

Organization of
American States

United States Department of Justice
Computer Crime and Intellectual Property Section

Results from the Regional Training Workshops

Report to the OAS-REMJA Working Group on Cybercrime
27 February 2014

Preventing and Fighting Cybercrime

- National legislation
- Capacity to investigate and prosecute
- International cooperation
- Public education
- Cybersecurity strategy

Organization of
American States

United States Department of Justice
Computer Crime and Intellectual Property Section

Activities and Outcomes

Member States

- Legislation and procedural measures
- Capacity to investigate and prosecute
- Budapest Convention on Cybercrime
 - Argentina
 - Chile
 - Costa Rica
 - Mexico
 - United States*
 - Canada
 - Colombia
 - Dominican Republic*
 - Panama

Regional Workshops, 2012-2013

- Cybercrime legislation
 - Bogota (March 2012)
- Investigations and electronic evidence
 - Guatemala (March 2012)
 - Montevideo (July 2012 – with CICTE)
 - Miami (August 2012 – with CICTE)
 - Lima (March 2013)

Other Events, 2012-2013

- Investigations and electronic evidence
 - Bogota (April 2012 – with ATA)
 - Mexico City (August 2012 – with ATA)
 - La Plata (November 2012 – with Argentina)

Participating Member States, 2012-2013

- Antigua & Barbuda
- Argentina
- Bahamas
- Barbados
- Belize
- Bolivia
- Chile
- Colombia
- Costa Rica
- Dominica
- Dominican Republic
- Ecuador
- Grenada
- Guatemala
- Haiti
- Jamaica
- Mexico
- Nicaragua
- Panama
- Paraguay
- Peru
- St Lucia
- St Vincent & the Grenadines
- St Kitts & Nevis
- El Salvador
- Suriname
- Trinidad & Tobago
- Uruguay
- Venezuela
- United States

Looking Ahead to 2014

- Regional workshops for judges

Organization of
American States

United States Department of Justice
Computer Crime and Intellectual Property Section

albert.rees@usdoj.gov

+1 (202) 514-1026