply, with all necessary modifications, in relation to any such review as if the review were a proposal to issue suspicious transaction guidelines.

FIRST SCHEDULE

(Section 3(3))

THE DIRECTOR OF THE FINANCIAL INTELLIGENCE UNIT

1. (1) The Director shall, subject to the provisions of this paragraph, hold and vacate his office in accordance with the terms of his appointment and shall, on ceasing to hold office, be eligible for re-appointment.

(2) The Director shall not be appointed or re-appointed for a period exceeding five years.

2. (1) The Director shall not while holding office as such hold any other office or employment, whether remunerated or not, without the prior approval of the Minister.

(2) Subject to sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph, a person may not be appointed or remain Director who -

- (a) is a member of either House of Parliament;
- (b) is a public officer; or
- (c) is a director, officer or servant of, or has a controlling interest in, any financial institution.

3. The Minister may appoint any person eligible to be appointed to act temporarily in the place of the Director who is absent or unable to act.

4. The Director may at any time by notice in writing to the Minister resign his office.

5. If the Minister is satisfied that the Director -

- (a) has become bankrupt or made arrangements with his creditors; or
- (b) is incapacitated by physical or mental illness; or
- (c) is otherwise unable or unfit to discharge the functions of a director, the Minister may declare the office of Director vacant and shall notify the fact in such manner as the Minister thinks fit, and thereupon that office shall become vacant.

6. The Director shall receive such remuneration whether by way of salary, honoraria or fees, as the Minister may determine and, if a person ceases to be the Director and it appears to the Minister that there are special circumstances which make it right that the person should receive compensation, the Minister may direct to pay to that person a sum of such amount as the Minister may determine.

7. The Director shall have charge of the day-to-day management and operation of the Financial Intelligence Unit.
